FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL.

---

1 1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaimzophim, of the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, 2 an Ephraimite: and he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had child-3 ren, but Hannah had no children. And this man went up out of his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests unto the LORD, 4 were there. And when the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, 5 portions: but unto Hannah he gave <sup>1</sup>a double portion: for he loved Hannah, but the LORD 6 had shut up her womb. And her rival provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because 7 the LORD had shut up her womb. And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; there-8 fore she wept, and did not eat. And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Hannah, why weep-est thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than 9 ten sons? So Hannah rose up after they had reads, a single portion, because she had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon his seat by the door post of the temple of the LORD. And she <sup>10</sup> was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore. And she vowed a vow, <sup>11</sup> and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid <sup>1</sup>a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head. And it came to pass, as she con- <sup>12</sup> tinued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth. Now Hannah, she spake in her <sup>13</sup> heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken. And Eli said unto her, How long <sup>14</sup> wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee. And Hannah answered and said, No, <sup>15</sup> my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I poured out my soul before the LORD. Count <sup>16</sup> not thine handmaid for <sup>2</sup>a daughter of <sup>3</sup>Belial: for out of the abundance of my complaint and my provocation have I spoken hitherto. Then <sup>17</sup> Eli answered and said, Go in peace: and the God of Israel grant thy petition that thou hast asked of him. And she said, Let thy servant <sup>18</sup> find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad. And they rose up in the <sup>19</sup> morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered her. And it came to <sup>20</sup> pass, when the time was come about, that Hannah conceived, and bare a son; and she called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked

21 him of the LORD. And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer unto the LORD 22 the yearly sacrifice, and his vow. But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear be-23 fore the LORD, and there abide for ever. And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only the LORD establish his word.
 So the woman tarried and gave her son suck, 24 until she weaned him. And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with <sup>1</sup>three bullocks, and one ephah of meal, and a <sup>2</sup>bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young.
 25 And they slew the bullock, and brought the 26 child to Eli. And she said, Oh my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD.
 27 For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him: 28 therefore I also have <sup>3</sup>granted him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he is granted to the LORD.
 And <sup>4</sup>he worshipped the LORD there.

2 1 And Hannah prayed, and said:
 My heart exulteth in the LORD, Mine horn is exalted in the LORD:
 My mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; Because I rejoice in thy salvation.
 2 There is none holy as the LORD; For there is none beside thee:
 Neither is there any rock like our God.
 3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly; Let not arrogancy come out of your mouth:
 For the LORD is a God of knowledge,

They that were full have hired out themselves for bread;

He bringeth low, he also lifteth up.

He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, 8

He lifteth up the needy from the dung-hill,

To make them sit with princes,

And inherit the throne of glory:

And he hath set the world upon them.

He will keep the feet of his <sup>3</sup>holy ones, 9

But the wicked shall be put to silence in darkness;

For by strength shall no man prevail.

They that strive with the LORD shall be broken to pieces;

Against them shall he thunder in heaven:

The LORD shall judge the ends of the earth;

And he shall give strength unto his king,

And exalt the horn of his anointed.

And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. 11

And the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.

<sup>6</sup> Or, they knew not the LORD, nor the due of the priests from the people. When any man &c.

Now the sons of Eli were <sup>4</sup>sons of <sup>5</sup>Belial; 12 <sup>6</sup>they knew not the LORD. And the custom of 13 the priests with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came,

- while the flesh was in seething, with a flesh-14 hook of three teeth in his hand ; and he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot ; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took 15 therewith. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither. Yea, before they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest ; for he will not have sodden 16 flesh of thee, but raw. And if the man said unto him, They will surely burn the fat <sup>2</sup>presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth ; then <sup>3</sup>he would say, Nay, but thou shalt give it me now : and if not, I will take it by 17 force. And the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD : for <sup>4</sup>men abhorred the offering of the LORD.
- 18 But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being 19 a child, girded with a linen ephod. Moreover his mother made him a little robe, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.
 20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman <sup>5</sup>for the loan which was lent to the LORD. And 21 they went unto their own home. <sup>6</sup>And the LORD visited Hannah, and she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the LORD.
- 22 Now Eli was very old ; and he heard all that his sons did unto all Israel, and how that they lay with the women that <sup>7</sup>did service at the door 23 of the tent of meeting. And he said unto them, Why do ye such things ? for I hear of your 24 evil dealings from all this people. Nay, my sons ; for it is no good report <sup>8</sup>that I hear : ye 25 make the LORD's people to transgress. If one man sin against another, <sup>9</sup>God shall judge him :

but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall intreat for him? Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the LORD would slay them. And the child <sup>26</sup> Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the LORD, and also with men.

And there came a man of God unto Eli, and <sup>27</sup> said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Did I reveal myself unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt <sup>1</sup>in bondage to Pharaoh's house? <sup>2</sup>And did I choose him out of all the <sup>28</sup> tribes of Israel to be my priest, to <sup>3</sup>go up unto mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? <sup>4</sup>and did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire? Wherefore <sup>5</sup>kick ye at my <sup>29</sup> sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my habitation; and honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people? Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, saith, I <sup>30</sup> said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed. Be- <sup>31</sup> hold, the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house. And thou shalt behold <sup>6</sup>the affliction of my hab- <sup>32</sup> itation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thine house for ever. <sup>7</sup>And the man of thine, <sup>33</sup> whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die <sup>8</sup>in the flower of their age.  35 they shall die both of them. And I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in mine heart and in my mind : and I will build him a sure house ; and he shall 36 walk before mine anointed for ever. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a morsel of bread.

3 1 And the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was <sup>1</sup>precious in those days ; there was no 2 <sup>2</sup>open vision. And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, (now his eyes had begun to wax dim, that he could not 3 see,) and the lamp of God was not yet gone out, and Samuel was laid down to sleep, in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was ; 4 that the LORD called Samuel : and he said, 5 Here am I. And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I ; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not ; lie down again. And he 6 went and lay down. And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I ; for thou calledst me. And he answered, I called not, my son ; 7 lie down again. Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the 8 LORD yet revealed unto him. And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I ; for thou calledst me. And Eli perceived that 9 the LORD had called the child. Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down : and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD ; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel

went and lay down in his place. And the LORD 10 came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel said, Speak ; for thy servant heareth. And the LORD said to 11 Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle. In that day I will perform 12 against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from the beginning even unto the end.
 For I have told him that I will judge his house 13 for ever, for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons <sup>1</sup>did bring a curse upon themselves, and he restrained them not. And therefore I have 14 sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be <sup>2</sup>purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever. And Samuel lay until 15 the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision. Then Eli called Samuel, and said, 16 Samuel, my son. And he said, Here am I.
 And he said, What is the thing that the LORD 17 hath spoken unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he spake unto thee. And Samuel 18 told him every whit, and hid nothing from him.
 And he said, It is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good. And Samuel grew, and 19 the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground. And all Israel from 20 Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD. And 21 the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD. And the word of 1 4 Samuel came to all Israel.

 has, speak

Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside <sup>3</sup>Eben-ezer: and

- 2 the Philistines pitched in Aphek. And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when <sup>1</sup>they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the <sup>2</sup>army in the field about four thousand men.
- 3 And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to-day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that it may come among us, and save us out of the hand of our enemies.
- 4 So the people sent to Shiloh, and they brought from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which <sup>3</sup>sitteth upon the cherubim: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.
- 5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a
- 6 great shout, so that the earth rang again. And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD
- 7 was come into the camp. And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there
- 8 hath not been such a thing heretofore. Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? these are the gods that smote the Egyptians with all manner of <sup>4</sup>plagues
- 9 in the wilderness. Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and
- 10 fight. And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man to his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

And the ark of God was taken; and the two <sup>11</sup> sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.
And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the <sup>12</sup> <sup>1</sup> army, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.
And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon his seat <sup>13</sup> <sup>2</sup> by the way side watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out. And when Eli heard the noise of the <sup>14</sup> crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man hasted, and came and told Eli. Now Eli was ninety and eight years <sup>15</sup> old; and his eyes were <sup>3</sup> set, that he could not see. And the man said unto Eli, I am he that <sup>16</sup> came out of the <sup>1</sup> army, and I fled to-day out of the <sup>1</sup> army. And he said, How went the matter, my son? And he that brought the tidings <sup>17</sup> answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken. And it came to pass, <sup>18</sup> when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years. And his daughter <sup>19</sup> in law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and brought forth; for her pains came upon her. And about the time of her <sup>20</sup> death the women that stood by her said unto her, Fear not; for thou hast brought forth a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard it. And she named the child <sup>4</sup> Ichabod, <sup>21</sup> saying, The glory is departed from Israel: because the ark of God was taken, and because 5 1 Now the Philistines had taken the ark of God, and they brought it from Eben-ezer unto 2 Ashdod. And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, 3 and set it by Dagon. And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen <sup>1</sup>upon his face to the ground 4 Dagon, and set him in his place again. And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen <sup>1</sup>upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands 5 lay cut off upon the threshold; only the stump

6 But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with <sup>2</sup>tumours, <sup>3</sup>even Ashdod and 7 the borders thereof. And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon 8 our god. They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel against the city with a very great discomfiture : and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and tumours brake out upon them.

 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And <sup>10</sup> it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people.
 They sent therefore and gathered together all <sup>11</sup> the lords of the Philistines, and they said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, that it slay us not, and our people : for there was a deadly discomfiture throughout all the city ; the hand of God was very heavy there. And the men that <sup>12</sup> died not were smitten with the tumours : and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

And the ark of the LORD was in the <sup>1</sup>country <sup>6</sup> of the Philistines seven months<sup>2</sup>. And the <sup>2</sup> Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do with the ark of the LORD ? shew us wherewith we shall send it to its place. And they said, If ye send <sup>3</sup> away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty ; but in any wise return him a <sup>3</sup>guilt offering : then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you. Then said they, What shall be the <sup>4</sup> guilt offering which we shall return to him ?
 And they said, Five golden tumours, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines : for one plague was on <sup>4</sup>you all, and on your lords. Wherefore ye <sup>5</sup> shall make images of your tumours, and images of your mice that mar the land ; and ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel : peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. Where- <sup>6</sup> fore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he had <sup>1</sup>wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let <sup>2</sup>the people go, and they departed? Now therefore take and prepare you a new cart, and two milch kine, on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them: and take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which ye return him for a guilt offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go. And see, if it goeth up by the way of its own border to Beth-shemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us. And the men did so; and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home: and they put the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their tumours. And the kine took the straight way by the way to Beth-shemesh; they went along <sup>3</sup>the high way, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh. And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. And the cart came into the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered up the kine for a burnt offering unto the LORD. And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD. And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

And these are the golden tumours which the Philistines returned for a guilt offering unto the LORD; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities and of country villages: even unto the great stone, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD, which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite. <sup>2</sup>And he smote of the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people seventy men, and fifty thousand men: and the people mourned, because the LORD had smitten the people with a great slaughter. And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? and to whom shall he go up from us? And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, and fetch it up to you. And the men of Kiriath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in <sup>3</sup>the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

And it came to pass, from the day that the ark abode in Kiriath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD. And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray for you unto the LORD.
 6 And they gathered together to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel 7 judged the children of Israel in Mizpah. And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they 8 were afraid of the Philistines. And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save 9 us out of the hand of the Philistines. And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a whole burnt offering unto the LORD : and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel ; and the 10 LORD answered him. And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel : but the LORD thundered with a great <sup>2</sup>thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them ; and 11 they were smitten down before Israel. And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they 12 came under Beth-car. Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called the name of it <sup>3</sup>Eben-ezer, saying, 13 Hitherto hath the LORD helped us. So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more within the border of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. And the cities which the Philistines <sup>14</sup> had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the border thereof did Israel deliver out of the hand of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites. And Samuel judged <sup>15</sup> Israel all the days of his life. And he went <sup>16</sup> from year to year in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all those places. And his return was to Ramah, <sup>17</sup> for there was his house; and there he judged Israel: and he built there an altar unto the LORD.

And it came to pass, when Samuel was old, <sup>1</sup> 8 that he made his sons judges over Israel. Now <sup>2</sup> the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abijah: they were judges in Beer-sheba. And his sons walked not in his <sup>3</sup> ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgement.

Then all the elders of Israel gathered them- <sup>4</sup> selves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah: and they said unto him, Behold, thou art <sup>5</sup> old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations. But the thing displeased Samuel, when they <sup>6</sup> said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD. And the LORD said <sup>7</sup> unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not be king over them. 9 they also unto thee. Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit thou shalt protest solemnly unto them, and shalt shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

10 And Samuel told all the words of the LORD 11 unto the people that asked of him a king. And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them unto him, <sup>1</sup>for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and they shall run 12 before his chariots: and he will appoint them unto him for captains of thousands, and captains of fifties; and he will set some to plow his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and the instruments of 13 his chariots. And he will take your daughters to be <sup>2</sup>confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be 14 bakers. And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best 15 of them, and give them to his servants. And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his <sup>3</sup>officers, and to 16 his servants. And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest <sup>4</sup>young men, and your asses, and put 17 them to his work. He will take the tenth of 18 your flocks: and ye shall be his servants. And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the 19 LORD will not answer you in that day. But the people refused to hearken unto the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have 20 a king over us; that we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.

Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose <sup>1</sup> name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of <sup>2</sup> valour. And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a <sup>3</sup> young man and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people. And the <sup>4</sup> asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses. And he passed through the hill country of Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not. When they were come to the land of Zuph, <sup>5</sup> Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us. And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in <sup>6</sup> this city a man of God, and he is a man that is held in honour; all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can tell us concerning our journey whereon we go. Then said Saul to his servant, <sup>7</sup> But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we? And the servant answered <sup>8</sup> Saul again, and said, Behold, I have in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, thus he said, Come and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a 10 Prophet was beforetime called a Seer.) Then said Saul to his servant, Well said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the 11 man of God was. As they went up the ascent to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the 12 seer here? And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before thee: make haste now, for he is come to-day into the city; for the people have a sacrifice to-day in the high place: 13 as soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for at this time ye 14 shall find him. And they went up to the city; and as they came within the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

15 Now the LORD had <sup>1</sup>revealed unto Samuel 16 a day before Saul came, saying, To-morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be <sup>2</sup>prince over my people Israel, and he shall save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon my people, 17 because their cry is come unto me. And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD <sup>3</sup>said unto him, Behold the man <sup>4</sup>of whom I spake to thee! this same shall have authority over my people.
 18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's high place, for ye shall eat with me to-day : and in the morning I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart. And as for thine <sup>20</sup> asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them ; for they are found. And <sup>1</sup>for whom is all that is desirable in Israel ? Is it not for thee, and for all thy father's house ? And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Ben- <sup>21</sup>jamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel ? and my family the least of all the families of the <sup>2</sup>tribe of Benjamin ? wherefore then speakest thou to me after this manner ? And Samuel <sup>22</sup>took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the guest-chamber, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons. And <sup>23</sup>Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee. And the cook took up the <sup>24</sup><sup>3</sup>thigh, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which hath been reserved ! set it before thee and eat ; because unto the appointed time hath it been kept for thee, <sup>4</sup>for I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day. And when they were come down from <sup>25</sup>the high place into the city, <sup>5</sup>he communed with Saul upon the housetop. And they arose <sup>26</sup>early : and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called to Saul on the housetop, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad. As they were <sup>27</sup>going down at the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still at this time, that I may cause thee to hear the word of God. When thou art departed from me to-day, then thou shalt find two men by Rachel's sepulchre, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and taketh thought for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the <sup>1</sup>oak of Tabor, and there shall meet thee there three men going up to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a <sup>2</sup>bottle of wine: and they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hand. After that thou shalt come to <sup>3</sup>the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a timbrel, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they shall be prophesying: and the spirit of the LORD will come mightily upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man. And <sup>4</sup>let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, <sup>5</sup>that thou do as occasion serve thee; for God is with thee. And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings: seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come unto thee, and shew thee what thou shalt do. And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God <sup>6</sup>gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.

And when they came thither to <sup>1</sup>the hill, <sup>10</sup> behold, a band of prophets met him; and the spirit of God came mightily upon him, and he prophesied among them. And it came to pass, <sup>11</sup> when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied with the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets? And one of the <sup>12</sup> same place answered and said, And who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets? And when he <sup>13</sup> had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

And Saul's uncle said unto him and to his <sup>14</sup> servant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were not found, we came to Samuel. And <sup>15</sup> Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you. And Saul said unto <sup>16</sup> his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But concerning the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

And Samuel called the people together unto <sup>17</sup> the LORD to Mizpah; and he said unto the <sup>18</sup> children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you: but ye have this <sup>19</sup> day rejected your God, who himself saveth you out of all your calamities and your distresses; and ye have said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands. So Samuel brought all the tribes of <sup>20</sup> Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken.
And he brought the tribe of Benjamin near by <sup>21</sup> their families, and the family of the Matrites was taken<sup>1</sup>: and Saul the son of Kish was taken; but when they sought him, he could not 22 be found. Therefore they asked of the LORD further, <sup>2</sup>Is there yet a man to come hither? And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid 23 himself among the stuff. And they ran and fetched him thence; and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the 24 people from his shoulders and upward. And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, <sup>3</sup>God save the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in <sup>4</sup>a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all 26 the people away, every man to his house. And Saul also went to his house to Gibeah; and there went with him the <sup>5</sup>host, whose hearts 27 God had touched. But certain <sup>6</sup>sons of <sup>7</sup>Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no present. <sup>8</sup>But he held his peace.

11 1 Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a 2 covenant with us, and we will serve thee. And Nahash the Ammonite said unto them, On this condition will I make it with you, that all your right eyes be put out; and I will lay it for a 3 reproach upon all Israel. And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the borders of Israel: and then, if there be none 4 to save us, we will come out to thee. Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and spake these words in the ears of the people:

And they told him the words of the men of Jabesh. And the spirit of God came mightily upon Saul when he heard those words, and his anger was kindled greatly. And he took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the borders of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And <sup>1</sup>the dread of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out as one man. And he numbered them in Bezek; and the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, To-morrow, by the time the sun is hot, ye shall have deliverance. And the messengers came and told the men of Jabesh; and they were glad. Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To-morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you. And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and smote the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together. And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death. them, The LORD is witness against you, and his

And when ye saw that Nahash the king of the <sup>12</sup> children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay, but a king shall reign over us : when the LORD your God was your king. Now <sup>13</sup> therefore behold the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have asked for : and, behold, the LORD hath set a king over you. If ye will fear <sup>14</sup> the LORD, and serve him, and hearken unto his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, <sup>2</sup>and both ye and also the king that reigneth over you be followers of the LORD your God, well : but if ye will not hearken <sup>15</sup> unto the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, <sup>3</sup>as it was against your fathers. Now therefore stand still <sup>16</sup> and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes. Is it not wheat harvest <sup>17</sup> to-day ? I will call unto the LORD, that he may send thunder and rain ; and ye shall know and see that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king. So Samuel called unto the LORD ; <sup>18</sup> and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day : and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel. And all the people said unto Samuel, <sup>19</sup>

Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not : for we have added unto all our 20 sins this evil, to ask us a king. And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not : ye have indeed done all this evil : yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with 21 all your heart ; <sup>1</sup>and turn ye not aside : for then should ye go after vain things which can-22 not profit nor deliver, for they are vain. For the LORD will not forsake his people for his great name's sake : because it hath pleased the LORD to make you a people unto himself.
 23 Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you : but I will instruct you in the good and the right 24 way. Only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart : for consider how 25 great things he hath done for you. But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king.

13 1 Saul was [<sup>2</sup>thirty] years old when he began to reign ; and he reigned two years over Israel.
 2 And Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel ; whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the mount of Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin : and the rest of the people he sent 3 every man to his tent. And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let 4 the Hebrews hear. And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten the garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.
 5 And the Philistines assembled themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward of Beth-aven. When the men 6 of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in <sup>1</sup>holds, and in <sup>2</sup>pits. Now some of 7 the Hebrews had gone over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead; but as for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

And he tarried seven days, according to the 8 set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him. And Saul said, Bring hither 9 the burnt offering to me, and the peace offerings. And he offered the burnt offering. And it came 10 to pass that, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might <sup>3</sup>salute him. And Samuel said, What hast thou 11 done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines assembled themselves together at Michmash; therefore said I, Now will the 12 Philistines come down upon me to Gilgal, and I have not intreated the favour of the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered the burnt offering. And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast 13 done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever. But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the 14 LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the LORD hath appointed him to be prince over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

15 And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal unto Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were present with 16 him, about six hundred men. And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, abode in Geba of Benjamin: but 17 the Philistines encamped in Michmash. And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to Ophrah, unto the 18 land of Shual: and another company turned the way to Beth-horon: and another company turned the way of the border that looketh down upon the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

19 Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears: 20 but all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his 21 coulter, and his axe, and his mattock; <sup>1</sup>yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes; and to set 22 the goads. So it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and 23 with Jonathan his son was there found. And the garrison of the Philistines went out unto the pass of Michmash.

14 <sup>1</sup> Now it fell upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on yonder side.

that were with him were about six hundred men ; and Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's 3 brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone. And between the passes, by which 4 Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side, and a rocky crag on the other side : and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. The one crag rose up 5 the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba. And Jonathan 6 said to the young man that bare his armour, Come and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised : it may be that the LORD will work for us : for there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few. And his 7 armourbearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart : turn thee, behold I am with thee according to thy heart. Then said Jonathan, 8 Behold, we will pass over unto the men, and we will discover ourselves unto them. If they 9 say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you ; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them. But if they say thus, 10 Come up unto us ; then we will go up : for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand : and this shall be the sign unto us. And both of 11 them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines : and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves. And the men 12 of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me : for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of

- 13 Israel. And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and
- 14 his armourbearer slew them after him. And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were <sup>1</sup>half a furrow's length in an acre of land.
- 15 And there was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled: and the earth quaked; so there was <sup>2</sup>an exceeding
- 16 great trembling. And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went hither and thither.
- 17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not
- 18 there. And Saul said unto Ahijah, <sup>3</sup>Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was there
- 19 at that time <sup>4</sup>with the children of Israel. And it came to pass, while Saul talked unto the priest, that the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand.
- 20 And Saul and all the people that were with him were gathered together, and came to the battle: and, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.
- 21 Now the Hebrews that were with the Philistines as beforetime, which went up with them <sup>5</sup>into the camp <sup>6</sup>from the country round about; even they also turned to be with the Israelites
- 22 that were with Saul and Jonathan. Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in the hill country of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. So the LORD 23 saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over by Beth-aven. And the men of Israel 24 were distressed that day: but Saul adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until it be evening, and I be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted food. And all <sup>1</sup>the people came 25 into the forest; and there was honey upon the ground. And when the people were come unto 26 the forest, behold, <sup>2</sup>the honey dropped: but no man put his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath. But Jonathan heard not when 27 his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened. Then answered one of 28 the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth food this day. And the people were faint. Then said Jonathan, My father 29 hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey. How much more, 30 if haply the people had eaten freely to-day of the spoil of their enemies which they found?

<sup>3</sup>for now hath there been no great slaughter among the Philistines. And they smote of 31 the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were very faint. And 32 the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the blood. Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, 33 the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have dealt treacherously: roll a great stone unto me this

- 34 day. And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him
- 35 that night, and slew them there. And Saul built an altar unto the LORD: the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.
- 36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us
- 37 draw near hither unto God. And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of
- 38 Israel? But he answered him not that day. And Saul said, Draw nigh hither, all ye <sup>1</sup>chiefs of the people: and know and see wherein this sin
- 39 hath been this day. For, as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.
- 40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do
- 41 what seemeth good unto thee. Therefore Saul said unto the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>2</sup>Shew the right. And Jonathan and Saul were taken by

- 43 And Jonathan was taken. Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did certainly taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand; and, lo, I must die.
- 44 And Saul said, God do so and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan. And the people 45 said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel?

 God forbid: as the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people
 went up from following the Philistines: and the them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and 4 And Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand 5 footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah. And Saul came to the city of Amalek, and <sup>2</sup>laid wait <sup>2</sup> Or, strove 6 in the valley. And Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites 7 departed from among the Amalekites. And Saul smote the Amalekites, from Havilah as 8 thou goest to Shur, that is before Egypt. And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the 9 edge of the sword. But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not <sup>1</sup>utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 Then came the word of the LORD unto 11 Samuel, saying, It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And Samuel was wroth; and 12 he cried unto the LORD all night. And Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; and it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a <sup>3</sup>monument, and is <sup>3</sup> Heb. hand. gone about, and passed on, and gone down to 13 Gilgal. And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD. And Samuel said, What meaneth then this <sup>14</sup> bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear? And Saul said, <sup>15</sup> They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have <sup>1</sup>utterly destroyed. Then <sup>16</sup> Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on. And Samuel <sup>17</sup> said, <sup>2</sup>Though thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel? And the LORD anointed thee king over Israel; and the LORD sent thee on a <sup>18</sup> journey; and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed. Wherefore then didst <sup>19</sup> thou not obey the voice of the LORD; but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst that which was evil in the sight of the LORD? And Saul <sup>20</sup> said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have <sup>1</sup>utterly destroyed the Amalekites. But the people <sup>21</sup> took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the devoted things, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal. And Samuel said, <sup>22</sup> Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of <sup>3</sup>witchcraft, and <sup>23</sup> stubbornness is as <sup>4</sup>idolatry and <sup>5</sup>teraphim. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king. And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: <sup>24</sup> for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I feared the 25 people, and obeyed their voice. Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again 26 with me, that I may worship the LORD. And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from 27 being king over Israel. And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of 28 his robe, and it rent. And Samuel said unto him, The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also the <sup>1</sup>Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should 30 repent. Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.
 31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

16 <sup>1</sup> And the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from being king over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons. And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the LORD. And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee. And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice. And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on <sup>1</sup>Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before him. But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have rejected him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart. Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this. Then Jesse made <sup>2</sup>Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this. And Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep.  1 of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look 13 for this is he. Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren : and the spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

- 14 Now the spirit of the LORD had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD 15 2troubled him. And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God 16 troubleth thee. Let our lord now command thy servants, which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player on the harp : and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with 17 his hand, and thou shalt be well. And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man 18 that can play well, and bring him to me. Then answered one of the young men, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty man of valour, and a man of war, and 3prudent in 4speech, and a comely person, and 19 the LORD is with him. Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy 20 son, which is with the sheep. And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a 5bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto 21 Saul. And David came to Saul, and stood before him : and he loved him greatly ; and he 22 became his armourbearer. And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me ; for he hath found favour in my sight.
 23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took the harp, and played with his hand : so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

Now the Philistines gathered together their <sup>1</sup> 17 armies to battle, and they were gathered together at Socoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephesdammin. And Saul and the men of Israel <sup>2</sup> were gathered together, and pitched in the vale of <sup>1</sup>Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines. And the Philistines stood on the <sup>3</sup> 3 mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. And there went out a <sup>4</sup> 4 champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. And he had an helmet of <sup>5</sup> 5 spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and his shield-bearer went before him. And he <sup>8</sup> 8 stood and cried unto the <sup>4</sup>armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me. If he be able <sup>9</sup> 9 to fight with me, and kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us. And the Philistine said, I <sup>5</sup>defy the <sup>10</sup> 10 armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together. And when Saul and <sup>11</sup> 11 all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse ; and he had eight sons : and the man was an old man in the days of Saul, stricken in years 13 among men. And the three eldest sons of Jesse had gone after Saul to the battle : and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto 14 him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. And David was the youngest : and the three eldest 15 followed Saul. Now David went to and fro from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-16 lehem. And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.
 17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly 18 to the camp to thy brethren ; and bring these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their 19 pledge. Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, <sup>1</sup>were in the vale of Elah, fighting <sup>1</sup> Or, are in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him ; and he came to the <sup>2</sup>place of the wagons, as the host which was going forth to the <sup>3</sup>fight <sup>2</sup> Or, 21 shouted for the battle. And Israel and the <sup>3</sup> Or, battle Philistines put the battle in array, army against ground 22 army. And David left his baggage in the hand of the keeper of the baggage, and ran to the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

 23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words : 24 and David heard them. And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, 25 and were sore afraid. And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to <sup>1</sup>defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel. And David spake to the men <sup>26</sup> that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should <sup>1</sup>defy the armies of the living God? And <sup>27</sup> the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him. And Eliab his eldest brother <sup>28</sup> heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why art thou come down? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle. And David said, <sup>29</sup> What have I now done? <sup>2</sup>Is there not a cause?

 And he turned away from him toward another, <sup>30</sup> and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.
 And when the words were heard which David <sup>31</sup> spake, they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him. And David said to Saul, Let <sup>32</sup> no man's heart fail <sup>3</sup>because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine. And <sup>33</sup> Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth. And David said unto Saul, Thy <sup>34</sup> servant kept his father's sheep; <sup>4</sup>and when there came a lion, or a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock, I went out after him, and smote <sup>35</sup> him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and servant smote both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath <sup>1</sup>defied the armies of 37 the living God. And David said, The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the LORD shall 38 be with thee. And Saul clad David with his apparel, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head, and he clad him with a coat of mail.

39 And David girded his sword upon his apparel, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it.
And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And Da-40 vid put them off him. And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the <sup>2</sup>brook, and put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, even in his scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the 41 Philistine. And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare 42 the shield went before him. And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, 43 and withal of a fair countenance. And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the 44 Philistine cursed David by his gods. And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and 45 to the beasts of the field. Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a javelin: but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, which thou hast

 into mine hand ; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from off thee ; and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth ; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel : and that all this <sup>47</sup> assembly may know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear : for the battle is the LORD'S, and he will give you into our hand.
 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, <sup>48</sup> and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hastened, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. And David put his hand <sup>49</sup> in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead ; and the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell upon his face to the earth. So David pre- <sup>50</sup> vailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him ; but there was no sword in the hand of David.
 Then David ran, and stood over the Philistine, <sup>51</sup> and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw that their <sup>2</sup>champion was dead, they fled. And <sup>52</sup> the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou comest to <sup>3</sup>Gai, and to the gates of Ekron.
 And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to <sup>4</sup>Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron. And the children of Israel re- <sup>53</sup> turned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their camp. And David took the <sup>54</sup> head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem ; but he put his armour in his tent.

And when Saul saw David go forth against <sup>55</sup> the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain - of the host, Abner, whose son is this youth?

 And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I 56 cannot tell. And the king said, Inquire thou 57 whose son the stripling is. And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.
 58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.
- 18 1 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan 2 loved him as his own soul. And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more 3 home to his father's house. Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved 4 him as his own soul. And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his apparel, even to his sword, 5 and to his bow, and to his girdle. And David 1 went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and 2 be-behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and it was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.
- 6 And it came to pass as they came, when David returned from the slaughter of the 3 Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with timbrels, with joy, and with 4 instruments of 7 music. And the women 5 sang one to another in their play, and said, Saul hath slain his thousands,
     And David his ten thousands.
- 8 And Saul was very wroth, and this saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed ascribed but thousands : and what can he have more but the kingdom ? And Saul eyed David 9 from that day and forward.

And it came to pass on the morrow, that an 10 evil spirit from God came mightily upon Saul, and he <sup>1</sup>prophesied in the midst of the house : and David played with his hand, as he did day by day : and Saul had his spear in his hand. And Saul cast the spear ; for he said, I will 11 smite David even to the wall. And David avoided out of his presence twice. And Saul 12 was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul. There- 13 fore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand ; and he went out and came in before the people. And David 14 <sup>2</sup>behaved himself wisely in all his ways ; and the LORD was with him. And when Saul saw that 15 he behaved himself very wisely, he stood in awe of him. But all Israel and Judah loved David ; 16 for he went out and came in before them.

And Saul said to David, Behold, my elder 17 daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife : only be thou valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles. For Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him. And David said unto Saul, 18 <sup>3</sup>Who am I, and <sup>3</sup>what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king ? But it came to pass at the time 19 when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto Adriel the Meholathite to wife. And Michal Saul's 20 daughter loved David : and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. And Saul said, I 21 will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David,

- Thou shalt this day be my son in law a second 22 time. And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's 23 son in law. And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be the king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and 24 lightly esteemed? And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spake David.
 25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. Now Saul thought to make 26 David fall by the hand of the Philistines. And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law.
 27 And the days were not expired; and David arose and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his 28 daughter to wife. And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David; and Michal Saul's 29 daughter loved him. And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul was David's enemy continually.
- 30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, as often as they went forth, that David <sup>1</sup>behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much <sup>2</sup>set by.
- 19 <sup>1</sup> And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to <sup>2</sup> all his servants, that they should slay David. But Jonathan Saul's son delighted much in David.
 And Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my

And Jonathan spake good of 4 David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good: for he put his life in his 5 hand, and smote the Philistine, and the LORD wrought a great <sup>1</sup>victory for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause? And Saul hearkened unto 6 the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As the LORD liveth, he shall not be put to death. And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan 7 shewed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as beforetime.

And there was war again: and David went 8 out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled before him. And Saul sought to smite David even 10 to the wall with the spear; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the spear into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night. And Saul sent messengers unto David's 11 house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain. So Michal let 12 of goats' hair at the head thereof, and covered 14 it with the clothes. And when Saul sent mes-15 sengers to take David, she said, He is sick. And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay 16 him. And when the messengers came in, behold, the teraphim was in the bed, with the 17 <sup>1</sup>pillow of goats' hair at the head thereof. And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me thus, and let mine enemy go, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; why should I kill thee?

18 Now David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went 19 and dwelt in Naioth. And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.
 20 And Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them, the spirit of God came upon the mes-21 sengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they 22 also prophesied. Then went he also to Ramah, and came to <sup>2</sup>the great <sup>3</sup>well that is in Secu: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel

 came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life? And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt <sup>2</sup> not die: behold, my father doeth nothing either great or small, but that he <sup>2</sup>discloseth it unto me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so. And David sware more- <sup>3</sup> over, and said, Thy father knoweth well that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death. Then said Jonathan unto David, <sup>3</sup>What- <sup>4</sup> soever thy soul <sup>4</sup>desireth, I will even do it for thee. And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, <sup>5</sup> to-morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even. If thy father miss me at <sup>6</sup> all, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Beth-lehem his city: for it is the yearly sacrifice there for all the family. If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall <sup>7</sup> have peace: but if he be wroth, then know that evil is determined by him. Therefore deal <sup>8</sup> kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: but if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father? And Jonathan said, Far be it from <sup>9</sup> thee: for if I should at all know that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee? Then said David <sup>10</sup> to Jonathan, Who shall tell me if perchance said unto David, Come and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, The LORD, the God of Israel, be witness; when I have sounded my father about this time to-morrow, or the third day, behold, if there be good toward David, shall I not then send unto thee, and 13 disclose it unto thee? The LORD do so to Jonathan, and more also, should it please my father to do thee evil, if I disclose it not unto thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD be with thee, as he 14 hath been with my father. And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of 15 the LORD, that I die not: but also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of 16 the earth. So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, And the LORD shall require it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, 1 for the love that he had to him: for he loved 18 him as he loved his own soul. Then Jonathan said unto him, To-morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will 19 be 2empty. And when thou hast stayed three days, thou shalt go down 3quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself 4when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by 5the 20 stone Ezel. And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.
 21 And, behold, I will send the lad, saying, Go,

And as touching the matter which thou <sup>23</sup> and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD is between thee and me for ever.

So David hid himself in the field : and when <sup>24</sup> the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat. And the king sat upon his seat, as <sup>25</sup> at other times, even upon the seat by the wall ; and Jonathan stood up, and Abner sat by Saul's side : but David's place was empty. Never- <sup>26</sup> theless Saul spake not any thing that day : for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not clean ; surely he is not clean. And it came <sup>27</sup> to pass on the morrow after the new moon, which was the second day, that David's place was empty : and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to-day ? And <sup>28</sup> Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem : and he said, <sup>29</sup> Let me go, I pray thee ; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city ; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there : and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he is not come unto the king's table. Then Saul's <sup>30</sup> anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of a perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own shame, and unto the shame of thy mother's nakedness ? For as <sup>31</sup> long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be stablished, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he <sup>2</sup>shall surely die. And Jonathan answered <sup>32</sup>

33 And Saul cast his spear at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined trembling, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee? And David said unto <sup>2</sup> Ahimelech the priest, The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed the young men to such and such a place. Now therefore what is under <sup>3</sup> thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or whatsoever there is present. And the priest answered David, and said, There <sup>4</sup> is no common bread under mine hand, but there is holy bread; if only the young men have kept themselves from women. And David answered <sup>5</sup> the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days; when I came out, the vessels of the young men were holy, <sup>1</sup>though it was but a common journey; how much more then to-day shall their vessels be holy? So the priest gave him <sup>6</sup> holy bread: for there was no bread there but the shewbread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away. Now a certain man of the servants <sup>7</sup> of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg the Edomite, the <sup>2</sup>chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul. And David said unto Ahimelech, And is <sup>8</sup> there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste. And the priest said, The sword <sup>9</sup> of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the vale of <sup>3</sup>Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

40 knew the matter. And Jonathan gave his weapons unto his lad, and said unto him, Go,

10 And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands?

12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his 14 spittle fall down upon his beard. Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is mad: wherefore then have ye brought him

22 1 David therefore departed thence, and escaped to the cave of Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went 2 down thither to him. And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was 3 discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do 4 for me. And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while 5 that David was in the hold. And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hereth.

And Saul heard that David was discovered, 6 and the men that were with him : now Saul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree <sup>1</sup>in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him. And Saul 7 said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites ; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds ; that all of you have con- 8 spired against me, and <sup>2</sup>there is none that discloseth to me when my son maketh a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or discloseth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day ? Then answered 9 Doeg the Edomite, which <sup>3</sup>stood by the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. And 10 he inquired of the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine. Then the king sent to call 11 Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob : and they came all of them to the king.
 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. 12
 And he answered, Here I am, my lord. And 13 Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day ?
 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, 14 And who among all thy servants is so faithful as David, which is the king's son in law, and is taken into thy council, and is honourable in thine house ? Have I to-day begun to inquire 15

16 knoweth nothing of all this, less or more. And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, 17 thou, and all thy father's house. And the king said unto the <sup>1</sup>guard that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he fled, and did not disclose it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.
18 And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and he slew on that day fourscore and five persons 19 that did wear a linen ephod. And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen and asses and sheep, with 20 the edge of the sword. And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, 21 escaped, and fled after David. And Abiathar told David that Saul had slain the LORD's 22 priests. And David said unto Abiathar, I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy 23 father's house. Abide thou with me, fear not; for he that seeketh my life seeketh thy life: for with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

23 <sup>1</sup> And they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they <sup>2</sup> rob the threshing-floors. Therefore David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines? Then David inquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand. And David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and slew them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand. And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God hath <sup>1</sup>delivered him into mine hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars. And Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. And David knew that Saul devised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod. Then said David, O LORD, the God of Israel, thy servant hath surely heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD, the God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down. Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver up me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver thee up. Then David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbare to go forth.

strong holds, and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his

 Saul's son arose, and went to David into <sup>1</sup>the 18 eth. And they two made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in <sup>1</sup>the wood, and 19 Jonathan went to his house. Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in the strong holds in <sup>1</sup>the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, came down to the rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul went on this side of the mountain, <sup>26</sup> and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them. But there came a messenger unto Saul, <sup>27</sup> saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have made a raid upon the land. So Saul <sup>28</sup> returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place <sup>1</sup>Sela-hammahlekoth. And David <sup>29</sup> went up from thence, and dwelt in the strong holds of En-gedi.

Heb.]

And it came to pass, when Saul was returned <sup>1</sup> 24 from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi. Then Saul took three thousand <sup>2</sup> chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats. And he came to the sheepcotes by <sup>3</sup> the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet. Now David and his men were <sup>2</sup>abiding in the innermost parts of the cave. And the men of David said unto him, Behold, <sup>4</sup> the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, and thou shalt do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily. And it came to <sup>5</sup> pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. And he <sup>6</sup> said unto his men, The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my lord, the LORD's anointed, to put forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the LORD's anointed. So David <sup>7</sup> checked his men with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. And Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way. David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth, and did obeisance.

9 And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearkenest thou to men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt? Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to-day into mine hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the LORD'S anointed.

11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee, though thou <sup>1</sup>huntest after my

12 soul to take it. The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. As saith the proverb of the ancients, Out of the wicked cometh forth wickedness: but mine 14 hand shall not be upon thee. After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea.

15 The LORD therefore be judge, and give sentence between me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and <sup>2</sup>deliver me out of thine hand.

16 And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, Is this thy voice, my son David?

17 And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept. And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rendered unto me good, whereas

I have rendered unto thee evil. And thou hast 18 declared this day how that thou hast dealt well with me : forasmuch as when the LORD had delivered me up into thine hand, thou killedst me not. For if a man find his enemy, will he let 19 him go well away ? wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day. And now, behold, I know that thou shalt 20 surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand. Swear now 21 therefore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house.
 And David sware unto Saul. And Saul went 22 home ; but David and his men gat them up unto the hold.

And Samuel died ; and all Israel gathered 1 25 themselves together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

And there was a man in Maon, whose <sup>1</sup>pos- 2 very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats : and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. Now the name of the man was 3 Nabal ; and the name of his wife Abigail : and the woman was of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance : but the man was churlish and evil in his doings ; and he was of the house of Caleb. And David heard in the wilderness 4 that Nabal did shear his sheep. And David sent 5 ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name : and <sup>2</sup>thus shall ye 6 say <sup>3</sup>to him that liveth in prosperity, Peace be

I have heard that thou hast shearers : thy shepherds have now been with us, and we <sup>1</sup>did them no hurt, neither was there aught missing unto <sup>8</sup> them, all the while they were in Carmel. Ask thy young men, and they will tell thee : wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes ; for we come in a good day : give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand, unto <sup>9</sup> thy servants, and to thy son David. And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and <sup>2</sup>ceased. And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David ? and who is the son of Jesse ? there be many servants now a days that break away every man from his <sup>11</sup> master. Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my <sup>3</sup>flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men of whom I know <sup>12</sup> not whence they be ? So David's young men turned on their way, and went back, and came <sup>13</sup> and told him according to all these words. And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword ; and David also girded on his sword : and there went up after David about four hundred men ; and two hundred abode by the stuff. <sup>14</sup> But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to <sup>4</sup>salute our master ; and <sup>15</sup> he <sup>5</sup>flew upon them. But the men were very good unto us, and we were not <sup>6</sup>hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields : <sup>16</sup> they were a wall unto us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping <sup>17</sup> the sheep. Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do ; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his house : for he is such a <sup>1</sup>son of <sup>2</sup>Belial, that one cannot speak to him. Then Abigail made haste, and took two <sup>18</sup> hundred loaves, and two <sup>3</sup>bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses. And she said unto her young men, <sup>19</sup> Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal. And it <sup>20</sup> was so, as she rode on her ass, and came down by the covert of the mountain, that, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them. Now David had said, <sup>21</sup> Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath returned me evil for good. God do so <sup>22</sup> <sup>4</sup>unto the enemies of David, and more also, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light <sup>5</sup>so much as one man child. And when <sup>23</sup> Abigail saw David, she hastened, and lighted off her ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground. And she fell <sup>24</sup> at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me be the iniquity: and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine ears, and hear thou the words of thine handmaid. Let not my lord, <sup>25</sup> I pray thee, regard this <sup>1</sup>man of <sup>2</sup>Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; <sup>6</sup>Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. Now therefore, my <sup>26</sup> lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withholden thee <sup>7</sup>from bloodguiltiness, and from <sup>8</sup>avenging thyself with thine own hand, now therefore let thine enemies, and them that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. servant hath brought unto my lord, let it be yet the soul of my lord shall be bound in the

 to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have 31 appointed thee prince over Israel; that this shall be no <sup>2</sup>grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, <sup>3</sup>either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: and when the LORD shall have dealt well with <sup>2</sup> Heb. cause blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from bloodguiltiness, and from avenging myself 34 with mine own hand. For in very deed, as the LORD, the God of Israel, liveth, which hath withholden me from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning 35 light so much as one man child. So David received of her hand that which she had brought him: and he said unto her, Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy 36 voice, and have accepted thy person. And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light. And it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, that his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. And it came to pass about ten days after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died. And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the LORD, that hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept back his servant from evil: and the evil-doing of Nabal hath the LORD returned upon his own head. And David sent and spake concerning Abigail, to take her to him to wife. And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David hath sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife. And she arose, and bowed herself with her face to the earth, and said, Behold, thine handmaid is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. And Abigail hastened, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that followed her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they became both of them his wives. Now Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, which was of Gallim.

And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert? Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert, by the way.

But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood 5 that Saul was come <sup>1</sup>of a certainty. And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay within the <sup>2</sup>place of the wagons, and the people pitched round about 6 him. Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai 7 said, I will go down with thee. So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the <sup>2</sup>place of the wagons, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head: and Abner and the people lay round 8 about him. Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered up thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear to the earth at one stroke, and I will not smite him the second 9 time. And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can put forth his hand against the 10 LORD's anointed, and be guiltless? And David said, As the LORD liveth, the LORD shall smite him; <sup>3</sup>or his day shall come to die; or he shall 11 go down into battle, and perish. The LORD forbid that I should put forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed: but now take, I pray thee, the spear that is at his head, and the cruse 12 of water, and let us go. So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's head; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither did any awake: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the 13 LORD was fallen upon them. Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of the mountain afar off; a great space being between them: and David cried to the people, and <sup>14</sup> to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king? And <sup>15</sup> David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept watch over thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord. This thing is <sup>16</sup> not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are <sup>1</sup>worthy to die, because ye have not kept watch over your lord, the LORD's anointed. And now, see, where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his head. And Saul knew David's voice, and said, <sup>17</sup> Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king. And he <sup>18</sup> said, Wherefore doth my lord pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand? Now therefore, I pray thee, <sup>19</sup> let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it be the LORD that hath stirred thee up against me, let him <sup>2</sup>accept an offering: but if it be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day that I should <sup>3</sup>not cleave unto the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods. Now therefore, let not my blood fall to <sup>20</sup> the earth away from the presence of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek <sup>4</sup>a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains. Then said Saul, I have sinned: re- <sup>21</sup> turn, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my life was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. And David answered <sup>22</sup> and said, Behold <sup>1</sup>the spear, O king! let then one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 And the LORD shall render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: forasmuch as the LORD delivered thee into my hand to-day, and I would not put forth mine hand 24 against the LORD's anointed. And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the 25 LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation. Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do mightily, and shalt surely prevail. So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27 <sup>1</sup> And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in all the borders of Israel: so shall I escape out of his 2 hand. And David arose, and passed over, he and the six hundred men that were with him, unto Achish the son of Maoch, king of Gath.
3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's 4 wife. And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him.
5 And David said unto Achish, If now I have found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the <sup>2</sup>country, that I said, <sup>4</sup>Whither have ye made a raid to-day? And David said, Against the South of Judah, and against the South of the Jerahmeelites, and against the South of the Kenites. And David 11 saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so hath been his manner all the while he hath dwelt in the <sup>1</sup>country of the Philistines. And Achish believed 12 David, saying, He hath made his people Israel utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.
6 dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee? Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

And it came to pass in those days, that the 1 28 Philistines gathered their <sup>5</sup>hosts together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me in the host, thou and thy men. And David said to Achish, Therefore 2 thou shalt know what thy servant will do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had 3 lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. And the Philistines gathered them- 4 selves together, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, 5 and they pitched in Gilboa. And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, 6 and his heart trembled greatly. And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor 7 by prophets. Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En-dor.

 8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, Divine unto me, I pray thee, by the familiar spirit, and bring me up whomsoever I shall 9 name unto thee. And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to 10 cause me to die? And Saul sware to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no <sup>1</sup>punishment happen to thee for this thing.
 11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.
 12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for 13 thou art Saul. And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what seest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I see <sup>2</sup>a god coming up out of 14 the earth. And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a robe. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and did obeisance.
 15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do. And Samuel said, Where- 16 fore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and <sup>1</sup>is become thine adversary? And the LORD hath <sup>2</sup>wrought for 17 himself, as he spake by me: and the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David. Because 18 thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, and didst not execute his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day. Moreover the LORD will deliver 19 Israel also with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to-morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD shall deliver the host of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines. Then Saul fell straightway his full length upon 20 the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night. And the woman came unto Saul, 21 and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath hearkened unto thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me. Now therefore, I 22 pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest on thy way. But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his 23 servants, together with the woman, constrained him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he

 Some ancient authorities read, done unto thee.

24 arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed. And the woman had a fatted calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it; and she took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread 25 thereof: and she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

29 1 Now the Philistines gathered together all their hosts to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched 2 by the fountain which is in Jezreel. And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: and David and his men 3 passed on in the rearward with Achish. Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these days or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell 4 away unto me unto this day? But the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make the man return, that he may go back to his place where thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an adversary to us: for wherewith should this fellow reconcile himself unto his lord? should it not be with the heads of 5 these men? Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying,

Saul hath slain his thousands,

And David his ten thousands?

6 Then Achish called David, and said unto him, As the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favour thee not. Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Philistines. And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been before thee unto this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king? And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle. Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with the servants of thy lord that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart. So David rose up early, he and his men, to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid upon the South, and upon Ziklag, and had smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire; and had taken captive the women and all that were therein, both small and great: they slew not any, but carried them off, and went their way. And when David and his men came to the city, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives. Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. And David's two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

- 7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought thither the 8 ephod to David. And David inquired of the LORD, saying, <sup>1 Or, Shall I pursue</sup> If I pursue after this troop, shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and 9 shalt without fail recover all. So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where 10 those that were left behind stayed. But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred stayed behind, which were so faint that 11 they could not go over the brook Besor: and they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did 12 eat; and they gave him water to drink: and they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins; and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and 13 three nights. And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left 14 me, because three days ago I fell sick. We made a raid upon the South of the Cherethites, and upon that which belongeth to Judah, and upon the South of Caleb; and we burned Zik-15 lag with fire. And David said to him, Wilt thou bring me down to this troop? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to 16 this troop. And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad over all the ground, eating and drinking, and feasting, <sup>1</sup>because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. And David smote them <sup>17</sup> from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels and fled. And David recovered all that <sup>18</sup> the Amalekites had taken: and David rescued his two wives. And there was nothing lacking <sup>19</sup> to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David brought back all. And David took all the flocks and the <sup>20</sup> herds, which they drave before those other cattle, and said, This is David's spoil. And <sup>21</sup> David came to the two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom also they had made to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came near <sup>2</sup>to the people, he <sup>3</sup>saluted them. Then answered all the wicked men and <sup>22</sup>

 and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them aught of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart. Then said David, Ye shall not do <sup>23</sup> so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given unto us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the troop that came against us into our hand. And who will hearken unto you in this <sup>24</sup> matter? for as his share is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his share be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall share alike. And it was so <sup>25</sup> from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel, unto this day.

26 And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of 27 spoil of the enemies of the LORD; to them which were in Beth-el, and to them which were were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to them which were in the cities of the Kenites; and he was greatly distressed by reason of therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and <sup>6</sup>abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid.

 Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell upon

And it came to pass on the morrow, when 8 tidings unto the house of their idols, and to the people. And they put his armour in the house 10 him that which the Philistines had done to Saul, all the valiant men arose, and went all 12 they came to Jabesh, and burnt them there.

And they took their bones, and buried them 13

SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL.

1 <sup>1</sup> AND it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two 2 days in Ziklag; it came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and 3 did obeisance. And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.
4 And David said unto him, How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, The people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and 5 Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also. And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his 6 son be dead? And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and the horsemen followed 7 hard after him. And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And 8 I answered, Here am I. And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite. And he said unto me, 9

<sup>2</sup> Or, giddiness for <sup>2</sup>anguish hath taken hold of me; because my life is yet whole in me. So I stood <sup>1</sup>be- 10 side him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord. Then David 11 took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him: and 12 they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword. And 13 David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite. And 14 David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid to put forth thine hand to destroy the LORD's anointed? And David called one of the young 15 men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him.
 And he smote him that he died. And David 16 said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed.

And David lamented with this lamentation 17 over Saul and over Jonathan his son: and he 18 bade them teach the children of Judah the song

And the weapons of war perished!

2 1 And it came to pass after this, that David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And he said, Unto Hebron.

2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also,

Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. And his men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron. And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah.

And they told David, saying, The men of Jabesh-gilead were they that buried Saul. And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, Blessed be ye of the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him. And now the LORD shew kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing. Now therefore let your hands be strong, and be ye valiant: for Saul your lord is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

Now Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, had taken Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim; and he made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. (Ish-bosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years.) But the house of Judah followed David. And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. And Joab the son of Zeruah, and the servants of David, went out, and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the men, I pray thee, arise and play before us.

 15 And Joab said, Let them arise. Then they arose and went over by number; twelve for Benjamin, and for Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, 16 and twelve of the servants of David. And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called <sup>1</sup>Helkath-hazzurim, which is in 17 Gibeon. And the battle was very sore that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of 18 Israel, before the servants of David. And the three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light 19 of foot <sup>2</sup>as a wild roe. And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner.
 20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Is it 21 thou, Asahel? And he answered, It is I. And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his <sup>3</sup>armour.
 But Asahel would not turn aside from following 22 of him. And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I 23 hold up my face to Joab thy brother? Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him in the belly, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and 24 died stood still. But Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one band, and stood on the top of an hill. Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren? And Joab said, As God liveth, <sup>1</sup>if thou hadst not spoken, surely then <sup>2</sup>in the morning the people had gone away, nor followed every one his brother. So Joab blew the trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more. And Abner and his men went all that night through the Arabah; and they passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and came to Mahanaim. And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel. But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore men died. And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and the day brake upon them at Hebron.

Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: and David waxed stronger and stronger, but the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

And unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; and his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah 5 the son of Abital; and the sixth, Ithream, of Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner <sup>1</sup>made himself strong in the 7 house of Saul. Now Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast 8 thou gone in unto my father's concubine? Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish- bosheth, and said, Am I a dog's head that belongeth to Judah? This day do I shew kindness unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, and yet thou chargest me this day with <sup>2</sup>a fault concerning 9 this woman. God do so to Abner, and more also, if, as the LORD hath sworn to David, I do 10 not even so to him; to translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from 11 Dan even to Beer-sheba. And he could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David <sup>3</sup>on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with thee, to bring about all 13 Israel unto thee. And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.
 14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to me for an hundred fore-skins of the Philistines. And Ish-bosheth sent, 15 and took her from her husband, even from <sup>1</sup>Paltiel the son of Laish. And her husband 16 went with her, weeping as he went, and followed her to Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return : and he returned.

xxv. 44, Palti.

And Abner had communication with the 17 elders of Israel, saying, In times past ye sought for David to be king over you : now then do 18 it : for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.
And Abner also spake in the ears of Benjamin : 19 and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and to the whole house of Benjamin. So 20 Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast. And 21 Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thy soul desireth. And David sent Abner away ; and he went in peace. And, behold, the servants of 22 David and Joab came from <sup>2</sup>a foray, and brought in a great spoil with them : but Abner was not with David in Hebron ; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. When Joab 23 and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace. Then Joab came 24 to the king, and said, What hast thou done ? behold, Abner came unto thee ; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone ?
Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he 25

- came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest. And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the <sup>1</sup>well of Sirah : but <sup>1</sup> Or, cistern
- David knew it not. And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the midst of the gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there in the belly, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother. And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner : let it fall upon the head of Joab, and upon all his father's house ; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth by the sword, or that lacketh bread. So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.
- And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David followed the bier.
- And they buried Abner in Hebron : and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner ; and all the people wept. And the king lamented for Abner, and said,
- Should Abner die as a fool dieth ?
- Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters :
- As a man falleth before the children of iniquity, so didst thou fall.
- And all the people wept again over him. And all the people came to cause David to eat bread while it was yet day ; but David sware, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or aught else, till the sun be down. And <sup>36</sup> all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people. So all the people and all Israel <sup>37</sup> understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner. And the king <sup>38</sup> said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

 And I am this day weak, though anointed king; <sup>39</sup> and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the LORD reward the wicked doer according to his wickedness.

And when Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, heard that <sup>1</sup> <sup>4</sup> Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands became feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.
 And Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, had two men that <sup>2</sup> were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for Beeroth also is reckoned to Benjamin: and the Beerothites fled to Git- <sup>3</sup> taim, and have been sojourners there until this day.)

Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was <sup>4</sup> lame of his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was <sup>1</sup> Mephibosheth.

And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, <sup>5</sup> Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, as he took his rest at noon. <sup>2</sup>And <sup>3</sup>they came <sup>6</sup> thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him in the belly: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. Now when they came into <sup>7</sup> the house, as he lay on his bed in his bed-chamber, they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and went by 8 the way of the Arabah all night. And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, which sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and 9 of his seed. And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all 10 adversity, when one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good tidings, I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for 11 his tidings. How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed, shall I not now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the 12 earth? And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

5 1 Then came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, we are 2 thy bone and thy flesh. In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was thou that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, 3 and thou shalt be <sup>1</sup>prince over Israel. So all <sup>1</sup>Or, leader the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

David was thirty years old when he began <sup>4</sup> to reign, and he reigned forty years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty <sup>5</sup> and three years over all Israel and Judah. <sup>1</sup>And <sup>6</sup> the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, <sup>2</sup>Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither. Nevertheless David took the strong <sup>7</sup> hold of Zion; the same is the city of David. And David said on that day, Whosoever smiteth <sup>8</sup> the Jebusites, let him get up to the watercourse, <sup>3</sup>and smite the lame and the blind, <sup>4</sup>that are hated of David's soul. Wherefore they say, <sup>5</sup>There are the blind and the lame; he cannot come into the house. And David dwelt in the <sup>9</sup> strong hold, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from Millo and inward. And David waxed greater and greater; <sup>10</sup> for the LORD, the God of hosts, was with him.

And David took him more concubines and <sup>13</sup> wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were yet sons and daughters born to David. And these be the names of <sup>14</sup> those that were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, and I Bhar, and Elishua; and Nepheg, <sup>15</sup> and Japhia; and Elishama, and <sup>7</sup>Eliada, and <sup>16</sup> Eliphelet.

And when the Philistines heard that they had <sup>17</sup> anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard 18 of it, and went down to the hold. Now the Philistines had come and spread themselves in 19 the valley of Rephaim. And David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will certainly deliver the Philistines into 20 thine hand. And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there; and he said, The LORD hath <sup>1</sup>broken mine enemies before me, like the breach of waters. Therefore he called 21 the name of that place <sup>2</sup>Baal-perazim. And they left their images there, and David and his men took them away.

22 And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.
 23 And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up: make a circuit behind them, and come upon them over against the 24 <sup>3</sup>mulberry trees. And it shall be, when thou hearest the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then is the LORD gone out before 25 thee to smite the host of the Philistines. And David did so, as the LORD commanded him; and smote the Philistines from <sup>4</sup>Geba until thou come to Gezer.

6 1 <sup>5</sup>And David again gathered together all the

And they brought it <sup>4</sup> out of the house of Abinadab, which was in <sup>1</sup>the hill, with the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark. And David and all the house of Israel <sup>5</sup> played before the LORD <sup>2</sup>with all manner of instruments made of <sup>3</sup>fir wood, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with <sup>4</sup>castanets, and with cymbals. And when they <sup>6</sup> came to the threshing-floor of Nacon, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen <sup>5</sup>stumbled. And the anger <sup>7</sup> of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his <sup>6</sup>error; and there he died by the ark of God. And David was <sup>8</sup> displeased, because the LORD had broken forth upon Uzzah: and he called that place <sup>7</sup>Perez-uzzah, unto this day. And David was afraid of <sup>9</sup> the LORD that day; and he said, How shall the ark of the LORD come unto me? So David <sup>10</sup> would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David; but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. And the ark of the LORD remained in the <sup>11</sup> house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his house. And it was told king David, saying, <sup>12</sup> The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. <sup>8</sup>And David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with joy. And it was so, that when they that bare the ark <sup>13</sup> of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. And David danced before <sup>14</sup> the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all <sup>15</sup> the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the 16 trumpet. And it was so, as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the 17 LORD; and she despised him in her heart. And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

 18 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of 19 hosts. And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, both to men and women, to every one a cake of bread, and a portion <sup>1</sup>of flesh, and a cake of <sup>1</sup>Or, of wine raisins. So all the people departed every one 20 to his house. Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to-day, who uncovered himself to-day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows 21 shamelessly uncovereth himself! And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, which chose me above thy father, and above all his house, to appoint me prince over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play 22 before the LORD. And I will be yet more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: but of the handmaids which thou hast spoken 23 of, of them shall I be had in honour. And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.
 7 1 <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass, when the king dwelt in <sup>2</sup> See 1 Chr. his house, and the LORD had given him rest xvii.

king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in an house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains. And Nathan said to 3 the king, Go, do all that is in thine heart; for the LORD is with thee. And it came to pass 4 the same night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying, Go and tell my 5 servant David, Thus saith the LORD, Shalt thou build me an house for me to dwell in? for I have not dwelt in an house since the day 6 that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle. In all places wherein 7 I have walked with all the children of Israel, spake I a word with <sup>1</sup>any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedar? Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto 8 my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, <sup>2</sup>I took thee from the <sup>3</sup>sheepcote, from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be <sup>3</sup>prince over my people, over Israel: and I have been with 9 thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee; and I will make thee a great name, like unto the name of the great ones that are in the earth. And I will appoint a place for my people 10 Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as at the first, and as from the 11 day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I <sup>4</sup>will cause thee to rest from all thine enemies. Moreover the LORD telleth thee that the LORD will make thee an house. 14 I will be his father, and he shall be my son: if he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the 15 children of men; but my mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put 16 away before thee. And thine house and thy kingdom shall be made sure for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

18 Then David the king went in, and sat before the LORD; and he said, Who am I, O Lord

19 brought me thus far? And this was yet a small thing in thine eyes, O Lord GOD; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house

20 the manner of men, O Lord GOD! And what can David say more unto thee? for thou 21 knowest thy servant, O Lord GOD. For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou wrought all this greatness, to make 22 thy servant know it. Wherefore thou art great, O LORD God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all

23 that we have heard with our ears. <sup>2</sup>And what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem unto himself for a people, and to make him a name, and to do great things for you, and terrible things for thy land, before thy people, which people unto thee for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God. And now, O LORD God, <sup>25</sup> the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, confirm thou it for ever, and do as thou hast spoken. And <sup>26</sup> let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is God over Israel: and the house of thy servant David shall be established before thee. For thou, O LORD of hosts, the <sup>27</sup> God of Israel, hast revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant <sup>1</sup>found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee. And now, O Lord GOD, <sup>28</sup> thou art God, and thy words are truth, and thou hast promised this good thing unto thy servant: now therefore <sup>2</sup>let it please thee to <sup>29</sup> bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken it: and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.

6 and twenty thousand men. Then David put garrisons in <sup>1</sup>Syria of Damascus: and <sup>1</sup>the Syrians became servants to David, and brought presents. And the LORD <sup>2</sup>gave victory to David <sup>7</sup>whithersoever he went. And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>And from <sup>3</sup>Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much <sup>9</sup>brass. And when Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer, then Toi sent <sup>4</sup>Joram his son unto king David, to <sup>5</sup>salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and smitten him: for Hadadezer <sup>6</sup>had wars with Toi. And <sup>7</sup>Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and <sup>11</sup>vessels of gold, and vessels of brass: these also did king David dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he dedicated of all the <sup>12</sup>nations which he subdued; of <sup>8</sup>Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah. <sup>13</sup>And David gat him a name when he returned from smiting of <sup>8</sup>the Syrians in the Valley of <sup>14</sup>Salt, even eighteen thousand men. And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And the LORD <sup>2</sup>gave victory to David whithersoever he went.

And David said, Is there yet any that is <sup>1</sup> 9 left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him kindness for Jonathan's sake? And there was <sup>2</sup> of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba, and they called him unto David; and the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant is he. And the king <sup>3</sup> said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew the kindness of God unto him?

And Ziba said unto the king; <sup>2</sup> Jonathan hath yet a son, which is lame on his feet. And the <sup>4</sup> king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar. Then king David sent, and fetched him out of <sup>5</sup> the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar. And Mephibosheth, the son of Jona- <sup>6</sup> than, the son of Saul, came unto David, and fell on his face, and did obeisance. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant! And David said unto <sup>7</sup> him, Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the <sup>3</sup>land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually. And he did obeisance, and said, <sup>8</sup> What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am? Then the <sup>9</sup> king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, All that pertained to Saul and to all his house have I given unto thy master's son. And thou shalt till the land for him, thou, and <sup>10</sup> thy sons, and thy servants; and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have bread to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread alway at my table. 12 of the king's sons. And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants

10 1 <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his 2 son reigned in his stead. And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. So David sent by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children 3 of Ammon. But the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David sent his servants unto thee to search the city, 4 and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? So Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, 5 and sent them away. When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then 6 return. And when the children of Ammon saw that they were become odious to David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand footmen, and the king of Maacah with a thousand men, and the men of Tob twelve thousand men. And when David heard of it, 7 he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

 And the children of Ammon came out, and put 8 the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zobah, and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the field. Now when Joab saw that 9 <sup>1</sup> the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians: and 10 the rest of the people he committed into the hand of <sup>2</sup>Abishai his brother, and he put them in array against the children of Ammon. And 11 he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee. Be of good courage, and let us 12 play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the LORD do that which seemeth him good. So Joab and the people that 13 were with him drew nigh unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him. And 14 when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, and entered into the city. Then Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem. And when the Syrians saw that they 15 were put to the worse before Israel, they gathered themselves together. And <sup>3</sup>Hadarezer 16 sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, with Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer at their head. And it was told David; 17 and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him. And the Syrians fled 18 before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians 11 1 <sup>1</sup>And it came to pass, at the return of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. <sup>1 See 1 Chr. xx. 1.</sup>

2 And it came to pass at eventide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman bathing; and the woman was 3 very beautiful to look upon. And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, 4 the wife of Uriah the Hittite? And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; (for she was purified from her uncleanness;) and she re-5 turned unto her house. And the woman conceived; and she sent and told David, and said, 6 I am with child. And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab 7 sent Uriah to David. And when Uriah was come unto him, David asked of him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the 8 war prospered. And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a <sup>2</sup>mess of meat from the 9 king. But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went <sup>2 Or, present from</sup> not down to his house. And when they had 10 told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Art thou not come from a journey? wherefore didst thou not go down unto thine house? And Uriah said 11 unto David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in booths; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open field; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing. And David said to Uriah, Tarry here 12 to-day also, and to-morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem <sup>1</sup>that day, and the morrow. And when David had called 13 him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house. And it came to 14 pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. And 15 he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the <sup>2</sup>hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten, and die.

<sup>3</sup>Or, observed And it came to pass, when Joab <sup>3</sup>kept watch 16 upon the city, that he assigned Uriah unto the place where he knew that valiant men were.
And the men of the city went out, and fought 17 with Joab: and there fell some of the people, even of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also. Then Joab sent and told 18 David all the things concerning the war; and 19 he charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling all the things concerning the war unto the king, it shall be that, 20 if the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, at Thebez? why went ye so nigh the wall? then shalt thou say, Thy servant Uriah the 22 Hittite is dead also. So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had 23 sent him for. And the messenger said unto David, The men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon 24 them even unto the entering of the gate. And the shooters shot at thy servants from off the wall; and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

 25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing displease thee, for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it: and en-26 courage thou him. And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she 27 made lamentation for her husband. And when the mourning was past, David sent and took her home to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

12 1 And the LORD sent Nathan unto David.
 And he came unto him, and said unto him,
 There were two men in one city; the one rich, 2 and the other poor. The rich man had ex-3 ceeding many flocks and herds: but the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own morsel, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, 4 and was unto him as a daughter. And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him, but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him. And David's anger was greatly kindled 5 against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this is <sup>1</sup>worthy to die: and he shall restore the lamb 6 fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

And Nathan said to David, Thou art the 7 man. Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul; and I 8 gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have added unto thee such and such things. Wherefore hast thou despised 9 the word of the LORD, to do that which is evil in his sight? thou hast smitten Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. Now there- 10 fore, the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will 11 raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun. For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this 12 thing before all Israel, and before the sun. And 13 David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die. Howbeit, because by this deed thou 14 hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born 15 unto thee shall surely die. And Nathan departed unto his house.

And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick.
 16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night 17 upon the earth. And the elders of his house arose, and stood beside him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did 18 he eat bread with them. And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he hearkened not unto our voice: <sup>1</sup>how will he 19 then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead? But when David saw that his servants whispered together, David perceived that the child was dead: and David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He 20 is dead. Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel; and he came into the house of the LORD, and worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required they set 21 bread before him, and he did eat. Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child 22 was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread. And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, Who knoweth whether the LORD will not be gracious to me, that the 23 child may live? But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me. And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and <sup>1</sup>he called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him; and he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, <sup>25</sup> and he called his name <sup>2</sup>Jedidiah, for the LORD'S sake.

And it came to pass after this, that Absalom <sup>1</sup> 13 the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. And Amnon was so vexed that he <sup>2</sup> fell sick because of his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and it seemed hard to Amnon to do any thing unto her. But Amnon had a <sup>3</sup> friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a 4 very subtil man. And he said unto him, Why, O son of the king, art thou thus lean <sup>1</sup>from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absa-5 lom's sister. And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and feign thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, Let my sister Tamar come, I pray thee, and give me bread to eat, and dress the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at 6 her hand. So Amnon lay down, and feigned himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, Let my sister Tamar come, I pray thee, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at 7 her hand. Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, 8 and dress him food. So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down.

And she took dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.
9 And she took the pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Am-non said, Have out all men from me. And 10 they went out every man from him. And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand.
And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon 11 her brother. And when she had brought them near unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister.
12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not <sup>2</sup>force me; for no such thing ought to be 13 done in Israel: do not thou this folly. And I, whither shall I carry my shame? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee. Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but being stronger than she, he forced her, and lay with her. Then Amnon hated her with exceeding great hatred; for the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone. And she said unto him, <sup>1</sup>Not so, because this great wrong in putting me forth is worse than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her. Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. And she had <sup>2</sup>a garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her. And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her; and she laid her hand on her head, and went her way, crying aloud as she went. And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath <sup>3</sup>Amnon thy brother been with thee? but now hold thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; take not this thing to heart. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house. But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth. And Absalom spake unto Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons. And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I pray thee, and 26 blessed him. Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go 27 with thee? But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. And Absalom commanded his servants, saying, 28 Mark ye now, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine ; and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon, then kill him, fear not : have not I commanded 29 you? be courageous, and be valiant. And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons 30 arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled. And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that the tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, 31 and there is not one of them left. Then the king arose, and rent his garments, and lay on the earth ; and all his servants stood by with 32 their clothes rent. And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king's sons ; for Amnon only is dead : for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined from the day that he 33 forced his sister Tamar. Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead : for 34 Amnon only is dead. But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind 35 him. And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons are come : as thy servant said, so it is. And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice, and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept <sup>1</sup>very sore. But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai the son of <sup>2</sup>Ammihur, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years. And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

Now Joab the son of Zeruah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom. And Joab sent to Tekoa, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel, I pray thee, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead: and go in to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth. And when the woman of Tekoa spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king. And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, Of a truth I am a widow woman, and mine husband is dead. And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and killed him. And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he slew, and so destroy the heir also: thus shall they quench my coal which is left, and shall leave to my husband neither name nor remainder 8 upon the face of the earth. And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will 9 give charge concerning thee. And the woman of Tekoa said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house : 10 and the king and his throne be guiltless. And the king said, Whosoever saith aught unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee 11 any more. Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, that the avenger of blood destroy not any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall 12 to the earth. Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak a word unto my 13 lord the king. And he said, Say on. And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou devised such a thing against the people of God ? for in speaking this word the king is as one which is guilty, in that the king doth not fetch home 14 again his banished one. For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again ; neither doth God take away life, but deviseth means, that he that 15 is banished be not an outcast from him. Now therefore seeing that I am come to speak this word unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid : and thy hand-maid said, I will now speak unto the king ; it may be that the king will perform the request of 16 his servant. For the king will hear, to deliver his servant out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of 17 the inheritance of God. Then thine handmaid said, Let, I pray thee, the word of my lord the king be <sup>1</sup>comfortable : for as <sup>2</sup>an angel of God, so is my lord the king <sup>3</sup>to discern good and bad : and the LORD thy God be with thee.

Then the king answered and said unto the 18 woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, aught that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak. And the 19 king said, Is the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from aught that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid: to change the face 20 of the matter hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of <sup>1</sup>an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth. And the king said unto 21 Joab, Behold now, <sup>2</sup>I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.
 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and did 22 obeisance, and blessed the king: and Joab said, To-day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath performed the request of <sup>3</sup>his servant. So Joab arose and went to Geshur, 23 and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. And the 24 king said, Let him turn to his own house, but let him not see my face. So Absalom turned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

Now in all Israel there was none to be so 25 much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. And when 26 he polled his head, (now it was at every year's end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels, after the king's weight. And unto 27 Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar : she was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 And Absalom dwelt two full years in Jeru-29 salem ; and he saw not the king's face. Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king ; but he would not come to him : and he sent again a second time, but he would not 30 come. Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there ; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's 31 servants set the field on fire. Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my 32 field on fire ? And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur ? it were better for me to be there still : now therefore let me see the king's face ; and if there be iniquity in me, let 33 him kill me. So Joab came to the king, and told him : and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king : and the king kissed Absalom.

15 1 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him a chariot and horses, and fifty 2 men to run before him. And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate : and it was so, that when any man had a suit which should come to the king for judgement, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou ? And he said, Thy servant 3 is of one of the tribes of Israel. And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right ; but there is no man deputed of the king 4 to hear thee. Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice! And it was 5 so, that when any man came nigh to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took hold of him, and kissed him. And on this manner 6 did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgement: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

And it came to pass at the end of <sup>1</sup>forty 7 years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron. For thy serv- 8 ant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in <sup>2</sup>Syria, saying, If the LORD shall indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will <sup>3</sup>serve the LORD. And the king said unto him, Go in 9 peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.
But Absalom sent spies throughout all the 10 tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom is king in Hebron. And with Absalom 11 went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were invited, and went in their simplicity; and they knew not any thing. And Absalom <sup>4</sup>sent 12 for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he offered the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

And there came a messenger to David, say- 13 ing, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom. And David said unto all his servants 14 that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for else none of us shall escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring down evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.
And the king's servants said unto the king, 15 Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatso-

16 ever my lord the king shall choose. And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house. And the king went forth, and all the people after him; and they tarried <sup>1</sup>in Beth-merhak. And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king. Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile; return to thine own place. Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us, seeing I go whither I may? return thou, and take back thy brethren; mercy and truth be with thee. And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether for death or for life, even there also will thy servant be. And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him. And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness. And, lo, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city. And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me again, and shew me both it, and his habitation: but if he say thus, I have no delight in thee; behold, here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto him. The king <sup>27</sup> said also unto Zadok the priest, <sup>1</sup>Art thou not a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. See, I will tarry <sup>2</sup>at the <sup>28</sup> fords of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me. Zadok therefore and <sup>29</sup> Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they abode there.

And David went up by the ascent of the <sup>30</sup> mount of Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered, and went barefoot: and all the people that were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up. And one told David, saying, <sup>31</sup> Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O LORD, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.
And it came to pass, that when David was <sup>32</sup> come to the top of the ascent, <sup>3</sup>where God was worshipped, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat rent, and earth upon his head: and David said unto him, If thou <sup>33</sup> passest on with me, then thou shalt be a burden unto me: but if thou return to the city, and <sup>34</sup> say unto Absalom, I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant in time past, so will I now be thy servant: then shalt thou defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel.
And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and <sup>35</sup> Abiathar the priests? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. Behold, they have there <sup>36</sup> with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye shall 16 .1 And when David was a little past the top of the ascent, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred clusters of raisins, and an hundred of summer fruits, and a <sup>1</sup>bottle of wine. <sup>1</sup> Or, skin

2 And the king said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink. And the king said, And where is thy master's son? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To-day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father. Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, thine is all that pertaineth unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I do obeisance; let me find favour in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, there came out thence a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera: he came out, and cursed still as he came. And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Begone, begone, thou man of blood, and man of <sup>2</sup>Belial: the LORD hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and, behold, thou art taken in thine own mischief, because thou art

And Absalom, and all the people the men of <sup>15</sup> Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. And it came to pass, when Hushai the <sup>16</sup> Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, <sup>5</sup>God save the king, God save the king. And Absalom <sup>17</sup> said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? why wentest thou not with thy friend? And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but <sup>18</sup> whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, his will I be, and with him will I abide. And again, whom should <sup>19</sup> I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence. Then <sup>20</sup> said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give your counsel what we shall do. And Ahithophel said <sup>21</sup>

unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall the hands of all that 22 are with thee be strong. So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in 23 the sight of all Israel. And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man inquired at the <sup>1</sup>oracle of God: <sup>1</sup> Heb. word. so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17 <sup>1</sup> Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this 2 night: and I will come upon him while he is weary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him 3 shall flee; and I will smite the king only: and I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so 4 all the people shall be in peace. And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he 6 saith. And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we 7 do after his saying? if not, speak thou. And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given this time is not good.
 8 Hushai said moreover, Thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be <sup>2</sup>chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a <sup>2</sup> Heb. bitter of soul. man of war, and will not lodge with the people.
 9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, <sup>1</sup>when some of them be fallen at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom. And <sup>10</sup>even he that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men. But <sup>11</sup>I counsel that all Israel be gathered together unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and <sup>12</sup>that thou go to battle in thine own person. So shall we come upon him in some place <sup>12</sup>where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him we will not leave so much as one. Moreover, if <sup>13</sup>he <sup>3</sup>be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there. And Absalom and all the men of <sup>14</sup>Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abia- <sup>15</sup>thar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled. Now there- <sup>16</sup>fore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night <sup>4</sup>at the fords of the wilderness, but in any wise pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him. <sup>5</sup>Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed <sup>17</sup>by En-rogel; and a maidservant used to go and tell them; and they went and told king David: for they might not be seen to come 18 into the city. But a lad saw them, and told Absalom: and they went both of them away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they 19 went down thither. And the woman took and spread the covering over the well's mouth, and strewed bruised corn thereon; and nothing was 20 known. And Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house; and they said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could 21 not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David; and they said unto David, Arise ye, and pass quickly over the water: for thus 22 hath Ahithophel counselled against you. Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that 23 was not gone over Jordan. And when Ahitho-phel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home, unto his city, and set his house in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

 24 Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men 25 of Israel with him. And Absalom set Amasa over the host instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man, whose name was <sup>1</sup>Ithra the Israelite, that went in to <sup>2</sup>Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother.
 26 And Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.
 27 And it came to pass, when David was come

Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, brought beds, and 28 basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and meal, and parched corn, and beans, and lentils, and parched pulse, and honey, and 29 butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

And David numbered the people that were 1 18 with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. And David 2 sent forth the people, a third part under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also. But the people 3 said, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: <sup>1</sup>but thou art worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou be ready to succour us out of the city. And the king said unto them, What 4 seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. And the 5 king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom. So the people went out 6 into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim. And the people of 7 Israel were smitten there before the servants of David, and there was a great slaughter there that day of twenty thousand men. For the 8 battle was there spread over the face of all the country: and the forest devoured more people 9 that day than the sword devoured. And Absalom chanced to meet the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon his mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went on. And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak. And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest it, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten pieces of silver, and 12 a girdle. And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand pieces of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 13 Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.

 Otherwise if I had dealt falsely against his life, (and there is no matter hid from the king,) then thou thyself wouldest have stood aloof.
 14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee.
 And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak. And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him. And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people. And they took Absalom, and cast him into the great pit in the forest, and raised over him a very great heap of stones: and all Israel fled every one to his tent. Now Absalom in his life time had taken and reared up for himself the Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath <sup>1</sup>avenged him of his enemies. And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not be the bearer of tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead. Then said Joab to the Cushite, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And the Cushite bowed himself unto Joab, and ran. Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But come what may, let me, I pray thee, also run after the Cushite. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou <sup>2</sup>wilt have no reward for the tidings? But come what may, said he, I will run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Plain, and overran the Cushite.

Now David sat between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man running alone. And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near. And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold, another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings. And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings. And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, <sup>1</sup>All is well. And he bowed himself before the king with his face to the earth, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king. And the king said, <sup>2</sup>Is it well with the young man Absalom? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, <sup>3</sup>even me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was. And the king said, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still. And, behold, the Cushite came; and the Cushite said, Tidings for my lord the king: for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee. And the king said unto the Cushite, Is it well with the young man Absalom? And the Cushite answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise up against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is. And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!

thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines; in that thou lovest 6 them that hate thee, and hatest them that love thee. For thou hast declared this day, that princes and servants are nought unto thee: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased thee well. Now therefore arise, go forth, and 7 speak comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry a man with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that hath befallen thee from thy youth until now. Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. 8 And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate: and all the people came before the king.

Now Israel had fled every man to his tent. And all the people were at strife throughout all 9 the tribes of Israel, saying, The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land from Absalom. And 10 Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

And king David sent to Zadok and to Abi- 11 athar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, to bring him to his house. Ye are my brethren, ye are my 12 bone and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king? And say ye to 13 Amasa, Art thou not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the 14 room of Joab. And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent unto the king, saying, 15 Return thou, and all thy servants. So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to bring the king over Jordan.

16 And Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite, which was of Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went through Jordan 23 over Israel? And the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him.

And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down <sup>24</sup> to meet the king; and he had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came home in peace. And it came <sup>25</sup> to pass, <sup>1</sup>when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth? And he answered, My lord, O king, <sup>26</sup> my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go <sup>2</sup>with the king; because thy servant is lame. And he hath slandered thy servant <sup>27</sup> unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as <sup>3</sup>an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes. For all my father's house were <sup>28</sup> but <sup>4</sup>dead men before my lord the king: yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What right therefore have I yet that I should cry any more unto the king? And the king said unto him, Why speakest <sup>29</sup> thou any more of thy matters? I say, Thou and Ziba divide the land. And Mephibosheth <sup>30</sup> said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come in peace unto his own house.

And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from <sup>31</sup> Rogelim; and he went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan. Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and he had provided the king with sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. And the king said unto <sup>33</sup> Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will sustain thee with me in Jerusalem. And Barzillai said unto the king, How many are the <sup>34</sup> days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem? I am this <sup>35</sup> day fourscore years old : can I discern between good and bad ? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink ? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women ? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a 36 burden unto my lord the king ? Thy servant would but just go over Jordan with the king : and why should the king recompense it me with 37 such a reward ? Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, by the grave of my father and my mother. But behold, thy servant Chimham ; let him go over with my lord the king ; and do to him 38 what shall seem good unto thee. And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee : and whatsoever thou shalt 39 <sup>1</sup>require of me, that will I do for thee. And all the people went over Jordan, and the king went over : and the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him ; and he returned unto his own place.

40 So the king went over to Gilgal, and Chimham went over with him : and all the people of Judah brought the king over, and also half the people 41 of Israel. And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and brought the king, and his household, over Jordan, and all David's men with him ?
 42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us : wherefore then be ye angry for this matter ? have we eaten at all of the king's cost ? or 43 hath he given us any gift ? And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye : why then did ye despise us, <sup>1</sup>that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

And there happened to be there a man of 1 20 <sup>2</sup>Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew the trumpet, and said, We have no portion in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel. So all the men of <sup>2</sup> Israel went up from following David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

And David came to his house at Jerusalem; <sup>3</sup> and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and provided them with sustenance, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, <sup>3</sup>living in widowhood.

Then said the king to Amasa, Call me the <sup>4</sup> men of Judah together within three days, and be thou here present. So Amasa went to call <sup>5</sup> the men of Judah together: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him. And David said to Abishai, Now shall <sup>6</sup> Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape out of our sight. And there went <sup>7</sup> out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. When they were at the <sup>8</sup> great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. And Joab was girded with his apparel of war that he had put on, and thereon was a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went 9 forth it fell out. And Joab said to Amasa, Is it well with thee, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss 10 him. But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the belly, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. And Joab and Abishai his brother 11 pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. And there stood by him one of Joab's young men, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that 12 is for David, let him follow Joab. And Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the midst of the high way. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he carried Amasa out of the high way into the field, and cast a garment over him, when he saw that every one that came by 13 him stood still. When he was removed out of the high way, all the people went on after Joab, 14 to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maacah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also 15 after him. And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maacah, and they cast up a mount against the city, and it stood against the rampart: and all the people that were with 16 Joab <sup>1</sup>battered the wall, to throw it down. Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, 17 that I may speak with thee. And he came near unto her; and the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine hand-18 maid. And he answered, I do hear. Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in

I am 19 of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the LORD? And Joab 20 answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. The 21 matter is not so: but a man of the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall. Then the woman went unto all 22 the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. And he blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

Now Joab was over all the host of Israel: 23 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the <sup>1</sup>Cherethites and over the Pelethites: and 24 Adoram was over the <sup>2</sup>tribute: and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the <sup>3</sup>recorder: and Sheva 25 was <sup>4</sup>scribe: and Zadok and Abiathar were priests: and Ira also the Jairite was <sup>5</sup>priest unto 26 David.

And there was a famine in the days of David 1 21 three years, year after year; and David sought the face of the LORD. And the LORD said, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he put to death the Gibeonites. And the king 2 called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and 10 days, at the beginning of barley harvest. And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water was poured

And <sup>12</sup> David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the <sup>1</sup>street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, in the day that the Philistines slew Saul in Gilboa: and he brought up from <sup>13</sup> thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged. And they buried the <sup>14</sup> bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God was intreated for the land.

And the Philistines had war again with Israel; <sup>15</sup> and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint. And Ishbi-benob, which <sup>16</sup> was of the sons of the <sup>2</sup>giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with <sup>3</sup>a new sword, thought to have slain David. son of Dodai the son of an Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel <sup>1</sup>were gone away: he arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the LORD wrought a great <sup>2</sup>victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil. And after him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together <sup>3</sup>into a troop, where was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the Philistines. But he stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great <sup>2</sup>victory. And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistines were encamped in the valley of Rephaim. And David was then in the hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem. And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate! And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD. And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: shall I drink the blood of the men that went <sup>4</sup>in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men. And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruah, was chief of the three. <sup>1</sup>And again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, saying, Go, number Israel and Judah. And the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, Go now to and fro through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the sum of the people. And Joab said unto the king, Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundredfold, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing? Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel. And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of the valley <sup>2</sup>of Gad, and unto Jazer: then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to Dan-jaan, and round about to Zidon, and came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, at Beer-sheba. So when they had gone to and fro through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. And Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

And David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done: but now, O LORD, put away, I

- beseech thee, the iniquity of thy servant ; for I 11 have done very foolishly. And when David rose up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet Gad, David's seer, say-12 ing, Go and speak unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I <sup>1</sup>offer thee three things ; choose <sup>1</sup>Or, lay upon thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.
 13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land ? or wilt thou flee three months before thy foes while they pursue thee ? or shall there be three days' pestilence in thy land ? now advise thee, and consider what an-14 swer I shall return to him that sent me. And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait : let us fall now into the hand of the LORD ; for his mercies are <sup>2</sup>great : and let me not fall into <sup>2</sup>Or, many 15 the hand of man. So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed : and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thou-16 sand men. And when the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough ; now stay thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing-floor of <sup>3</sup>Araunah <sup>3</sup>Or, Ornah 17 the Jebusite. And David spake unto the LORD <sup>In 1 Chr. xxi.</sup> when he saw the angel that smote the people, <sup>15, Ornan.</sup> and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done perversely : but these sheep, what have they done ? let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.
 18 And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
 19 And David went up according to the saying of 20 Gad, as the LORD commanded. And Araunah looked forth, and saw the king and his servants <sup>1</sup> coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. And Araunah said, Where- <sup>21</sup> fore is my lord the king come to his servant?

 And David said, To buy the threshing-floor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be stayed from the people. And <sup>22</sup> Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold, the oxen for the burnt offering, and the threshing instruments and the furniture of the oxen for the wood: <sup>2</sup>all this, O king, doth <sup>23</sup> Araunah give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, The LORD thy God accept thee. And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; <sup>24</sup> but I will verily buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God which cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. And David built there an <sup>25</sup> altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS.

- 1 <sup>1</sup> Now king David was old and stricken in years ; and they covered him with clothes, but <sup>2</sup> he gat no heat. Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin : and let her stand before the king, and cherish him ; and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat.
<sup>3</sup> So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag the <sup>4</sup> Shunammite, and brought her to the king. And the damsel was very fair ; and she cherished the king, and ministered to him ; but the king knew <sup>5</sup> her not. Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king : and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty <sup>6</sup> men to run before him. And his father had not displeased him <sup>1</sup>at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so ? and he was also a very goodly man ; and he was born after Absalom.
<sup>7</sup> And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest : and they following <sup>8</sup> Adonijah helped him. But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men which belonged to David, were not

oxen and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En-rogel; and he called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants: but Nathan the 10 prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not. Then 11 Nathan spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not? Now there- 12 fore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon. Go and get thee in unto 13 king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign? Behold, while thou yet 14 talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words. And Bath- 15 sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king. And 16 Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What wouldest thou? And she said unto him, My lord, thou swarest 17 by the LORD thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. And 18 now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; <sup>1</sup>and thou, my lord the king, knowest it not: and he hath <sup>2</sup>slain 19 oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called. And 20 <sup>3</sup>thou, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I 22 And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, 23 Nathan the prophet came in. And they told the king, saying, Behold, Nathan the prophet.

 And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to 24 the ground. And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, 25 and he shall sit upon my throne? For he is gone down this day, and hath <sup>2</sup>slain oxen and <sup>2</sup> Or, sacrificed fatlings and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, God save king 26 Adonijah. But me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not 27 called. Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed unto thy <sup>3</sup>servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king 28 after him? Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.
 29 And the king sware, and said, As the LORD liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all 30 adversity, verily as I sware unto thee by the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; verily so 31 will I do this day. Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did obeisance to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live 32 for ever. And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the 33 king. And the king said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon: and let Zadok the priest 34 and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon. Then ye shall 35 come up after him, and he shall come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be <sup>1</sup>prince over Israel and over Judah. And Benaiah the 36 son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say so too. As the LORD hath been with my 37 lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David. So Zadok the priest, and 38 Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon. And Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out 39 of the Tent, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save king Solomon. And all the people came 40 up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them. And Adonijah 41 and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar? While he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of 42 Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said, Come in; for thou art a worthy man, and bringest good tidings. And Jonathan answered 43 and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king: and the king 44 hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule : 45 and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon : and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that ye have 46 heard. And also Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdom. And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, 47 <sup>1</sup>Thy God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne : and the king bowed himself 48 upon the bed. And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, 49 mine eyes even seeing it. And all the guests of Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went 50 every man his way. And Adonijah feared because of Solomon ; and he arose, and went, and 51 caught hold on the horns of the altar. And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon : for, lo, he hath laid hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me <sup>2</sup>this day that he will 52 not slay his servant with the sword. And Solomon said, If he shall shew himself a worthy man, there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth : but if wickedness be found in him, he 53 shall die. So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and did obeisance to king Solomon : and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

2 <sup>1</sup> Now the days of David drew nigh that he should die ; and he charged Solomon his son, 2 saying, I go the way of all the earth : be thou 3 strong therefore, and shew thyself a man ; and keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgements, and his testimonies, according to that which is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest <sup>1</sup>prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself: that the LORD may establish <sup>4</sup>his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel. Moreover thou <sup>5</sup>knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruah did unto me, even what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and <sup>2</sup>shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet. Do therefore according to <sup>6</sup>thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to <sup>3</sup>the grave in peace. But shew kindness <sup>7</sup>unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom thy brother. And, behold, there is with thee Shimei <sup>8</sup>the son of Gera, the Benjamite, of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword. Now therefore hold him not <sup>9</sup>guiltless, for thou art a wise man; and thou wilt know what thou oughtest to do unto him, and thou shalt bring his hoar head down to <sup>3</sup>the grave with blood. And David slept with his <sup>10</sup>fathers, and was buried in the city of David. And the days that David reigned over Israel <sup>11</sup> were forty years : seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 And Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father ; and his kingdom was established 13 greatly. Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon.
And she said, Comest thou peaceably ? And 14 he said, Peaceably. He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say 15 on. And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign : howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my bro-16 ther's : for it was his from the LORD. And now I ask one petition of thee, <sup>1</sup>deny me not.
17 And she said unto him, Say on. And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me 18 Abishag the Shunammite to wife. And Bathsheba said, Well ; I will speak for thee unto 19 the king. Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah.
And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a throne to be set for the king's 20 mother ; and she sat on his right hand. Then she said, I ask one small petition of thee ; deny me not. And the king said unto her, Ask on, 21 my mother : for I will not deny thee. And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to 22 Adonijah thy brother to wife. And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah ? ask for him the kingdom also ; for he is mine elder brother ; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son 23 of Zeruah. Then king Solomon sware by the LORD, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life. Now therefore as the LORD 24 liveth, who hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me an house, as he promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death this day. And 25 king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him, that he died. And unto Abiathar the priest said the 26 king, Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art <sup>3</sup>worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou wast afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted. So Solomon 27 thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil <sup>2</sup>the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh. And the tidings came to Joab: 28 for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the Tent of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. And it was told 29 king Solomon, Joab is fled unto the Tent of the LORD, and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him. And Benaiah came 30 to the Tent of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me. And the king said 31 unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the blood, which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father's house. And the 32 LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, because he fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, and my father David knew it not, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah. So shall their blood return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but unto David, and unto his seed, and unto his house, and unto his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD. Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar. And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither. For on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, know thou for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head. And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days. And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath. And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again. And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for certain, that on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The saying that I have heard is good. Why <sup>43</sup> then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with? The king said moreover to Shimei, <sup>44</sup> Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head. But king <sup>45</sup> Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever. So the king commanded Benaiah the <sup>46</sup> son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

And Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh <sup>1</sup> 3 king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall of Jerusalem round about. Only the people sacri- <sup>2</sup> ficed in the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days. And Solomon loved the LORD, <sup>3</sup> walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

<sup>1</sup> And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice <sup>4</sup> there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar. In Gibeon the LORD appeared to <sup>5</sup> Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee. And Solomon <sup>6</sup> said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great kindness, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it 7 is this day. And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child; I know 8 not how to go out or come in. And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be num-9 bered nor counted for multitude. Give thy servant therefore an <sup>1</sup>understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this thy 10 <sup>2</sup>great people? And the speech pleased the 11 Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself <sup>3</sup>long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to <sup>4</sup>discern judge-12 ment; behold, I have done according to thy word: lo, I have given thee a wise and an <sup>1</sup>understanding heart; so that there hath been none like thee before thee, neither after thee 13 shall any arise like unto thee. And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honour, so that there <sup>5</sup>shall not be any among the kings like unto thee, all thy 14 days. And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen 15 thy days. And Solomon awoke, and, behold, it was a dream: and he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

16 Then came there two women, that were har-lots, unto the king, and stood before him. And 17 the one woman said, Oh my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house. And it came 18 to pass the third day after I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also; and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house. And this 19 woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it. And she arose at midnight, and 20 took my son from beside me, while thine hand-maid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. And when I 21 rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear. And the other woman said, 22 Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king. Then said the king, 23 The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living. And the king said, Fetch me a sword. 24 And they brought a sword before the king.

And the king said, Divide the living child in 25 two, and give half to the one, and half to the other. Then spake the woman whose the living 26 child was unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, Oh my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it.
But the other said, It shall be neither mine nor thine; divide it. Then the king answered 27 and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof. And 28 all Israel heard of the judgement which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do judgement.

And Solomon had <sup>6</sup>forty <sup>26</sup> thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. And those officers <sup>27</sup> provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they let nothing be lacking. And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore. And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of <sup>30</sup> all the children of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt. For he was wiser than all men; <sup>31</sup> than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and

Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol : and his 32 fame was in all the nations round about. And he spake three thousand proverbs : and his 33 songs were a thousand and five. And he spake of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall : he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of 34 creeping things, and of fishes. And there came of all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

5 1 <sup>1</sup>And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon ; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father : 2 for Hiram was ever a lover of David. And 3 Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, Thou knowest how that David my father could not build an house for the name of the LORD his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his 4 feet. But now the LORD my God hath given me rest on every side ; there is neither ad-5 versary, nor evil occurrent. And, behold, I purpose to build an house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build the 6 house for my name. Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon ; and my servants shall be with thy servants ; and I will give thee hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt say : for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Zidonians.
 7 And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people. And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, <sup>8</sup> I have heard the message which thou hast sent unto me: I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of <sup>1</sup>fir. My servants shall bring them down from Leba- <sup>9</sup> non unto the sea: and I will make them into rafts to go by sea unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and thou shalt <sup>2</sup>receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household. So <sup>3</sup>Hiram gave Solomon <sup>10</sup> timber of cedar and timber of fir according to all his desire. And Solomon gave Hiram <sup>11</sup> twenty thousand <sup>4</sup>measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of <sup>5</sup>pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year. And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he <sup>12</sup> promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

And king Solomon raised a levy out of all <sup>13</sup> Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a <sup>14</sup> month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and Adoniram was over the levy. And Solomon had three- <sup>15</sup> score and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand that were hewers in the mountains; besides Solomon's chief officers <sup>16</sup> that were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work. And the king com- <sup>17</sup> manded, and they <sup>6</sup>hewed out great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with wrought stone. And Solomon's builders <sup>18</sup> and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites did fashion them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

6 1 And it came to pass in the four hundred and 2 eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel; in the month Ziv, which is the second month, that he 2 began to build the house of the LORD. And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the 3 height thereof thirty cubits. And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth 4 thereof before the house. And for the house 5 he made windows of fixed lattice-work. And against the wall of the house he built stories round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made side-chambers round 6 about: the nethermost story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for on the outside he made rebatements in the wall of the house round about, that the beams should not 7 have hold in the walls of the house. And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready at the quarry: and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.
 8 The door for the middle side-chambers was in the right side of the house: and they went up by winding stairs into the middle chambers, and 9 out of the middle into the third. So he built the house, and finished it; and he covered the 10 house with beams and planks of cedar. And he built the stories against all the house, each five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, 11 saying, Concerning this house which thou art 12 in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgements, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I establish my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father. And I will dwell among 13 the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

So Solomon built the house, and finished it. 14
 And he built the walls of the house within with 15 boards of cedar; <sup>1</sup>from the floor of the house unto the walls of the cieling, he covered them on the inside with wood: and he covered the floor of the house with boards of <sup>2</sup>fir. <sup>3</sup>And he 16 built twenty cubits on the hinder part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor unto the <sup>4</sup>walls: he even built them for it within, for an oracle, even for the most holy place. And 17 the house, that is, the temple before the oracle, was forty cubits long. And there was cedar on 18 the house within, carved with <sup>5</sup>knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen. And he prepared an oracle in the midst 19 of the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. And within the oracle 20 was a space of twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof; and he overlaid it with pure gold: <sup>6</sup>and he covered the altar with cedar. So Solomon 21 overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he drew chains of gold across before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold. And the whole 22 house he overlaid with gold, until all the house was finished: also the whole altar that belonged to the oracle he overlaid with gold. <sup>7</sup>And in 23 the oracle he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high. And five cubits was the 24 other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part 25 of the other were ten cubits. And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubim were 26 of one measure and one form. The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of 27 the other cherub. And he set the cherubim within the inner house: and the wings of the cherubim were stretched forth, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of 28 the house. And he overlaid the cherubim with 29 gold. And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, within and 30 without. And the floor of the house he over-31 laid with gold, within and without. And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive wood: the <sup>1</sup>lintel and door posts were a fifth <sup>1</sup> Or, posts wood; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread the gold upon the cherubim, and upon the palm 33 trees. So also made he for the entering of the temple door posts of olive wood, out of a fourth 34 part of the wall; and two doors of <sup>2</sup>fir wood; <sup>2</sup> Or, cypress the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were palm trees and open flowers: and he overlaid them with gold fitted upon the graven work.

 36 And he built the inner court with three rows of 37 hewn stone, and a row of cedar beams. In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of 38 the LORD laid, in the month Ziv. And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished <sup>1</sup>throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.

And Solomon was building his own house 1. 7 thirteen years, and he finished all his house. For he built the house of the forest of Lebanon; 2 the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars. And 3 it was covered with cedar above over the forty and five <sup>2</sup>beams, that were upon the pillars; fifteen in a row. And there were <sup>3</sup>prospects in 4 three rows, and light was over against light in three ranks. And all the doors and posts 5 <sup>4</sup>were square in prospect: and light was over against light in three ranks. And he made 6 the porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits; and a porch before them; and pillars and <sup>5</sup>thick beams before them. And he made the porch 7 of the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgement: and it was covered with cedar from floor to floor. And his house where 8 he might dwell, the other court within the porch, was of the like work. He made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, (whom Solomon had taken to wife,) like unto this porch. All 9 these were of costly stones, even of hewn stone, <sup>6</sup>according to measure, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside unto the great court. And the foundation was of costly stones, 10 even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. And above were costly 11 stones, even hewn stone, according to measure,

13 And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram 14 out of Tyre. <sup>2</sup>He was the son of a widow woman of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass; and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and cunning, to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his 16 about. And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits.

17 There were nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one finished. <sup>1</sup>And he made the molten sea of <sup>23</sup> ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and the height thereof was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits compassed it round about. And under the brim of it round about <sup>24</sup> there were knops which did compass it, <sup>2</sup>for ten cubits, compassing the sea round about: the knops were in two rows, cast when it was cast. It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward <sup>25</sup> the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set upon them above, and all their hinder parts were inward. And it was an handbreadth <sup>26</sup> thick; and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it held two thousand baths. And he made the <sup>27</sup> ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it. And the work <sup>28</sup> of the bases was on this manner: they had <sup>3</sup>borders; <sup>4</sup>and there were borders between the ledges: and on the borders that were between <sup>29</sup> the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and upon the ledges <sup>5</sup>there was a pedestal above: and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work. And every base had four <sup>30</sup> brasen wheels, and axles of brass: and the four feet thereof had <sup>6</sup>undersetters: beneath the laver were the undersetters molten, with wreaths at the side of each. And the mouth of it within the <sup>31</sup> chapter and above was a cubit: and the mouth thereof was round after the work of a pedestal, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings, and their borders were foursquare, not round. And the four wheels <sup>32</sup> were underneath the borders; and the axletrees of the wheels were in the base: and the height 33 of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their felloes, and their spokes, and their naves, were all 34 molten. And there were four undersetters at the four corners of each base: the undersetters 35 thereof were of the base itself. And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the 1 stays thereof and the borders thereof were of <sup>1</sup> Heb. hands.

 and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of manner he made the ten bases: all of them had <sup>2</sup> See 2 Chr.

Hiram made for king Solomon, in the house of the LORD, were of burnished brass. In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan. And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: the weight of the brass <sup>1</sup>could not be found out. And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of the LORD: the golden altar, and the table whereupon the shewbread was, of gold; and the candlesticks, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; and the cups, and the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the firepans, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple, of gold. <sup>2</sup>Thus all the work that king Solomon wrought in the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' houses of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion. And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark. And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; even these did the priests and the Levites bring up. And king Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not 6 be told nor numbered for multitude. And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the 7 wings of the cherubim. For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and the 8 staves thereof above. And <sup>1</sup>the staves were so long that the ends of the staves were seen from the holy place before the oracle; but they were not seen without: and there they are,

9 unto this day. There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, <sup>2</sup>when the LORD made a 10 covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the 11 LORD, so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

12 <sup>3</sup>Then spake Solomon, The LORD hath said 13 that he would dwell in the thick darkness. I have surely built thee an house of habitation, 14 a place for thee to dwell in for ever. And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: and all the congregation 15 of Israel stood. And he said, Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, which spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his 16 hand fulfilled it, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my name might be there; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.

Now it was in the heart of David my father to <sup>17</sup> build an house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. But the LORD said unto David <sup>18</sup> my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart: nevertheless thou <sup>19</sup> shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name. And the LORD hath <sup>20</sup> established his word that he spake; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. And there have <sup>21</sup> I set a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

And Solomon stood before the altar of the <sup>22</sup> LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven: and he said, O LORD, the God of <sup>23</sup> Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath; who keepest covenant and mercy <sup>1</sup>with thy servants, that walk before thee with all their heart: who hast kept <sup>24</sup> with thy servant David my father that which thou didst promise him; yea, thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand; as it is this day. Now therefore, O LORD, the <sup>25</sup> God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, <sup>2</sup>There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; if only thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me as thou hast walked before me. The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us: that he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers. And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel, <sup>2</sup>as every day shall require: that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD, he is God; there is none else. Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day. And the king and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD. And Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings: because the brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings. <sup>1</sup>And it came to pass at the end of twenty 10 years, wherein Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house; (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished 11

And this is the <sup>3</sup>reason of the levy which 15 king Solomon raised ; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer. Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, 16 and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a portion unto his daughter, Solomon's wife. And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the 17 nether, and Baalath, and <sup>4</sup>Tamar in the wilder- 18 ness, in the land, and all the store cities that Solo- 19 mon had, and the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. As for all the people that were left of the Amorites, 20 the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel; their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel were not able utterly to destroy, of them did Solomon raise a levy of bondservants, unto this day. But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondservants: but they were the men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. These were the chief officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work. But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo. And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, burning incense therewith, upon the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. And they came to Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

10 1 <sup>1</sup>And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions. And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king which he told her not. And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, and the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the <sup>1</sup>attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and <sup>2</sup>his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thine <sup>3</sup>acts, and of thy wisdom. Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: <sup>4</sup>thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard. Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom. Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgement and justice. And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of <sup>5</sup>almug trees and precious stones. And the king made of the almug trees <sup>6</sup>pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for the singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen, unto this day. And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that <sup>7</sup>which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants.

 all the kings of the mingled people, and of the the top of the throne was round behind: and there were <sup>2</sup>stays on either side by the place of <sup>2</sup> Or, arms

 20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was nothing accounted of in the days 22 of Solomon. For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once every three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and 23 peacocks. So king Solomon exceeded all the 24 kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom. And all the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his 25 heart. And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and armour, and spices, horses, gathered together chariots and horsemen: and <sup>14-17</sup>. he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. And the king made silver to be <sup>27</sup> in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycomore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. <sup>1</sup>And the horses which Solomon <sup>28</sup> had were brought out of Egypt; and the king's merchants received them in droves, each drove at a price. And a chariot came up and went <sup>29</sup> out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out <sup>30</sup> by their means.

Now king Solomon loved many strange <sup>1</sup> 11 women, <sup>2</sup>together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites; of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go among them, neither shall they come among you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love. And he <sup>3</sup> had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart. For it came to pass, when Solomon <sup>4</sup> was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father. For Solomon went after Ash- <sup>5</sup> toreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. And Solomon did that which was evil in the <sup>6</sup> sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father. Then did <sup>7</sup> Solomon build an high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, in the mount that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomin-

8 ation of the children of Ammon. And so did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, which had appeared 10 unto him twice, and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the 11 LORD commanded. Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this <sup>1</sup>is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and 12 will give it to thy servant. Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it, for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy 13 son. Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to thy son, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

14 And the LORD raised up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the 15 king's seed in Edom. For it came to pass, when David <sup>2</sup>was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, 16 and had smitten every male in Edom; (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he 17 had cut off every male in Edom;) that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad 18 being yet a little child. And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, 19 and gave him land. And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh. And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country. Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit let me depart in any wise.

And God raised up another adversary unto him, Rezon the son of Eliada, which had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah: and he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a troop, when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus. And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, he also lifted up his hand against the king. And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and <sup>1</sup>repaired the breach of the city of David his father. And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon saw the young man that he was industrious, and he gave him charge over all the <sup>2</sup>labour of the house of Joseph. And it came to pass at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way ; now Ahijah had clad himself with a new garment ; and they two were alone in the field.

30 And Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that 31 was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces. And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces : for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of 32 Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee : (but he shall have one tribe, for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel :) 33 because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon ; and they have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgements, as did David his 34 father. Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand : but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servant's sake, whom I chose, <sup>1</sup>because he kept 35 my commandments and my statutes : but I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and 36 will give it unto thee, even ten tribes. And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a lamp always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me 37 to put my name there. And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign <sup>2</sup>according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.
 38 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that which is right in mine eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did ; that I will be with thee, and will build thee a sure house, as I built for 39 David, and will give Israel unto thee. And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever. Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam : but Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

Or, matters

<sup>3</sup> And Rehoboam went to Shechem : for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king. And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he was yet in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt, and they sent and called him ;) that Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying, Thy father made our yoke grievous : now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee. And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed. And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people? And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever. But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men that were grown up with him, that 9 stood before him. And he said unto them, What counsel give ye, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that thy father did put 10 upon us lighter? And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us ; thus shalt thou speak unto them, My little finger 11 is thicker than my father's loins. And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke : my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you 12 with scorpions. So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the counsel of the old men which they 14 had given him ; and spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke : my father chastised you with whips, but 15 I will chastise you with scorpions. So the king hearkened not unto the people ; for it was a thing brought about of the LORD, that he might establish his word, which the LORD spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam 16 the son of Nebat. And when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David ? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse : to your tents, O Israel : now see to thine own house, David. So Israel de-17 parted unto their tents. But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, 18 Rehoboam reigned over them. Then king

Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the levy ; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. And king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. So 19 Israel rebelled against the house of David, unto this day. And it came to pass, when all Israel 20 heard that Jeroboam was returned, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel : there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

<sup>1</sup>And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. But the word of God came unto Shemaiah 22 the man of God, saying, Speak unto Rehoboam 23 the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the <sup>2</sup>rest of the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, 24 Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel : return every man to his house ; for this thing is of me. So they hearkened unto the word of the LORD, and returned and went their way, according to the word of the LORD.

Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill 25 country of Ephraim, and dwelt therein ; and he went out from thence, and built Penuel. And 26 Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David : if this people 27 go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah ; and they shall kill me, and return to Rehoboam king of Judah. Whereupon the 28 king took counsel, and made two calves of gold ; and he said unto them, <sup>1</sup>It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem ; behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

the people went to worship before <sup>2</sup>the one, even

and made priests from among all the people,

<sup>32</sup> which were not of the sons of Levi. And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he <sup>3</sup>went up unto the altar ; so did he in Beth-el, <sup>4</sup>sacrificing unto the calves priests of the high places which he had made.

<sup>33</sup> And he <sup>3</sup>went up unto the altar which he had made in Beth-el on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised <sup>5</sup>of his own heart : and he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and <sup>3</sup>went up unto the altar, to burn incense.

13 <sup>1</sup> And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Beth-el : and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn

<sup>2</sup> incense. And he cried against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD : Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name ; and upon thee shall he sacrifice the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and

<sup>3</sup> men's bones shall they burn upon thee. And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken : Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon that Jeroboam put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back again to him. The altar <sup>5</sup> also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. And <sup>6</sup> the king answered and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the favour of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God intreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before. And the king said unto the man of God, Come <sup>7</sup> home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward. And the man of God said <sup>8</sup> unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place: for so <sup>9</sup> was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drink water, neither return by the way that thou camest. So <sup>10</sup> he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

Now there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el; <sup>11</sup> and <sup>1</sup>one of his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them also they told unto their father. And their father said unto them, What way went <sup>12</sup> he? <sup>2</sup>Now his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah. And he <sup>13</sup> said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon. And <sup>14</sup> he went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an <sup>3</sup>oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am. Then he said <sup>15</sup>

unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.
 16 And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee : neither will I eat bread nor drink 17 water with thee in this place : for it was said to me by the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to 18 go by the way that thou camest. And he said unto him, I also am a prophet as thou art ; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink 19 water. But he lied unto him. So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and 20 drank water. And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came 21 unto the prophet that brought him back : and he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast <sup>1</sup>been disobedient unto the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment 22 which the LORD thy God commanded thee, but camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place of the which he said to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water ; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.
 23 And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had 24 brought back. And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him : and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood 25 by it ; the lion also stood by the carcase. And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase : and they came and told it in the city where the 26 old prophet dwelt. And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who <sup>1</sup>was disobed<sup>1</sup> Or, rebelled against the

ient unto the mouth of the LORD : therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him. And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me <sup>27</sup> the ass. And they saddled it. And he went <sup>28</sup> and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase : the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass. And the prophet took up the carcase of the man <sup>29</sup> of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back : and he came to the city of the old prophet, to mourn, and to bury him. And he laid his <sup>30</sup> carcase in his own grave ; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother ! And it <sup>31</sup> came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried ; lay my bones beside his bones. For the saying which he cried by the word of <sup>32</sup> the LORD against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

After this thing Jeroboam returned not from <sup>33</sup> his evil way, but made again from among all the people priests of the high places : <sup>1</sup>whosoever would, he consecrated him, that there might be priests of the high places. And <sup>2</sup>this <sup>34</sup> thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell <sup>1</sup> 14 sick. And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I <sup>2</sup> pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam : and get thee to Shiloh ; behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, which spake concerning me that I should be king over this people. And take with thee <sup>3</sup> ten loaves, and cracknels, and a <sup>1</sup>cruse of honey, <sup>1</sup> Or, bottle and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall 4 become of the child. And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age.

5 And the LORD said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to inquire of thee concerning her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be 6 another woman. And it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why feignest thou thyself to be another? for I am sent to thee with heavy tidings.
7 Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee <sup>2</sup>prince <sup>2</sup> Or, leader 8 over my people Israel, and rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it thee: and yet thou hast not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only 9 which was right in mine eyes; but hast done evil above all that were before thee, and hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and hast cast 10 me behind thy back: therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every man child, him that is shut up and him that is left at large in Israel, and will utterly sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweepeth away dung, till it 11 be all gone. Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the 12 LORD hath spoken it. Arise thou therefore, get thee to thine house: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die. And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave: because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. Moreover the LORD shall raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: <sup>1</sup>but what? even now. For the LORD shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and he shall root up Israel out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the River; because they have made their Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger. And he shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, <sup>2</sup>which he hath sinned, and wherewith he hath made Israel to sin. And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah: and as she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. And all Israel buried him, and mourned for him; according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet. And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. And the days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

<sup>3</sup>And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. And Judah did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their fathers had done. For they also built them high places, and <sup>1</sup>pillars, and Asherim, on every high hill, and under every green tree; and there were also <sup>2</sup>sodomites in the land: they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD drave out before the children of Israel. <sup>3</sup>And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem: and he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. And king Rehoboam made in their stead shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the 'guard, which kept the door of the king's house. And it was so, that as oft as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard bare them, and brought them back into the guard chamber. <sup>5</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. And <sup>6</sup>Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

15 <sup>1</sup>Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat began Abijam to reign over Judah. Three years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was <sup>8</sup>Maacah the daughter of <sup>9</sup>Abishalom. And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father.

Nevertheless for David's sake did the LORD, 4 his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem: because David did that which was right 5 in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. Now there was war between <sup>1</sup>Re- 6 hoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.
 And the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that 7 he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. <sup>2</sup>And 8 Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead.

And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king 9 of Israel began Asa to reign over Judah. And 10 forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. And Asa did that which 11 was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father. And he put away the sodomites out 12 of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. <sup>3</sup>And also Maacah his 13 mother he removed from being <sup>4</sup>queen, because she had made an abominable image <sup>5</sup>for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and burnt it at the brook Kidron. But the high 14 places were not taken away: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with the LORD all his days. And he brought into the house of the 15 LORD the things that his father had dedicated, and the things that himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. And there was war 16 between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>6</sup>And Baasha king of Israel went up 17 against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, 19 saying, <sup>1</sup> There is a league between me and thee, <sup>1</sup> Or, Let there gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of 20 Israel, that he may depart from me. And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maacah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naph-21 tali. And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and 22 dwelt in Tirzah. Then king Asa made a proclamation unto all Judah; none was exempted: and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded; and king Asa built therewith Geba of 23 Benjamin, and Mizpah. <sup>2</sup> Now the rest of all <sup>2</sup> See 2 Chr.

 he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his 24 old age he was diseased in his feet. And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.
 25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.
 26 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin. And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead. And it came to pass that, as soon as he was king, he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him; according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ahijah the Shilonite: for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and wherewith he made Israel to sin; because of his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger. Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned twenty and four years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin. And the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee <sup>1</sup>prince over my people Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. shall the dogs eat ; and him that dieth of his in 5 the field shall the fowls of the air eat. Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of 6 the chronicles of the kings of Israel ? And Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah ; and Elah his son reigned in his stead.
7 And moreover by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he smote <sup>1</sup>him.

8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two years.
9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him : now he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, which was over the household in Tirzah : 10 and Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king 11 of Judah, and reigned in his stead. And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he smote all the house of Baasha : he left him not a single man child, 12 neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends. Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake 13 against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and wherewith they made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD, the God of 14 Israel, to anger with their vanities. Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel ?

In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king 15 of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah.
Now the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. And 16 the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also smitten the king : wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.
And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all 17 Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.
And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the 18 city was taken, that he went into the <sup>1</sup>castle of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died, for his sins which 19 he sinned in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, 20 and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel ?

Then were the people of Israel divided into 21 two parts : half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king ; and half followed Omri. But the people that followed Omri 22 prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath : so Tibni died, and Omri reigned. In the thirty and first year of Asa 23 king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, and reigned twelve years : six years reigned he in Tirzah. And he bought the hill <sup>2</sup>Samaria of 24 Shemer for two talents of silver ; and he <sup>3</sup>built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, <sup>2</sup>Samaria. And Omri did that which 25 was evil in the sight of the LORD, and dealt wickedly above all that were before him. For 26 he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years.

And Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him. And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife <sup>1</sup>Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. And Ahab made <sup>2</sup>the Asherah; and Ahab did yet more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him. <sup>3</sup>In his days did Hiel the Beth-elite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof with the loss of his youngest son Segub; according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of Joshua the son of Nun.

And Elijah the Tishbite, who was <sup>4</sup>of the sojourners of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the LORD, the God of Israel, liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these

2 years, but according to my word. And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. And it shall be, that thou shalt drink 4 of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there. So he went and did 5 according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. And the ravens brought him 6 bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. And it came to pass after a while, that 7 the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

And the word of the LORD came unto him, 8 saying, Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which 9 belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. So he arose and went to Zare- 10 phath; and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow woman was there gathering sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. And as she was going to fetch 11 it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand. And 12 she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in the barrel, and a little oil in the cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die. And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; 13 go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it forth unto me, and afterward make for thee and for thy son. For thus saith the LORD, the God of 14 Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.

15 And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah : and she, and he, and her house, did 16 eat many days. The barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

17 And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick ; and his sickness was so sore, that 18 there was no breath left in him. And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God ? <sup>1</sup>thou art come unto me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to slay my 19 son ! And he said unto her, Give me thy son.

And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into the chamber, where he abode, and 20 laid him upon his own bed. And he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I 21 sojourn, by slaying her son ? And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him 22 again. And the LORD hearkened unto the voice of Elijah ; and the soul of the child came 23 into him again, and he revived. And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother : and Elijah said, See, thy son 24 liveth. And the woman said to Elijah, Now I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

18 1 And it came to pass after many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ahab ; 2 and I will send rain upon the earth. And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. And 3 the famine was sore in Samaria. And Ahab called Obadiah, which was over the household.

(Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly: for it 4 was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) And Ahab said unto 5 Obadiah, Go through the land, unto all the fountains of water, and unto all the brooks: peradventure we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, <sup>1</sup>that we lose not all the beasts. So they divided the land between 6 them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself. And as Obadiah was in the way, 7 behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Is it thou, my lord Elijah? And he answered him, It is I: go, 8 tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. And he 9 said, Wherein have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me? As the LORD thy God liveth, there 10 is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not here, he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not. And 11 now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. And it shall come to pass, as 12 soon as I am gone from thee, that the spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth. Was it 13 not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? And now 14 thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me. And Elijah 15 said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom

I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him 16 to-day. So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and 17 told him : and Ahab went to meet Elijah. And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Is it thou, thou troubler of 18 Israel ? And he answered, I have not troubled Israel ; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed the Baalim.
19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the Asherah four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's 20 table. So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto 21 mount Carmel. And Elijah came near unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions ? if the LORD be God, follow him : but if Baal, then follow him. And the people 22 answered him not a word. Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only, am left a prophet of the LORD ; but Baal's prophets are 23 four hundred and fifty men. Let them therefore give us two bullocks ; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under :
and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on 24 the wood, and put no fire under. And call ye on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD : and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people 25 answered and said, It is well spoken. And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first ; for ye are many ; and call on the name of 26 your god, but put no fire under. And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal,

<sup>2</sup> Or, limped answered. And they <sup>2</sup>leaped about the altar which was made. And it came to pass at noon, <sup>27</sup> that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud : for he is a god ; either he is musing, or he is gone aside, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked. And <sup>28</sup> they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their <sup>3</sup> Or, swords manner with <sup>3</sup>knives and lances, till the blood gushed out upon them. And it was so, when <sup>29</sup> midday was past, that they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening oblation ; but there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor <sup>4</sup> Heb. attention. any <sup>4</sup>that regarded. And Elijah said unto all <sup>30</sup> the people, Come near unto me ; and all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was thrown down.
 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to <sup>31</sup> the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name. And with the stones <sup>32</sup> he built an altar in the name of the LORD ; and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain <sup>5</sup>two measures of seed. And he <sup>33</sup> <sup>5</sup> Or, a two- pieces, and laid it on the wood. And he said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt offering, and on the wood. And he said, <sup>34</sup> Do it the second time ; and they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time ; and they did it the third time. And <sup>35</sup> the water ran round about the altar ; and he filled the trench also with water. And it came <sup>36</sup> to pass at the time of the offering of the evening oblation, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, O LORD, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things 37 at thy word. Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou, LORD, art God, <sup>1</sup>and that thou hast turned their heart 38 back again. Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the 39 water that was in the trench. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is God; the LORD, he 40 is God. And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape.

 And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them 41 there. And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of 42 abundance of rain. So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees.
 43 And he said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go 44 again seven times. And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a cloud out of the sea, as small as a man's hand.
 And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, <sup>2</sup>Make 45 ready thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not. And it came to pass in a little while, that the heaven grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain.
 46 And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.
 19 1 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow about this time. <sup>1</sup>And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a <sup>2</sup>juniper tree : and he requested for himself that he might die ; and said, It is enough ; now, O LORD, take away my life ; for I am not better than my fathers. And he lay down and slept under a juniper tree ; and, behold, an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat. And he looked, and, behold, there was at his head a cake baken on the <sup>3</sup>coals, and a cruse of water. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again. And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat ; because the journey is too great for thee. And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Horeb the mount of God. And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there ; and, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah ? And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts ; for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword : and I, even I only, am left ; and they seek my life, to take it away. And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD ; but the LORD was not in the wind : and after the wind an earthquake ; but 12 the LORD was not in the earthquake : and after the earthquake a fire ; but the LORD was not in the fire : and after the fire <sup>1</sup>a still small voice.

 13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, 14 What doest thou here, Elijah ? And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts ; for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword ; and I, even I only, am left ; and they seek my life, to take it 15 away. And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on thy way <sup>2</sup>to the wilderness of Damascus : and when thou comest, thou shalt anoint Hazael 16 to be king over Syria : and Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel : and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.
 17 And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth from the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay : and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu 18 shall Elisha slay. Yet will I leave me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath 19 not kissed him. So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth : and Elijah passed over unto 20 him, and cast his mantle upon him. And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go back again ; for what have I done to 21 thee ? And he returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and slew them, and

And Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all 1 20 his host together : and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses and chariots : and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it. And he sent messengers to Ahab 2 king of Israel, into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad, Thy silver and thy gold 3 is mine ; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine. And the king of Israel 4 answered and said, It is according to thy saying, my lord, O king ; I am thine, and all that I have. And the messengers came again, and 5 said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, I sent indeed unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children ; but I will send my servants unto thee 6 to-morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants ; and it shall be, that <sup>2</sup>whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away. Then the king of Israel called all the 7 elders of the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief : for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold ; and I denied him not. And all the elders and all the 8 people said unto him, Hearken thou not, neither consent. Wherefore he said unto the mes- 9 sengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do : but this thing I may not do.

 word again. And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and 10

 Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his armour boast himself as he 12 that putteth it off. And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the <sup>2</sup>pavilions, that he said unto his servants, <sup>3</sup>Set yourselves in array.
 And they set themselves in array against the 13 city. And, behold, a prophet came near unto Ahab king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; 14 and thou shalt know that I am the LORD. And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, By the <sup>4</sup>young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall <sup>5</sup>begin 15 the battle? And he answered, Thou. Then he mustered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty 16 two: and after them he mustered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand. And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the <sup>2</sup>pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two 17 kings that helped him. And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, 18 There are men come out from Samaria. And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out 19 for war, take them alive. So these went out of the city, the young men of the princes of the provinces, and the army which followed them.
 20 And they slew every one his man; and the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped <sup>6</sup>on an horse 21 with horsemen. And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter. And the prophet came near to the king of Israel, and said unto him, Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.

And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we: but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And do this thing; take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put <sup>1</sup>captains in their room: and number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so. And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel. And the children of Israel were mustered, and were victualled, and went against them: and the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country. And <sup>2</sup>a man of God came near and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is a god of the hills, but he is not a god of the valleys; therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD. And they encamped one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day. But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand men that were left.

 And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, 31 <sup>1</sup>into an inner chamber. And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, we pray thee, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy 32 life. So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is 33 he yet alive? he is my brother. Now the men <sup>2</sup>observed diligently, and hasted <sup>3</sup>to catch whether it were <sup>4</sup>his mind; and they said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him.
 Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he 34 caused him to come up into the chariot. And Ben-hadad said unto him, The cities which my father took from thy father I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. And I, said Ahab, will let thee go with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.
 35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said unto his fellow by the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man 36 refused to smite him. Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, 37 and slew him. Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man 38 smote him, smiting and wounding him. So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with his head-39 band over his eyes. And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king : and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle ; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man : if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver. And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, So shall thy judgement be ; thyself hast decided it. And he hastened, and took the headband away from his eyes ; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets. And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people. And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.

And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house ; and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it : or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money. Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee. And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him : for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, 6 that thou eatest no bread? And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered, 7 I will not give thee my vineyard. And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee 8 the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. So she wrote <sup>1</sup>letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, and that 9 dwelt with Naboth. And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth 10 <sup>2</sup>on high among the people: and set two men, sons of <sup>3</sup>Belial, before him, and let them bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst <sup>4</sup>curse God and the king. And then carry him out, 11 and stone him, that he die. And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who dwelt in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, according as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them. 12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth <sup>2</sup>on high among the people. And the two men, 13 sons of Belial, came in and sat before him: and the men of Belial bare witness against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did <sup>4</sup>curse God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died. 14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is 15 stoned, and is dead. And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money:

for Naboth is not alive, but dead. And it came 16 to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

And the word of the LORD came to Elijah 17 the Tishbite, saying, Arise, go down to meet 18 Ahab king of Israel, which dwelleth in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to take possession of it. And 19 thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? and thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine. And Ahab said to Elijah, 20 Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD. Behold, I will bring evil upon 21 thee, and will utterly sweep thee away, and will cut off from Ahab every man child, and him that is shut up and him that is left at large in Israel: and I will make thine house like the 22 house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and hast made Israel to sin. And of 23 Jezebel also spake the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel <sup>1</sup>by the rampart of Jezreel.
Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs 24 shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat. (But there was none 25 like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to do that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. And he did 26 very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom the LORD 27 cast out before the children of Israel.) And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and 28 went softly. And the word of the LORD came to 29 Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days: but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

22 1 And they continued three years without war 2 between Syria and Israel. <sup>1</sup>And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.
 3 And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that Ramoth-gilead is ours, and we 4 <sup>2</sup>be still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria? And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, 5 my horses as thy horses. And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray 6 thee, at the word of the LORD to-day. Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand 7 of the king. But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here besides a prophet of the LORD, that we 8 might inquire of him? And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah the son of Imlah: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.
 9 Then the king of Israel called an <sup>3</sup>officer, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imlah. Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, in <sup>1</sup>an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until they be consumed. And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak thou good. And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak. And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go up, and prosper; and the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou speak unto me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD? And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil? And he said, Therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. And the LORD said, Who shall <sup>1</sup>entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner; and another said on that manner. And there came forth <sup>2</sup>a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt entice him, and shalt prevail also: go forth, and do so. Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets; and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee. Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee? And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day, when thou shalt go <sup>3</sup>into an inner chamber to hide thyself. And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; and say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace. And Micaiah said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, <sup>4</sup>Hear, ye peoples, all of you.

So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle. Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty and two captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel. And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel; and they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out. And it came to pass, 33 when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. And a certain man 34 drew his bow <sup>1</sup>at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between <sup>2</sup>the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am sore wounded. And the battle in- 35 creased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot. And there went a 36 cry throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his country. So the king died, 37 and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. And they washed the 38 chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; (<sup>3</sup>now the harlots washed themselves there;) according unto the word of the LORD which he spake. Now the rest of the 39 acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? So Ahab 40 slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

<sup>4</sup>And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to 41 reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. Jehoshaphat was thirty and 42 five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. And he walked in all the way of 43

Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: howbeit the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. And Jehoshaphat made 44 peace with the king of Israel. Now the rest of 45 the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of 46 Judah? And the remnant of the sodomites, which remained in the days of his father Asa, 47 he put away out of the land. And there was 48 no king in Edom: a deputy was king. Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they went not; for the ships were 49 broken at Ezion-geber. Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not. <sup>1</sup>And Jehoshaphat slept 50 with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

51 Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two 52 years over Israel. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, 53 <sup>2</sup>wherein he made Israel to sin. And he served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD, the God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

AND Moab rebelled against Israel after the <sup>1</sup> death of Ahab. And Ahaziah fell down through <sup>2</sup> the lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this sickness. But the angel of the LORD said <sup>3</sup> to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? Now therefore thus saith the <sup>4</sup> LORD, Thou shalt not come down from the bed whither thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed. And the messengers <sup>5</sup> returned unto him, and he said unto them, Why is it that ye are returned? And they said unto <sup>6</sup> him, There came up a man to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from the bed whither thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And he said unto them, What <sup>7</sup> manner of man was he which came up to meet

- 8 you, and told you these words? And they answered him, He was <sup>1</sup>an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said,
- 9 It is Elijah the Tishbite. Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, behold, he <sup>2</sup>sat on the top of the hill. And he spake unto him, O man of God, the king hath said, Come down.
- 10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and
- 11 consumed him and his fifty. And again he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down
- 12 quickly. And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven,
- 13 and consumed him and his fifty. And again he sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.
- 14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and consumed the two former captains of fifty with their fifties: but now let my life be precious in
- 15 thy sight. And the angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with
- 16 him unto the king. And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down from the bed whither thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. So he died<sup>17</sup> according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram began to reign in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son. Now the rest of the acts of<sup>18</sup> Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

And it came to pass, when the LORD would<sup>1</sup> take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. And Elijah<sup>2</sup> said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me as far as Beth-el. And Elisha said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el. And the sons of the prophets<sup>3</sup> that were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to-day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace. And Elijah said unto him, Elisha,<sup>4</sup> tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho. And the sons<sup>5</sup> of the prophets that were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to-day? And he answered, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace. And Elijah said<sup>6</sup> unto him, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on. And fifty<sup>7</sup> men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood over against them afar off: and they two stood

8 by Jordan. And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that 9 they two went over on dry ground. And it came to pass, <sup>1</sup>when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let <sup>2</sup>a double portion of thy 10 spirit be upon me. And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto 11 thee; but if not, it shall not be so. And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared <sup>3</sup>a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, which parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.
 12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the <sup>4</sup>chariots of Israel and the horsemen thereof! And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in 13 two pieces. He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and 14 stood by the bank of Jordan. And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD, <sup>5</sup>the God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, they were divided hither and thither: and Elisha went over.
 15 And when the sons of the prophets which were at Jericho over against him saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves 16 to the ground before him. And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley.

sought three days, but found him not. And 18 they came back to him, while he tarried at Jericho; and he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

And the men of the city said unto Elisha, 19 Behold, we pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the land <sup>1</sup>miscarrieth. And he said, 20

And they brought it to him. And he went 21 forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast salt therein, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or <sup>2</sup>miscarrying. So the waters were healed unto this 22 day, according to the word of Elisha which he spake.

And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: 23 and as he was going up by the way, there came forth <sup>3</sup>little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head. And he looked behind 24 him and saw them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them. And he went from thence 25 to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to 1 3 reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. And he did that which was evil 2 in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his mother: for he put away the <sup>4</sup>pillar of Baal that his father had made. Nevertheless 3 he cleaved unto the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, wherewith he made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

4 Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-master; and he rendered unto the king of Israel 1 the wool of an hundred thousand lambs, and of 5 an hundred thousand rams. But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab 6 rebelled against the king of Israel. And king Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and 7 mustered all Israel. And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: I am as thou art, my people 8 as thy people, my horses as thy horses. And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom.
 9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they made a circuit of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, nor for the beasts that 10 followed them. And the king of Israel said, Alas! for the LORD hath called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of 11 Moab. But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, which poured water on 12 the hands of Elijah. And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of 13 Edom went down to him. And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab. And Elisha <sup>14</sup> said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee. But <sup>15</sup> now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him. And he said, Thus saith <sup>16</sup> the LORD, Make this valley full of trenches. For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, <sup>17</sup> neither shall ye see rain, yet that valley shall be filled with water: and ye shall drink, both ye and your cattle and your beasts. And this is <sup>18</sup> but a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every <sup>19</sup> choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all fountains of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones. And it came to pass <sup>20</sup> in the morning, about the time of offering the oblation, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water. Now when all the Moabites heard that <sup>21</sup> the kings were come up to fight against them, they <sup>1</sup>gathered themselves together, all that were able to <sup>2</sup>put on armour, and upward, and stood on the border. And they rose up early in the <sup>22</sup> morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water over against them as red as blood: and they said, This is <sup>23</sup> blood; the kings <sup>3</sup>are surely destroyed, and they have smitten each man his fellow: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil. And when they <sup>24</sup> came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: and they went forward <sup>4</sup>into the land smiting the Moabites. And they beat <sup>25</sup> down the cities; and on every good piece of land they cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the fountains of water, and felled all the good trees: until in Kir-hareseth only they left the stones thereof; howbeit 26 the slingers went about it, and smote it. And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew sword, to break through unto the king of Edom: but they could not.

 27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And <sup>1</sup>there was great wrath against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

4 1 Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead: and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my 2 two children to be bondmen. And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me; what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, 3 save a pot of oil. Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even 4 empty vessels; borrow not a few. And thou shalt go in, and shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and pour out into all those vessels; and thou shalt set aside that which is full.
 5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons; they brought the vessels 6 to her, and she poured out. And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And 7 the oil stayed. Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy sons of the rest.

And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to 8 Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread. And she said unto her husband, 9 Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by us continually. Let 10 us make, I pray thee, a little chamber <sup>1</sup>on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither. And it fell on a day, that he came 11 thither, and he turned into the chamber and lay there. And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call 12 this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him. And he said unto him, 13 Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast <sup>2</sup>been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.
And he said, What then is to be done for her? 14 And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no son, and her husband is old. And he said, Call her. 15 And when he had called her, she stood in the door. And he said, At this season, when the 16 time <sup>3</sup>cometh round, thou shalt embrace a son.
And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thine handmaid. And the woman 17 conceived, and bare a son at that season, when the time came round, as Elisha had said unto her. And when the child was grown, it fell on 18 a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers. And he said unto his father, My head, 19 my head. And he said to his servant, Carry him to his mother. And when he had taken 20 him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on 21 her knees till noon, and then died. And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

 22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the servants, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of 23 God, and come again. And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to-day? it is neither new moon nor sabbath. And she said, <sup>1</sup>It shall 24 be well. Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slacken me 25 not the riding, except I bid thee. So she went, and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel.
 And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, 26 Behold, yonder is the Shunammite: run, I pray thee, now to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is 27 well. And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. And Gehazi came near to thrust her away; but the man of God said, Let her alone: for her soul is <sup>2</sup>vexed within her; and the LORD hath hid it 28 from me, and hath not told me. Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, 29 Do not deceive me? Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face 30 of the child. And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed 31 her. And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor <sup>3</sup>hearing. Wherefore he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked. And when Elisha <sup>32</sup> was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. He went in there- <sup>33</sup> fore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the LORD. And he went up, and <sup>34</sup> lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands : and he <sup>1</sup> stretched himself upon him ; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. Then he returned, and walked in the house <sup>35</sup> once to and fro ; and went up, and <sup>1</sup> stretched himself upon him : <sup>2</sup> and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. And he <sup>36</sup> called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son. Then she <sup>37</sup> went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground ; and she took up her son, and went out.

And Elisha came again to Gilgal : and there <sup>38</sup> was a dearth in the land ; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him : and he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets. And one <sup>39</sup> went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage : for they knew them not. So <sup>40</sup> they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof. But he said, Then bring meal. <sup>41</sup> And he cast it into the pot ; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no <sup>3</sup> harm in the pot.

And there came a man from Baal-shalishah, <sup>42</sup> and brought the man of God bread of the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of corn in <sup>1</sup>his sack. And he said, Give unto the 43 people, that they may eat. And his <sup>2</sup>servant said, What, should I set this before an hundred men? But he said, Give the people, that they 44 may eat; for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and shall leave thereof. So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

5 <sup>1</sup> Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man <sup>3</sup>with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given 2 <sup>4</sup>victory unto Syria: he was also a mighty man of valour, but he was a leper. And the Syrians had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; 3 and she <sup>5</sup>waited on Naaman's wife. And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were <sup>6</sup>with the prophet that is in Samaria! then 4 would he recover him of his leprosy. And <sup>6</sup>one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus 5 said the maid that is of the land of Israel. And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand <sup>7</sup>pieces of gold, and ten changes 6 of raiment. And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, And now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover 7 him of his leprosy. And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? but consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh <sup>8</sup>a quarrel 8 against me. And it was so, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel. So Naaman came with his 9 horses and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. And Elisha sent 10 a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and <sup>1</sup>thou shalt be clean. But 11 Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and recover the leper. Are not <sup>2</sup>Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage. And his servants came near, and spake 13 unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean? Then 14 went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. And he 15 returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a <sup>3</sup>present of thy servant. But 16 he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused. And Naaman said, 17 If not, yet I pray thee let there be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth; for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD.

18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant ; when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing.

19 And he said unto him, Go in peace. So he departed from him <sup>1</sup>a little way.

20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought : as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw one running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is

22 all well ? And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from the hill country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets ; give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and

23 two changes of raiment. And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of raiment, and laid them upon two of his servants ; and they bare

24 them before him. And when he came to the <sup>2</sup>hill, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house : and he let the men go, and

25 they departed. But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi ? And he said, 26 Thy servant went no whither. And he said unto him, <sup>3</sup>Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee ? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards and vineyards, and sheep and oxen, and menservants and maidservants? The leprosy therefore of Na-<sup>27</sup>aman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

And the sons of the prophets said unto <sup>1</sup> 6 Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell before thee is too strait for us. Let us go, we <sup>2</sup> pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye. And one said, Be content, I pray thee, and go <sup>3</sup> with thy servants. And he answered, I will go. So he went with them. And when they came <sup>4</sup> to Jordan, they cut down wood. But as one was <sup>5</sup> felling a beam, the axe-head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, my master! for it was borrowed. And the man of God said, <sup>6</sup> Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither, and <sup>1</sup>made the iron to swim. And he said, <sup>7</sup> Take it up to thee. So he put out his hand, and took it.

Now the king of Syria warred against Israel; <sup>8</sup> and he took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my <sup>2</sup>camp. And <sup>9</sup> the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are coming down. And <sup>10</sup> the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of; and he saved himself there, not once nor twice. And <sup>11</sup> the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of Israel? And one of his <sup>12</sup> servants said, Nay, my lord, O king: but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bed-13 chamber. And he said, Go and see where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and 15 compassed the city about. And when the <sup>1</sup>serv- <sup>1</sup> Or, minister ant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host with horses and chariots was round about the city. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how 16 shall we do? And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be 17 with them. And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see.
And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round 18 about Elisha. And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this <sup>2</sup>people, I pray thee, with blindness. <sup>2</sup> Heb. nation.
And he smote them with blindness according 19 to the word of Elisha. And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. And he led them to Samaria.
20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, 21 they were in the midst of Samaria. And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them? shall I 22 smite them? And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

And he prepared great provision for them : and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria. And there was a great famine in Samaria : and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore <sup>1</sup>pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove's dung for five <sup>1</sup>pieces of silver. And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king. And he said, <sup>2</sup>If the LORD do not help thee, whence shall I help thee ? out of the threshing-floor, or out of the winepress ? And the king said unto her, What aileth thee ? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, and we will eat my son to-morrow. So we boiled my son, and did eat him : and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him : and she hath hid her son. And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes ; (now he was passing by upon the wall ;) and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh. Then he said, God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day. But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him ; and the king sent a man from before him : but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away mine head ? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and <sup>3</sup>hold the door fast against him : is not the sound of

- 33 his master's feet behind him? And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, Behold, this evil is of the LORD; why should I wait for the LORD
- 7 1 any longer? And Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD: thus saith the LORD, To-morrow about this time shall a <sup>1</sup>measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for 2 a shekel, in the gate of Samaria. Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.
- 3 Now there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to 4 another, Why sit we here until we die? If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill 5 us, we shall but die. And they rose up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the outermost part of the camp of the Syrians, behold, there was no 6 man there. For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come 7 upon us. Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled 8 for their life. And when these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and they came back, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it. Then they said one to another, <sup>9</sup> We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, <sup>1</sup>punishment will overtake us: now therefore come, let us go and tell the king's household. So they came and called unto the <sup>10</sup> <sup>2</sup>porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but the horses tied, and the asses tied, and the tents as they were. And <sup>3</sup>he called the <sup>11</sup> porters; and they told it to the king's household within. And the king arose in the night, and said <sup>12</sup> unto his servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city. And one of <sup>13</sup> his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left <sup>4</sup>in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it; behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are consumed :) and let us send and see. They <sup>14</sup> took therefore two chariots with horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see. And they went after them unto <sup>15</sup> Jordan: and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king. And the people went out, and <sup>16</sup> spoiled the camp of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the captain on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate : and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down 18 to him. And it came to pass, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to-morrow about this 19 time in the gate of Samaria ; and that captain answered the man of God, and said, Now, be-heaven, might such a thing be ? and he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but unto him ; for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

8 1 Now Elisha had spoken unto the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn : for the LORD hath called for a famine ; and it shall also come 2 upon the land seven years. And the woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God : and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven 3 years. And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines : and she went forth to cry unto 4 the king for her house and for her land. Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.
5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored to life him that was dead, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord,

O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life. And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain <sup>1</sup>officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither. And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this sickness? So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present <sup>2</sup>with him, <sup>3</sup>even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this sickness? And Elisha said unto him, Go, <sup>4</sup>say unto him, Thou shalt surely recover; howbeit the LORD hath shewed me that he shall surely die. And he settled his countenance stedfastly upon him, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their women with child. And Hazael said, But what is thy servant, which is but a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria. Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou

16 And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, <sup>1</sup>Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat

17 king of Judah began to reign. <sup>2</sup>Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; 18 and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for he had <sup>3</sup>the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he did that which was

19 evil in the sight of the LORD. Howbeit the LORD would not destroy Judah, for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give unto 20 him a lamp <sup>4</sup>for his children alway. In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, 21 and made a king over themselves. Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled to 22 their tents. So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, unto this day. Then did Libnah

23 revolt at the same time. And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the 24 kings of Judah? And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

25 <sup>5</sup>In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram

26 king of Judah begin to reign. Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah the <sup>6</sup>daughter of Omri king of Israel. And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the son in law of the house of Ahab. And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram. And king Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said unto him, Gird up thy loins, and take this vial of oil in thine hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead. And when thou comest thither, look out there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an inner chamber. Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not. So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain. And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel. And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel. For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab every man child, and him that is shut up and him that is left at large in Israel. And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled. Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man and what his talk was. And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then they hastened, and took every man his garment, and put it under him <sup>1</sup>on the top of the stairs, and blew the trumpet, saying, Jehu is king. So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria: but king <sup>2</sup>Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If this be your mind, then let none escape and go forth out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel. So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram. Now the watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, <sup>3</sup>Is it peace? So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again. Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously. And Joram said, <sup>1</sup>Make ready. And they made ready his chariot. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite. And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many? And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah. And Jehu <sup>2</sup>drew his bow with his full strength, and smote Joram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot. Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD <sup>3</sup>laid this burden upon him; Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this <sup>4</sup>plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the

- 27 LORD. <sup>1</sup>But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot: and they smote him at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam.
- 28 And he fled to Megiddo, and died there. And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David.
- 29 And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.
- 30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and tired
- 31 her head, and looked out at the window. And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, <sup>2</sup>Is it <sup>2</sup>Or, Is it well
- 32 peace, thou Zimri, thy master's murderer? And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked
- 33 out to him two or three eunuchs. And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under
- 34 foot. And when he was come in, he did eat and drink; and he said, See now to this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's
- 35 daughter. And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and
- 36 the feet, and the palms of her hands. Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall the dogs eat
- 37 the flesh of Jezebel: and the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.
- 10 <sup>1</sup> Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, even the elders, and unto them that brought up the sons of Ahab, saying, And now as soon as this letter cometh 2 to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour; look ye out the 3 best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house. But they were exceedingly 4 afraid, and said, Behold, the two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand? And 5 he that was over the household, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and they that brought up the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any man king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes. Then 6 he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be on my side, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to-morrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up. And it 7 came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew them, even seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them unto him to Jezreel. And there came a messenger, and told him, 8 saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning. And it came to pass in the morning, 9 that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who smote all these? Know now that there shall 10 fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the

- LORD, which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that 11 which he spake by his servant Elijah. So Jehu smote all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him 12 none remaining. And he arose and departed, and went to Samaria. And as he was at the 13 <sup>1</sup>shearing house of the shepherds in the way, <sup>1</sup>Or, house of gathering Jehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah: and we go down to salute the children of the king 14 and the children of the queen. And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the <sup>2</sup>pit of the <sup>1</sup>shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he 15 any of them. And when he was departed thence, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him: and he saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the 16 chariot. And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride 17 in his chariot. And when he came to Samaria, he smote all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake to Elijah.
18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little; but 19 Jehu shall serve him much. Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshippers, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But

Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal. And Jehu <sup>20</sup> said, Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it. And Jehu sent through all <sup>21</sup> Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another. And he said unto him that was over the vestry, <sup>22</sup> Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments. And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of <sup>23</sup> Rechab, into the house of Baal; and he said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only. And they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt <sup>24</sup> offerings. Now Jehu had appointed him four-score men without, and said, If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, his life shall be for the life of him. And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an <sup>25</sup> end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the <sup>1</sup>guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. And they brought <sup>26</sup> forth the <sup>2</sup>pillars that were in the house of Baal, and burned them. And they brake down the <sup>27</sup> pillar of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it a draught house, unto this day. Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel. <sup>28</sup> Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, <sup>3</sup>wherewith he made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan. And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast <sup>30</sup>

<sup>32</sup> In those days the LORD began to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the coasts

<sup>33</sup> of Israel; from Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the <sup>34</sup> valley of Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

 watch of the house, and be a barrier. And the 7 two companies of you, even all that go forth on the sabbath, shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king. And ye shall 8 compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he that cometh within the ranks, let him be slain: and be ye did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men, those that were to come in on the sabbath, with those that were to go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. And the 10 priest delivered to the captains over hundreds the spears and shields that had been king Da-

 And the guard stood, every man with his 11 weapons in his hand, from the right <sup>1</sup>side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, by the king round about. Then he brought out the king's son, 12 and <sup>2</sup>put the crown upon him, and gave him the Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth between the ranks; and him that followeth her slay with the sword: for the priest said, Let 16 her not be slain in the house of the LORD. So they made way for her; and she went by the way of the horses' entry to the king's house:

 and there was she slain.

17 And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD'S people; between the king 18 also and the people. And all the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest ap-way of the gate of the guard unto the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

 20 So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword at the king's house.

 Jehoash to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah 2 of Beer-sheba. And Jehoash did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him.
 3 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

And Jehoash said to the priests, All the <sup>4</sup> money of the hallowed things that is brought into the house of the LORD, <sup>1</sup>in current money, <sup>2</sup>the money of the persons for whom each man is rated, and all the money that it cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD, let the priests take it to them, every man <sup>5</sup> from his acquaintance : and they shall repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found. But it was so, that in the three <sup>6</sup> and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the <sup>7</sup> priest, and for the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house ? now therefore take no more money from your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house. And the priests consented that <sup>8</sup> they should take no more money from the people, neither repair the breaches of the house. But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored <sup>9</sup> a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD : and the priests that kept the <sup>3</sup>door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD. And it <sup>10</sup> was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's <sup>4</sup>scribe and the high priest came up, and they <sup>5</sup>put up in bags and told the money that was found in the house of the LORD. - house of the LORD, and for all that <sup>1</sup>was laid out <sup>1</sup> Heb. went 13 for the house to repair it. But there were not forth. made for the house of the LORD cups of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was 14 brought into the house of the LORD: for they gave that to them that did the work, and re-15 paired therewith the house of the LORD. Moreover they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to give to them that did the work: for they dealt faithfully.
16 The money for the guilt offerings, and the money for the sin offerings, was not brought into the house of the LORD: it was the priests'.
17 Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael 18 set his face to go up to Jerusalem. And Je-hoash king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and of the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went 19 away from Jerusalem. Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings 20 of Judah? And his servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and smote Joash at the house of Millo, on the way that goeth down to Silla.
21 For Jozacar the son of Shimeath, and Jehoza-bad the son of Shomer, his servants, smote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.
- 13 I In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years. And he <sup>2</sup> did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, wherewith he made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom. And the anger of <sup>3</sup> the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, <sup>1</sup>continually. And Jehoahaz besought <sup>4</sup> the LORD, and the LORD hearkened unto him: for he saw the oppression of Israel, how that the king of Syria oppressed them. (And the <sup>5</sup> LORD gave Israel a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents, as beforetime. Nevertheless they departed not <sup>6</sup> from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, wherewith he made Israel to sin, but <sup>2</sup>walked therein: and there remained the Asherah also in Samaria.) For he left not to Jehoahaz of the <sup>7</sup> people save fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them like the dust <sup>3</sup>in threshing. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, <sup>8</sup> and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jehoahaz slept with his <sup>9</sup> fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king <sup>10</sup> of Judah began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years. And he did that which was evil in <sup>11</sup> the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, wherewith he made Israel to sin: but he walked therein. 13 fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died: and Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over <sup>1</sup>him, and said, <sup>2</sup>My father, my father, the <sup>3</sup>chariots of Israel and the horsemen thereof! And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows: and he took unto him bow and arrows. And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand upon the bow: and he put his hand upon it. And Elisha laid his hands upon the king's hands. And he said, Open the window eastward: and he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot: and he shot. And he said, The LORD'S arrow of <sup>4</sup>victory, even the arrow of <sup>4</sup>victory <sup>5</sup>over Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou have consumed them. And he said, Take the arrows: and he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground: and he smote thrice, and stayed. And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.

20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at 21 the coming in of the year. And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that, behold, they spied a band; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: and <sup>6</sup>as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

And Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel <sup>22</sup> all the days of Jehoahaz. But the LORD was <sup>23</sup> gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence <sup>1</sup>as yet. And Hazael <sup>24</sup> king of Syria died; and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his stead. And Jehoash the son <sup>25</sup> of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times did Joash smite him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz <sup>1</sup> 14 king of Israel began Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah to reign. He was twenty and <sup>2</sup> five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. And he did that which was right in <sup>3</sup> the eyes of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all that Joash his father had done. Howbeit the high places were <sup>4</sup> not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. And it came <sup>5</sup> to pass, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he slew his servants which had slain the king his father: but the children of <sup>6</sup> the murderers he put not to death: according to that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin. He <sup>7</sup> slew of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand, and took <sup>3</sup>Sela by war, and called the name of it Joktheel, unto this day.

- 8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the
- 9 face. And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The <sup>1</sup>thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.
- 10 Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thine heart hath lifted thee up: glory thereof, and abide at home; for why shouldest thou <sup>2</sup>meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou,
- 11 and Judah with thee? But Amaziah would not hear. So Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which
- 12 belongeth to Judah. And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man
- 13 to his tent. And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate,
- 14 four hundred cubits. And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned
- 15 to Samaria. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the

 And they made a conspiracy against him in 19 Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.
 And they brought him upon horses: and he 20 was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. And all the people of Judah took 21

In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of 23 Joash king of Judah Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years. And he did that 24 which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, wherewith he made Israel to sin.
 He restored the border of Israel from the enter- 25 ing in of Hamath unto the sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of Gath-hepher. For the LORD saw 26 the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for there was none shut up nor left at large, neither was there any helper for Israel. And 27 the LORD said not that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven: but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash. Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, 28 and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jero- 29 boam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zechariah his son reigned in his stead.

15 <sup>1</sup> In the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began <sup>1</sup>Azariah son of Amaziah <sup>2</sup>king of Judah to reign. <sup>2</sup>Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's <sup>3</sup>name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had <sup>4</sup>done. Howbeit the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>3</sup>And the LORD smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a <sup>4</sup>several house. And Jotham the king's son was over the household, <sup>6</sup>judging the people of the land. Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles <sup>7</sup>of the kings of Judah? And Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

<sup>8</sup> In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah did Zechariah the son of Jeroboam <sup>9</sup>reign over Israel in Samaria six months. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, <sup>10</sup>wherewith he made Israel to sin. And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and <sup>11</sup>reigned in his stead. generation shall sit upon the throne of Israel. And so it came to pass.

Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in <sup>13</sup> the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah king of Judah ; and he reigned the space of a month in Samaria. And Menahem the son of Gadi went <sup>14</sup> up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead. Now <sup>15</sup> the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. Then Menahem smote Tiphseh, and <sup>16</sup> all that were therein, and the borders thereof, from Tirzah : because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it ; and all the women therein that were with child he ripped up.

In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah <sup>17</sup> king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria. And he did that which was evil in <sup>18</sup> the sight of the LORD : he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, wherewith he made Israel to sin. There <sup>19</sup> came against the land Pul the king of Assyria ; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. And Menahem <sup>20</sup> exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land. Now the rest of the acts of <sup>21</sup> Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Menahem slept with his <sup>22</sup> fathers ; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

- 23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.
- 24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, wherewith he made
- 25 Israel to sin. And Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the <sup>1</sup>castle of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites: and he slew
- 26 him, and reigned in his stead. Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
- 27 In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned
- 28 twenty years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, where-
- 29 with he made Israel to sin. In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maacah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and
- 30 he carried them captive to Assyria. And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twenty-
- 31 tieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
- 32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son
- 33 of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. <sup>2</sup>Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. And he did that which <sup>34</sup> was right in the eyes of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. Howbeit the high places were not taken <sup>35</sup> away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD. Now the rest <sup>36</sup> of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? In those days the <sup>37</sup> LORD began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah. And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was <sup>38</sup> buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of <sup>1</sup> 16 Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. Twenty years old was <sup>2</sup> Ahaz when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not that which was right in the eyes of the LORD his God, like David his father. But he walked in <sup>3</sup> the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel. And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high <sup>4</sup> places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah <sup>5</sup> son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. At that time Rezin <sup>6</sup> king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drave the Jews from <sup>1</sup>Elath: and the <sup>2</sup>Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there, unto this day. <sup>3</sup>So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser <sup>7</sup> king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant and thy son : come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the 8 king of Israel, which rise up against me. And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to 9 the king of Assyria. And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him : and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and slew 10 Rezin. And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at Damascus : and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the work-11 manship thereof. And Urijah the priest built an altar : according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so did Urijah the priest make it against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar : and the king drew near 13 unto the altar, and <sup>1</sup>offered thereon. And he burnt his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of <sup>2</sup>his peace offerings, upon the altar.
14 And the brasen altar, which was before the LORD, he brought from the forefront of the house, from between his altar and the house of 15 altar. And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meal offering, and the king's burnt offering, and his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meal offering, and their drink offerings ; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: but the brasen altar shall be for me to inquire by. Thus did Urijah <sup>16</sup> the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded. And king Ahaz cut off the <sup>1</sup>borders <sup>17</sup> of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the brasen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stone. And the <sup>2</sup>covered way <sup>18</sup> for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, turned he <sup>3</sup>unto the house of the LORD, because of the king of Assyria. Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz <sup>19</sup> which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah <sup>1</sup> 17 began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel, and reigned nine years. And he did that which was evil in the sight <sup>2</sup> of the LORD, yet not as the kings of Israel that were before him. Against him came up Shal- <sup>3</sup> maneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and brought him presents. And the <sup>4</sup> king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and offered no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison. Then the king of Assyria came up <sup>5</sup> throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. In the ninth <sup>6</sup> year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away unto Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and in Habor, on the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. And it was so, because the children of Israel <sup>7</sup> had sinned against the LORD their God, which brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and 8 had feared other gods, and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of 9 the kings of Israel, which they <sup>1</sup>made. And <sup>1</sup>Or, practised the children of Israel did secretly things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the 10 fenced city. And they set them up <sup>2</sup>pillars <sup>2</sup>Or, obelisks and Asherim upon every high hill, and under 11 every green tree: and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the nations whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD 12 to anger: and they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do 13 this thing. Yet the LORD testified unto Israel, and unto Judah, by the hand of every prophet, and of every seer, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you 14 by the hand of my servants the prophets. Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardened their neck, like to the neck of their fathers, who believed not in the LORD their God.

15 And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified unto them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the nations that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged 16 them that they should not do like them. And they forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only. Also Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they <sup>1</sup>made. And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight. For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam <sup>2</sup>drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin. And the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he spake by the hand of all his servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria, unto this day.

And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Avva, and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. And so it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them. Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast carried away, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know 27 not the manner of the God of the land. Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God 28 of the land. So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should 29 fear the LORD. Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they 30 dwelt. And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, 31 and the men of Hamath made Ashima, and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the <sup>1</sup>gods of 32 Sepharvaim. So they feared the LORD, and made unto them from among themselves priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in 33 the houses of the high places. They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they 34 had been carried away. Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law or after the commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel; 35 with whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor 36 serve them, nor sacrifice to them: but the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and unto him shall ye bow yourselves, and to him shall ye sacrifice: and the statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods: and the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods: but the LORD your God shall ye fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner. So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images; their children likewise, and their children's children, as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. <sup>1</sup>Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah. And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. He removed the high places, and brake the pillars, and cut down the Asherah: and he brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made; for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it; and <sup>2</sup>he called it <sup>3</sup>Nehushtan. He trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among them that were before him. For he clave to the LORD, he departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses. And the LORD was with him; 7 whithersoever he went forth he prospered: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and 8 served him not. He smote the Philistines unto Gaza and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

9 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and 10 besieged it. And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of 11 Israel, Samaria was taken. And the king of Assyria carried Israel away unto Assyria, and put them in Halah, and in Habor, on the river 12 of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes: because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it.

13 <sup>1</sup>Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did <sup>2</sup>Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took 14 them. And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents 15 of gold. And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and 16 in the treasures of the king's house. At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the <sup>3</sup>pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had over-17 laid, and gave it to the king of Assyria. And the king of Assyria sent <sup>4</sup>Tartan and <sup>4</sup>Rab-saris and <sup>4</sup>Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army unto Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the high way of the fuller's field. And when they had <sup>18</sup> called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna<sup>h</sup> the <sup>1</sup>scribe, and Joah <sup>19</sup> the son of Asaph the <sup>2</sup>recorder. And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? Thou sayest, but they are but <sup>3</sup>vain <sup>20</sup> words, There is counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou hast rebelled against me? Now, behold, thou trustest <sup>21</sup> upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him. But if ye <sup>22</sup> say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? Now therefore, I pray <sup>23</sup> thee, <sup>4</sup>give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. How then canst thou turn away the <sup>24</sup> face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? Am I now come up <sup>25</sup> without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it. Then said Eliakim <sup>26</sup> the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna<sup>h</sup>, and Joah, unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the <sup>5</sup>Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

 27 But Rabshakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, 28 and to drink their own water with you? Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear ye the word of the great king, the king of Assyria.
 29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he shall not be able to deliver you out 30 of his hand: neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into 31 the hand of the king of Assyria. Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, 1 Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters 32 of his own cistern; until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will 33 deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the 34 king of Assyria? Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? have they delivered 35 Samaria out of my hand? Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD 36 should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, 37 saying, Answer him not. Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah <sup>1</sup> 19 heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. And he sent Eliakim, which was <sup>2</sup> over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. And <sup>3</sup> they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of contumely: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. It may be the LORD thy God will hear all the <sup>4</sup> words of Rabshakeh, <sup>1</sup>whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left. So the servants of <sup>5</sup> king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. And Isaiah <sup>6</sup> said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he <sup>7</sup> shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

with the king of Assyria hath sent him*

So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king <sup>8</sup> of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. And <sup>9</sup> when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, <sup>10</sup> saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by <sup>1</sup>destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered? <sup>1</sup> Heb. devoting them.

13 which were in Telassar? Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread

15 it before the LORD. And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD, the God of Israel, that <sup>2</sup>sittest upon the cherubim, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and <sup>2</sup> Or, dwestest between

17 sent him to reproach the living God. Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid

18 waste the nations and their lands, and have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone;

19 therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O LORD our God, save thou us, I beseech thee, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know <sup>3</sup>that thou art the LORD God, even thou only. <sup>3</sup> Or, that thou, O LORD, art God 20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard thee.

 pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps. Therefore their in- <sup>26</sup> habitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded ; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it

 And this shall be the sign unto thee : ye shall <sup>29</sup> eat this year that which groweth of itself, and in the second year that which springeth of the same ; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.
<sup>6</sup> Heb. the escaped of the house of Judah that remain. And <sup>6</sup>the remnant that is escaped of the house <sup>30</sup> of Judah shall again take root downward, and

- 31 bear fruit upward. For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of mount Zion they that shall escape: the zeal of <sup>1</sup>the LORD shall 32 perform this. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come unto this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor 33 cast a mount against it. By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall 34 not come unto this city, saith the LORD. For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.
- 35 <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass that night, that the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when men arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.
- 36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and 37 went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that <sup>3</sup>Adrammelech and Sharezer smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.
- 20 1 <sup>4</sup>In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death.
 And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, 2 and not live. Then he turned his face to the 3 wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good 4 in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone <sup>5</sup>out into <sup>6</sup>the middle part of the city, that the word of 5 the LORD came to him, saying, Turn again, and say to Hezekiah the <sup>7</sup>prince of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears : behold, I will heal thee : on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD. And <sup>6</sup> I will add unto thy days fifteen years ; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria ; and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. And Isaiah said, Take a cake of figs. <sup>7</sup> And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, <sup>8</sup> What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up unto the house of the LORD the third day ? And Isaiah said, This <sup>9</sup> shall be the sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken : <sup>10</sup> shall the shadow go forward ten <sup>2</sup> steps, or go back ten steps ? And Hezekiah answered, <sup>10</sup> It is a light thing for the shadow to decline ten steps : nay, but let the shadow return backward ten steps. And Isaiah the prophet cried unto <sup>11</sup> the LORD : and he brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the <sup>3</sup> dial of Ahaz.

15 from a far country, even from Babylon. And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my 16 treasures that I have not shewed them. And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of 17 the LORD. Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith 18 the LORD. And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace 19 of the king of Babylon. Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, Is it not so, if peace and truth shall be in my days?
 20 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the 21 kings of Judah? <sup>1</sup>And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

xxxii. 33.

21 <sup>1</sup> <sup>2</sup>Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned five and fifty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was 2 Hephzi-bah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the 3 children of Israel. For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as did Ahab king of Israel, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.
 4 And he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD said, In Jerusalem will I put 5 my name. And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. And he made his son to pass through 6 the fire, and practised augury, and used enchantments, and <sup>1</sup>dealt with them that had familiar spirits, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. And he set the graven image of 7 Asherah, that he had made, in the house of which the LORD said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever: neither will I cause the 8 feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them. But they 9 hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do that which is evil more than did the nations, whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel. And the LORD spake by his servants 10 the prophets, saying, Because Manasseh king of 11 Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols: therefore thus saith 12 the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I bring such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle. And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of 13 Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. And I will cast off the remnant of mine inherit- 14 ance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; because they have 15 done that which is evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the 17 sight of the LORD. Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of 18 the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>1</sup>And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19 Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Meshul-20 lemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the 21 LORD, as did Manasseh his father. And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and 22 worshipped them: and he forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of 23 the LORD. And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and put the king to death in his 24 own house. But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son 25 king in his stead. Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
26 And he was buried in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

22 <sup>1</sup> Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jedidah 2 the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of 3 king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, Go up to Hilkiah 4 the high priest, that he may sum the money which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the <sup>1</sup>door have gathered of the people: and let them deliver it into the 5 hand of the workmen that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the workmen which are in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house; unto 6 the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons; and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the house. Howbeit there was no 7 reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand; for they dealt faithfully. And Hilkiah the high priest said 8 unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD.
And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan, and he read it. And Shaphan the scribe came 9 to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have <sup>2</sup>emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen that have the oversight of the house of the LORD.
And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, 10 Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book.
And Shaphan read it before the king. And it 11 came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes. And the king commanded Hilkiah the 12 priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and 14 all that which is <sup>1</sup>written concerning us. So Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the <sup>2</sup>second

And the king went up to the house of the 2 LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD. And he put down the <sup>5</sup>idolatrous 5 priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the <sup>6</sup>planets, and to all the host of heaven. And he brought 6

he brake down the houses of the <sup>1</sup>sodomites, that were in the house of the LORD, where the 8 women wove <sup>2</sup>hangings for the Asherah. And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba ; and he brake down the high places of the gates that were at the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.
 9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they did eat unleavened bread among their 10 brethren. And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the <sup>3</sup>children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to 11 pass through the fire to Molech. And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in the precincts ; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.
 12 And the altars that were on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king break down, and <sup>4</sup>beat them down from thence, and cast the dust of them 13 into the brook Kidron. And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of <sup>5</sup>corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of 14 Ammon, did the king defile. And he brake in pieces the <sup>6</sup>pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and filled their places with the bones of men.

Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, and the <sup>15</sup> high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he brake down; and he burned the high place and stamped it small to powder, and burned the Asherah. And as <sup>16</sup> Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount; and he sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things. Then he said, What monument is that <sup>17</sup> which I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.
 And he said, Let him be; let no man move his <sup>18</sup> bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria.
 And all the houses also of the high places that <sup>19</sup> were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el. And he <sup>20</sup> slew all the priests of the high places that were there, upon the altars, and burned men's bones upon them; and he returned to Jerusalem.

And the king commanded all the people, say- <sup>21</sup> ing, Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant. Surely there was not kept such a <sup>22</sup> passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, <sup>2</sup>nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; but in <sup>23</sup> over them that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might <sup>1</sup>confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilki-ah

25 the priest found in the house of the LORD. And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him

26 arose there any like him. Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations that

27 Manasseh had provoked him withal. And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name

28 shall be there. Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of

29 Judah? <sup>2</sup>In his days Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he slew him at Megiddo,

30 when he had seen him. And his servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. <sup>3</sup>And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's

31 stead. Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did that which was evil in <sup>32</sup> the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. And Pharaoh-necoh put him <sup>33</sup> in bands at Riblah in the land of Hamath, <sup>1</sup>that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a <sup>2</sup>tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. And Pharaoh-necoh <sup>34</sup> made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim: but he took Jehoahaz away; and he came to Egypt, and died there. And Je- <sup>35</sup> hoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Pharaoh-necoh.

<sup>3</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old <sup>36</sup> when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of <sup>37</sup> the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of <sup>1</sup> 24 Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. And the LORD sent against <sup>2</sup> him bands of the Chaldeans, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his servants the prophets. Surely at the <sup>3</sup> commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did; and also for the innocent blood that he shed; <sup>4</sup> for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood: and

5 the LORD would not pardon. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles 6 of the kings of Judah? So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned 7 in his stead. And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken, from the brook of Egypt unto the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem three months: and his mother's name was Ne-hushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had 10 done. At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, 11 and the city was besieged. And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came unto the city, 12 while his servants were besieging it; and Je-hoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his <sup>1</sup>officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth 13 year of his reign. And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the 14 LORD, as the LORD had said. And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, save the poorest sort of the 15 people of the land. And he carried away Je-hoiachin to Babylon; and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his <sup>1</sup>officers, and the

<sup>3</sup> Zedekiah was twenty and one years old <sup>18</sup> when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was <sup>4</sup> Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did that which was evil in <sup>19</sup> the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. For through the anger <sup>20</sup> of the LORD did it come to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence: and Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. <sup>5</sup> And it came to pass in the <sup>1</sup> 25 ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about. So <sup>2</sup> the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. On the ninth day of the <sup>3</sup> fourth month the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. Then a breach was made in the city, and <sup>4</sup> all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden: (now the Chaldeans were against the city round about :) and the king went by the way of the Arabah. But the army of the <sup>5</sup> Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army was scattered from him. Then they took the <sup>6</sup>

king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they <sup>1</sup>gave judgement upon him. And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

8 Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem: and he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burnt he with fire. And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about. And the residue of the people that were left in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away captive. But the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen. 13 And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases and the brasen sea that were in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldeans break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon. And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. And the firepans, and the basons; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away. The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; the brass of all these vessels was without weight. The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a chapter of brass was upon it: and the height of the chapiter was three cubits; with network and pomegranates upon the chapiter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with network. And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the <sup>1</sup>door: and out of the city he took an <sup>2</sup>officer that was set over the men of war; and five men of them that saw the king's face, which were found in the city; and the <sup>3</sup>scribe, the captain of the host, which mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the city. And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. And as for the people that were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor.

<sup>4</sup>Now when all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. And Gedaliah sware to them and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not because of the servants of the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. <sup>5</sup>But it came to pass in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of

Elishama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans that were with 26 him at Mizpah. And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces, arose, and came to Egypt : for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

27 <sup>1</sup>And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah 28 out of prison ; and he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that 29 were with him in Babylon. And he changed his prison garments, and did eat bread before 30 him continually all the days of his life. And for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him of the king, every day a portion, all the days of his life.

 19 and Ardon. And Azubah died, and Caleb took 20 unto him Ephrath, which bare him Hur. And 21 Hur begat Uri, and Uri begat Bezalel. And afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead; whom he took to wife when he was threescore years old; and she 22 bare him Segub. And Segub begat Jair, who had three and twenty cities in the land of Gilead.
 23 And Geshur and Aram took <sup>5</sup>the towns of Jair from them, with Kenath, and the <sup>6</sup>villages thereof Tekoa. And the sons of Jerahmeel the first- 25 born of Hezron were Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, Ahijah. And 26 Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam. And 27 the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker. And the sons of 28 Onam were Shammai, and Jada: and the sons of Shammai; Nadab, and Abishur. And the 29 name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail; and she bare him Ahban, and Molid. And the sons 30 of Nadab; Seled, and Appaim: but Seled died without <sup>1</sup>children. And the sons of Appaim; 31 Ishi. And the sons of Ishi; Sheshan. And the sons of Sheshan; Ahlai. And the sons 32 of Jada the brother of Shammai; Jether, and Jonathan: and Jether died without <sup>1</sup>children.

 And the sons of Jonathan; Peleth, and Zaza. 33 These were the sons of Jerahmeel. Now She- 34 shan had no sons, but daughters. And Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha. And Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha 35 his servant to wife; and she bare him Attai.
 And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat 36 Zabad; and Zabad begat Ephlal, and Ephlal 37 begat Obed; and Obed begat Jehu, and Jehu 38 begat Azariah; and Azariah begat Helez, and 39 Helez begat Eleasah; and Eleasah begat Sis- 40 mai, and Sismai begat Shallum; and Shallum 41 begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Eli-

 47 Haran begat Gazez. And the sons of Jahdai ; Regem, and Jotham, and Geshan, and Pelet, 48 and Ephah, and Shaaph. Maacah, Caleb's concubine, bare Sheber and Tirhanah. She bare 49 also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbena, and the father of Gibeas ; 50 and the daughter of Caleb was Achsah. These were the sons of Caleb ; the <sup>1</sup>son of Hur, the first-born of Ephrathah, Shobal the father of Kiriath-51 gearim ; Salma the father of Beth-lehem, Hareph the father of Beth-gader. And Shobal the father 52 of Kiriath-gearim had sons ; Haroeh, half of the Menuhoth. And the families of Kiriath-gearim ; 53 the Ithrites, and the Puthites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraitites ; of them came the 54 Zorathites and the Eshtaolites. The sons of Salma ; Beth-lehem, and the Netophathites, Atroth-beth-Joab, and half of the Manahathites, 55 the Zorites. And the families of scribes which dwelt at Jabez ; the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, the Sucathites. These are the Kenites that came of Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.
- 3 <sup>1</sup> Now these were the sons of David, which were born unto him in Hebron : the firstborn, Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess ; the second, <sup>2</sup> Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess ; the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur ; the fourth, Adonijah
<sup>4</sup> Six were born unto him in Hebron ; and there he reigned seven years and six months : and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years.

 Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia; and Elishama, 8 and Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine. All these 9 were the sons of David, beside the sons of the concubines; and Tamar was their sister. And 10 Solomon's son was Rehoboam, Abijah his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son; Joram his 11 son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son; Amaziah 12 his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son; Ahaz 13 his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son; Amon his son, Josiah his son. And the sons 14, 15 of Josiah; the firstborn Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum. And the sons of Jehoiakim: Jeconiah 16 his son, Zedekiah his son. And the sons 17 of Jeconiah, <sup>1</sup>the captive; Shealtiel his son, and Malchiram, and Pedaiah, and Shenazzar, 18 Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah. And the 19 sons of Pedaiah; Zerubbabel, and Shimei: and the <sup>2</sup>sons of Zerubbabel; Meshullam, and Hananiah; and Shelomith was their sister: and Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berechiah, and 20 Hasadiah, Jushab-hesed, five. And the <sup>2</sup>sons 21 of Hananiah; Pelatiah, and Jeshaiah: the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shecaniah. And the 22 sons of Shecaniah; Shemaiah: and the sons of Shemaiah; Hattush, and Igal, and Bariah, and Neariah, and Shaphat, six. And the <sup>2</sup>sons 23 of Neariah; Elioenai, and Hizkiah, and Azrikam, three. And the sons of Elioenai; Hodaviah, 24 and Eliashib, and Pelaiah, and Akkub, and Johanan, and Delaiah, and Anani, seven.

The sons of Judah; Perez, Hezron, and 1 4 Carmi, and Hur, and Shobal. And Reaiah the 2 son of Shobal begat Jahath; and Jahath begat Ahumai and Lahad. These are the families the father of Etam; Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash: and the name of their sister was 4 Hazzelponi: and Penuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, 5 the father of Beth-lehem. And Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and 6 Naarah. And Naarah bare him Ahuzzam, and Hepher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari. These 7 were the sons of Naarah. And the sons of 8 Helah were Zereth, <sup>1</sup>Izhar, and Ethnan. And Hakkoz begat Anub, and Zobebah, and the 9 families of Aharhel the son of Harum. And Jabez was more honourable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, 10 Because I bare him with sorrow. And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my border, and that thine hand might be with me, and that thou wouldest keep me from evil, that it be not to my sorrow! And God granted him 11 that which he requested. And Chelub the brother of Shuhah begat Mehir, which was 12 the father of Eshton. And Eshton begat Beth-rapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of 13 <sup>2</sup>Ir-nahash. These are the men of Recah. And the sons of Kenaz; Othniel, and Seraiah: and 14 the sons of Othniel; Hathath. And Meonothai begat Ophrah: and Seraiah begat Joab the father of <sup>3</sup>Ge-harashim; for they were craftsmen.

 15 And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh; Iru, Elah, and Naam: and the sons of Elah; 16 and Kenaz. And the sons of Jehallelel; Ziph, 17 and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel. And the sons of Ezrah; Jether, and Mered, and Ephraim, and Jalon: and she bare Miriam, and Shammai, and mentioned by name were princes in their families: 39 and their fathers' houses increased greatly. And they went to the entering in of Gedor, even unto the east side of the valley, to seek pasture 40 for their flocks. And they found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceable; for they that dwelt there afore-

Now these are their dwelling places according 54 to their encampments in their borders: to the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites, for theirs was the <sup>1</sup>first lot, to them they 55 gave Hebron in the land of Judah, and the suburbs thereof round about it; but the fields of 56 the city, and the villages thereof, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh. And <sup>2</sup>to the sons 57 of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge, Hebron; Libnah also with her suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa with her suburbs; and <sup>3</sup>Hilen with her 58 suburbs, Debir with her suburbs; and <sup>4</sup>Ashan 59 with her suburbs, and Beth-shemesh with her suburbs: and out of the tribe of Benjamin; 60 Geba with her suburbs, and <sup>5</sup>Allemeth with her suburbs, and Anathoth with her suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities. <sup>6</sup>And unto the rest of the sons of 61 Kohath were given by lot, out of the family of the tribe, out of the half tribe, the half of Manasseh, ten cities. And to the sons of Gershom, 62 according to their families, out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. Unto the 63 sons of Merari were given by lot, according to their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. And the children of 64 Israel gave to the Levites the cities with their suburbs. And they gave by lot out of the tribe 65 of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of of the sons of Kohath had cities of their borders 67 out of the tribe of Ephraim. And they gave unto them the cities of refuge, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim with her suburbs; Gezer 68 also with her suburbs; <sup>1</sup>and Jokmeam with her 69 suburbs, and Beth-horon with her suburbs; and Aijalon with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with 70 her suburbs: and out of the half tribe of Manasseh; Aner with her suburbs, and Bileam with her suburbs, for the rest of the family of the 71 sons of Kohath. Unto the sons of Gershom were given, out of the family of the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, 72 and Ashtaroth with her suburbs: and out of the tribe of Issachar; Kedesh with her suburbs, 73 Daberath with her suburbs; and Ramoth with 74 her suburbs, and Anem with her suburbs: and out of the tribe of Asher; Mashal with her 75 suburbs, and Abdon with her suburbs; and Hukok with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs: 76 and out of the tribe of Naphtali; Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, and Hammon with her suburbs, and Kiriathaim with her suburbs.

 77 Unto the rest of the Levites, the sons of Merari, were given, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmono 78 with her suburbs, Tabor with her suburbs: and beyond the Jordan at Jericho, on the east side of Jordan, were given them, out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness with her 79 suburbs, and Jahzah with her suburbs, and Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Mephaath 80 with her suburbs: and out of the tribe of Gad; Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, and 81 Mahanaim with her suburbs, and Heshbon with her suburbs, and Jazer with her suburbs.

7 1 And of the sons of Issachar; Tola, and <sup>2</sup>Puah, Jashub, and Shimron, four. And the sons of 2 Tola; Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Ibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their fathers' houses, to wit, of Tola; mighty men of valour in their generations: their number in the days of David was two and twenty thousand and six hundred. And the sons of Uzzi; Izrahiah: 3 and the sons of Izrahiah; Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, Isshiah, five: all of them chief men.

 And with them, by their generations, after their 4 fathers' houses, were bands of the host for war, six and thirty thousand: for they had many wives and sons. And their brethren among all the 5 families of Issachar, mighty men of valour, reckoned in all by genealogy, were fourscore and seven thousand.

The sons of Benjamin; Bela, and Becher, 6 and Jediael, three. And the sons of Bela; 7 Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of fathers' houses, mighty men of valour; and they were reckoned by genealogy twenty and two thousand and thirty and four. And the sons of Becher; Zemirah, 8 and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elioenai, and Omri, and Jeremoth, and Abijah, and Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these were the sons of Becher.
 And they were reckoned by genealogy, after 9 their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valour, twenty thousand and two hundred. And the sons of Jediael; Bilhan: 10 and the sons of Bilhan; Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tarshish, and Alishahar. All these were sons 11 of Jediael, according to the heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valour, seventeen thousand and two hundred, that were able to go forth in the host for war. <sup>1</sup>Shuppim also, and Huppim, 12 these were the sons of Azel. And the sons of 39 Eshek his brother; Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third. And the 40 sons of Ulam were mighty men of valour, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, an hundred and fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin.

So all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; 1 9 and, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel: and Judah was carried away captive to Babylon for their transgression. <sup>5</sup>Now 2 the first inhabitants that dwelt in their possessions in their cities were, Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the Nethinim. And in Jerusalem 3 dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh; Uthai the son of 4 Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Perez the son of Judah. And of the Shilonites; Asaiah the first- 5 born, and his sons. And of the sons of Zerah; 6 Jeuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety.

 11 Jachin; and <sup>1</sup>Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the 12 house of God; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the 13 son of Immer; and their brethren, heads of their fathers' houses, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; very able men for the work of 14 the service of the house of God. And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons 15 of Merari; and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of 16 <sup>2</sup>Zichri, the son of Asaph; and <sup>3</sup>Obadiah the son of <sup>4</sup>Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Ne-17 tophathites. And the porters; Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their 18 brethren: Shallum was the chief; who hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: they were the porters for the camp of the children of Levi.
 19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of his father's house, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the <sup>5</sup>gates of the 20 camp of the LORD, keepers of the entry; and Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them were chosen to be porters in the <sup>1</sup>gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer did ordain in their <sup>2</sup>set office. So they and their children had the oversight of <sup>23</sup> the gates of the house of the LORD, even the house of the <sup>3</sup>tabernacle, by wards. <sup>4</sup>On the <sup>24</sup> four sides were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. And their brethren, in <sup>25</sup> their villages, were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them: for the four <sup>26</sup> chief porters, who were Levites, were in a set office, and were over the chambers and over the treasuries in the house of God. And they <sup>27</sup> lodged round about the house of God, because the charge thereof was upon them, and to them pertained the opening thereof morning by morning. And certain of them had charge of the <sup>28</sup> vessels of service; for by tale were they brought in and by tale were they taken out. Some of <sup>29</sup> them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. And some <sup>30</sup> of the sons of the priests prepared the confection of the spices. And Mattithiah, one of the Le- <sup>31</sup> vites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the set office over the things that were baked in pans. And some of their breth- <sup>32</sup> ren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the shewbread, to prepare it every sabbath. And <sup>33</sup> these are the singers, heads of fathers' houses of the Levites, who dwelt in the chambers and were free from other service: for they were employed in their work day and night. These were heads <sup>34</sup> of fathers' houses of the Levites, throughout their generations, chief men: these dwelt at Jerusalem.

35 And in Gibeon there dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, whose wife's name was Maacah : 36 and his firstborn son Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, 37 and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab ; and Gedor, and 38 Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth. And Mik-loth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren in Jerusalem, over against their 39 brethren. And Ner begat Kish ; and Kish begat Saul ; and Saul begat Jonathan, and 40 Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal. And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal ; and 41 Merib-baal begat Micah. And the sons of Micah ; Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, <sup>1</sup>and 42 Ahaz. And Ahaz begat Jarah ; and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri ; and Zimri 43 begat Moza : and Moza begat Binea ; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son : 44 and Azel had six sons, whose names are these ; Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan : these were the sons of Azel.

- 10 1 <sup>2</sup>Now the Philistines fought against Israel : <sup>3</sup>See 1 Sam. and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down <sup>3</sup>slain in mount Gilboa. xxxi. 1, &c.
 2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul and after his sons ; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and <sup>4</sup>Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of <sup>4</sup>In 1 Sam.
 3 Saul. And the battle went sore against Saul, xiv. 49, Ishvi. and the archers overtook him ; and he was dis-4 tressed by reason of the archers. Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith ; lest these uncircumcised come and <sup>5</sup>abuse me. But his armourbearer would not ; for he was sore afraid. <sup>5</sup>Or, make a Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell upon it. mock of me 5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell upon his sword, and died.
 6 So Saul died, and his three sons ; and all his house died together. And when all the men of 7 Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

And it came to pass on the morrow, when 8 the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.
And they stripped him, and took his head, and 9 his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry the tidings unto their idols, and to the people. And they put his 10 armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon. And when all 11 Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, all the valiant men arose, and took 12 away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the <sup>1</sup>oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. So Saul died <sup>2</sup>for his trespass which 13 he committed against the LORD, because of the word of the LORD, which he kept not; and also for that he asked counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire thereby, and inquired not 14 of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

<sup>3</sup>Then all Israel gathered themselves to David 1 11 unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh. In times past, even when Saul 2 was king, it was thou that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be <sup>4</sup>prince over my people Israel. So all the elders of Israel came to the 3 king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Samuel.

4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (the same is Jebus); and the Jebusites, the in-5 habitants of the land, were there. And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come in hither. Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion; the same is the city of 6 David. And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain.
 And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and 7 was made chief. And David dwelt in the strong hold; therefore they called it the city of David.
 8 And he built the city round about, from Millo even round about: and Joab <sup>1</sup>repaired the rest 9 of the city. And David waxed greater and greater; for the LORD of hosts was with him.

10 <sup>2</sup>Now these are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who <sup>3</sup>shewed themselves strong with him in his kingdom, together with all Is-11 rael, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel. And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the <sup>4</sup>thirty; he lifted up his spear against three 12 hundred <sup>5</sup>and slew them at one time. And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, 13 who was one of the three mighty men. He was with David at <sup>6</sup>Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a plot of ground full of barley; and 14 the people fled from before the Philistines. And they stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved 15 them by a great <sup>7</sup>victory. And three of the thirty chief went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines were encamped in the valley of 16 Rephaim. And David was then in the hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. And David longed, and said, Oh that <sup>17</sup> one would give me water to drink of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate! And the <sup>18</sup> three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD, and said, My <sup>19</sup> God forbid it me, that I should do this: shall I drink the blood of these men <sup>1</sup>that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men. And <sup>2</sup>Abishai, the brother of Joab, <sup>20</sup> he was chief of the three: for he lifted up his spear against three hundred <sup>3</sup>and slew them, and had a name among the three. <sup>4</sup>Of the <sup>21</sup> three, he was more honourable than the two, and was made their captain: howbeit he attained not to the first three. Benaiah the son of Je- <sup>22</sup> hoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, he slew the two sons of Ariel of Moab: he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow. And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, <sup>23</sup> five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. These things did Benaiah the <sup>24</sup> son of Jehoiada, and had a name among the three mighty men. Behold, he was more hon- <sup>25</sup> ourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three: and David set him over his <sup>5</sup>guard.

<sup>2</sup> the mighty men, his helpers in war. They <sup>12</sup>were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow; they were of <sup>12</sup>Or, drew the bow thothite ; and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty 4 man among the thirty, and over the thirty ; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite ; Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and 5 Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite ; Elkanah, and Isshiah, and Azarel, 6 and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites ; and 7 Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. And of the Gadites there separated 8 themselves unto David to the hold in the wilderness, mighty men of valour, men trained for war, that could handle shield and spear ; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the roes upon the mountains ; Ezer 9 the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third ; Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth ; Attai 10, 11 the sixth, Eliel the seventh ; Johanan the eighth, 12 Elzabad the ninth ; Jeremiah the tenth, Mach- 13 bannai the eleventh. These of the sons of Gad 14 were captains of the host : he that was least was <sup>1</sup>equal to an hundred, and the greatest <sup>1</sup>to a thousand. These are they that went over Jor- 15 dan in the first month, when it had overflown all its banks ; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west. And there came of the children of 16 Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

 And David went out to meet them, and an- 17 swered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall be knit unto you : but if ye be come to betray me to mine adversaries, seeing there is no <sup>2</sup>wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it. Then the spirit 18 <sup>3</sup>came upon Amasai, who was chief of the <sup>4</sup>thirty, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy helpeth thee. Then David received them, and 19 made them captains of the band. Of Manasseh also there fell away some to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle, but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall away to his master Saul to 20 the jeopardy of our heads. As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediahel, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of 21 thousands that were of Manasseh. And they helped David against <sup>1</sup>the band of rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were 22 captains in the host. For from day to day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 . And these are the numbers of the heads of them that were armed for war, which came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to 24 him, according to the word of the LORD. The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, armed for 25 war. Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one 26 hundred. Of the children of Levi four thousand 27 and six hundred. And Jehoiada was the leader of the house of Aaron, and with him were three 28 thousand and seven hundred; and Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's 29 house twenty and two captains. And of the children of Benjamin, the brethren of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had <sup>2</sup>kept their allegiance to the house of Saul.
 30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous 31 men in their fathers' houses. And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king. And of the children of Issachar, men 32 that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment. Of Zebulun, such as were 33 able to go out in the host, that could set the battle in array, with all manner of instruments of war, fifty thousand; and that could order the battle array, and were not of double heart. And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with 34 them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand. And of the Danites that could set 35 the battle in array, twenty and eight thousand and six hundred. And of Asher, such as were 36 able to go out in the host, that could set the battle in array, forty thousand. And on the 37 other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand. All these, 38 being men of war, that could order the battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. And they were there with David three 39 days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had made preparation for them. Moreover they 40 that were nigh unto them, even as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, victual of meal, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep in abundance: for there was joy in Israel.

And David consulted with the captains of 1 13 thousands and of hundreds, even with every leader. And David said unto all the assembly 2 of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and if it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad every where unto our brethren that are left in all the <sup>1</sup>land of Israel, <sup>2</sup>with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities that have <sup>3</sup>suburbs, that <sup>3</sup>they may gather themselves unto us : and let us bring again the ark of our God to us : for we <sup>4</sup>sought not unto it in the days of Saul. And all the assembly said that they would do so : for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. <sup>5</sup>'So David assembled all Israel together, from Shihor the brook of Egypt even unto the entering in of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from <sup>6</sup>Kiriath-jearim. And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, the LORD that <sup>5</sup>sitteth upon the <sup>7</sup>cherubim, <sup>6</sup>which is called by the Name. And they carried the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab : and <sup>8</sup>Uzza and Ahio drave the cart. And David and all Israel played before God with all their might : even with songs, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, <sup>9</sup>and with trumpets. And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark ; for the oxen <sup>7</sup>stumbled. <sup>10</sup>And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put forth his hand to the ark : and there he died before <sup>11</sup>God. And David was displeased, because the LORD had broken forth upon Uzza : and he <sup>12</sup>called that place <sup>8</sup>Perez-uzza, unto this day. And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How <sup>13</sup>shall I bring the ark of God home to me ? So David removed not the ark unto him into the city of David, but carried it aside into the house <sup>14</sup>of Obed-edom the Gittite. And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his

And when the Philistines heard that David 8 was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David : and David heard of it, and went out <sup>2</sup>against them. Now the Philis- 9 tines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim. And David inquired of God, saying, 10 Shall I go up against the Philistines ? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand ? And the LORD said unto him, Go up ; for I will deliver them into thine hand. So they came up to 11 Baal-perazim, and David smote them there ; and David said, God hath <sup>3</sup>broken mine ene-and David gave commandment, and they were burned with fire. And the Philistines yet again 13 made a raid in the valley. And David inquired 14 again of God ; and God said unto him, Thou shalt not go up after them : turn away from them, and come upon them over against the hearest the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle : for God is gone out before thee to smite 16 the host of the Philistines. And David did as God commanded him : and they smote the host of the Philistines from <sup>1</sup>Gibeon even to Gezer. <sup>1</sup>In <sup>2</sup>Sam. v. 25, Geba.

 17 And the fame of David went out into all lands ; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

15 <sup>1</sup> And David made him houses in the city of David ; and he prepared a place for the ark of <sup>2</sup> God, and pitched for it a tent. Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites : for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him <sup>3</sup> for ever. And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto <sup>4</sup> its place, which he had prepared for it. And David gathered together the sons of Aaron, and
<sup>6</sup> of the sons of Merari ; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty : of the sons <sup>7</sup> of Gershom ; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty : of the sons of Elizaphan ;
<sup>9</sup> and his brethren fourscore : of the sons of Uzziel ; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred <sup>10</sup> and twelve. And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, <sup>11</sup> and Amminadab, and said unto them, Ye are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites : sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, unto the place that I have prepared for it. For because ye bare it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not according to the ordinance. So the priests and the Levites <sup>14</sup> sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel. And the children of <sup>15</sup> the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD. And David spake to the chief of the Levites to <sup>16</sup> appoint their brethren the singers, with instruments of music, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up the voice with joy. So the Levites appointed Heman the son of <sup>17</sup> Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; and with <sup>18</sup> them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the doorkeepers. So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and <sup>19</sup> Ethan, were appointed, with cymbals of brass to sound aloud; and Zechariah, and Aziel, and <sup>20</sup> Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries set to <sup>21</sup> <sup>1</sup>Alamoth; and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps set to <sup>2</sup>the Sheminith, to lead. And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was over <sup>22</sup> <sup>3</sup>the song: he instructed about <sup>3</sup>the song, because he was skilful. And Berechiah and Elkanah were <sup>23</sup> doorkeepers for the ark. And Shebaniah, and <sup>24</sup> Joshaphat, and Nethanel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark. <sup>25</sup> <sup>4</sup>So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy: and it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they sacrificed seven bullocks and seven rams. And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of <sup>1</sup>the song with the singers: and David had upon him an ephod of linen. Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with psalteries and harps. And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David dancing and playing; and she despised him in 16 <sup>1</sup>her heart. And they brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the <sup>3</sup>people in the name of the LORD. And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a portion <sup>2</sup>of flesh, and a cake of raisins. <sup>2</sup> Or, of wine <sup>4</sup> And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to celebrate and to thank and praise the LORD, the <sup>5</sup>God of Israel: Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, <sup>3</sup>Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, <sup>3</sup>Jeiel, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, with psalteries and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding <sup>6</sup>aloud; and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests

So he left there, before the ark of the covenant 37 of the LORD, Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required: and Obed-edom with their brethren, 38 threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hoşah to be doorkeepers: and 39 Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon, to offer burnt offerings 40 unto the LORD upon the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded unto Israel; and with 41 them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that <sup>3</sup>And it came to pass, when David dwelt in 1 17 his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD dwelleth under curtains. And Nathan said unto David, Do all 2

- that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.
- 3 And it came to pass the same night, that the 4 word of God came to Nathan, saying, Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:
 5 for I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel, unto this day; but <sup>1</sup>have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle 6 to another. In all places wherein I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me 7 an house of cedar? Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the <sup>2</sup>sheepcote, from following the sheep, that thou should-8 est be <sup>3</sup>prince over my people Israel: and I have been with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee; and I will make thee a name, like unto the name of the great ones that are in the earth.
- 9 And I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any 10 more, as at the first, and as from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I <sup>4</sup>will subdue all thine enemies. Moreover I tell thee that the LORD will build thee an house.
- 11 And it shall come to pass, when thy days be fulfilled that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.
- 12 He shall build me an house, and I will establish 13 his throne for ever. I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him mine house and in my kingdom for ever : and his throne shall be established for ever. According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

Then David the king went in, and sat before the LORD ; and he said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me thus far ? And this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God ; but thou hast spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God. What can David say yet more unto thee concerning the honour which is done to thy servant ? for thou knowest thy servant. O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou wrought all this greatness, to make known all these great things. O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>1</sup>And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem unto himself for a people, to make thee a name by great and terrible things, in driving out nations from before thy people, which thou redeemedst out of Egypt ? For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever ; and thou, LORD, becamest their God. And now, O LORD, let the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do as thou hast spoken. <sup>2</sup>And let thy name be established and magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel : and the house of David thy servant is established before thee. For thou, O my God, hast revealed to thy servant that thou wilt build him an house : therefore hath thy servant found

26 in his heart to pray before thee. And now, O LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this 27 good thing unto thy servant: and now it hath pleased thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O LORD, hast blessed, and it is blessed for ever.

- 18 1 And after this <sup>1</sup>it came to pass, that David <sup>1</sup> See 2 Sam. viii. smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the 2 Philistines. And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became servants to David, and brought 3 presents. And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah <sup>2</sup>unto Hamath, as he went to stablish <sup>2</sup> Or, by 4 his dominion by the river Euphrates. And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand came to succour Hadarezer king of Zobah, <sup>4</sup> Heb. *Darmesek.
 David smote of <sup>3</sup>the Syrians two and twenty 6 thousand men. Then David put garrisons in <sup>3</sup>Syria of <sup>4</sup>Damascus; and <sup>3</sup>the Syrians became servants to David, and brought presents. And the LORD <sup>5</sup>gave victory to David whithersoever <sup>5</sup> Or, saved David 7 he went. And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and 8 brought them to Jerusalem. And from Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadarezer, David took very much brass, wherewith Solomon made the 9 brassen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass. And when Tou king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer 10 king of Zobah, he sent Hadoram his son to king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadarezer and smitten him; for Hadarezer had wars with

Tou; and he had with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass. These <sup>11</sup> also did king David dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

And David reigned over all Israel; and he executed judgement and justice unto all his people. <sup>14</sup>

<sup>5</sup>And it came to pass after this, that Nahash <sup>1</sup> 19 the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead. And David said, <sup>2</sup>

I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. But the princes of <sup>3</sup> the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? So Hanun <sup>4</sup> took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to 5 their buttocks, and sent them away. Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards 6 be grown, and then return. And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Aram-maacah, and 7 out of Zobah. So they hired them thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came 8 to battle. And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves 10 in the field. Now when Joab saw that <sup>1</sup>the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and 11 put them in array against the Syrians. And the rest of the people he committed into the hand of <sup>2</sup>Abishai his brother, and they put themselves 12 in array against the children of Ammon. And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help 13 thee. Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the LORD do that which seemeth him 14 good. So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the 15 battle; and they fled before him. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem. And when the Syrians <sup>16</sup> saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the River, with Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer at their head. And it was told David; and he <sup>17</sup> gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him. And the Syrians fled before <sup>18</sup> Israel; and David slew of the Syrians the men of seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host. And when the servants of Hadarezer <sup>19</sup> saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and served him: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

4 <sup>1</sup>And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at <sup>2</sup>Gezer with the Philistines: then Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Sippai, of the sons of the <sup>3</sup>giant: and they were subdued.
 5 And there was again war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose 6 spear was like a weaver's beam. And there was again war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each 7 foot; and he also was born unto the <sup>4</sup>giant. And when he <sup>5</sup>defied Israel, Jonathan the son of 8 Shimea David's brother slew him. These were born unto the <sup>4</sup>giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

21 1 <sup>6</sup>And <sup>7</sup>Satan stood up against Israel, and 2 moved David to number Israel. And David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know the 3 sum of them. And Joab said, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of guilt unto 4 Israel? Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jeru-5 salem. And Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten 6 thousand men that drew sword. But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for 7 the king's word was abominable to Joab. And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel. And David said unto God, I 8 have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing: but now, put away, I beseech thee, the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. And the LORD spake unto Gad, 9 David's seer, saying, Go and speak unto David, 10 saying, Thus saith the LORD, I <sup>1</sup>offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. So Gad came to David, and said 11 unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Take which thou wilt; either three years of famine; or three 12 months to be consumed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, <sup>2</sup>even pestilence in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to him that sent me. And David 13 said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very <sup>3</sup>great are his mercies: and let me not fall into the hand of man. So the LORD sent a pestilence 14 upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men. And God sent an angel unto 15 Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was about to destroy, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the destroying angel, It is enough; now stay thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of <sup>4</sup>Ornan the Jebusite. And David lifted up his 16 eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. And David 17 said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be against me, and against my father's house; but not against thy 18 people, that they should be plagued. Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of 19 Ornan the Jebusite. And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name 20 of the LORD. And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons that were with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing 21 wheat. And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, and bowed himself to David 22 with his face to the ground. Then David said to Ornan, Give me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build thereon an altar unto the LORD: for the full price shalt thou give it me: that the 23 plague may be stayed from the people. And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering; I 24 give it all. And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer a burnt offering without cost.

25 So David gave to Ornan for the place six 26 hundred shekels of gold by weight. And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.
27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.
28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. For the 29 tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. But David could not go before it to inquire of 30 God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD. Then David said, This 1 22 is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel.

And David commanded to gather together 2 the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God. And David prepared 3 iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the couplings; and brass in abundance without weight; and cedar trees 4 without number: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought cedar trees in abundance to David. And David said, Solomon my son is young and 5 tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

Then he called for Solomon his son, and 6 charged him to build an house for the LORD, the God of Israel. And David said to Solomon 7 his son, As for me, it was in my heart to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God. But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 8 Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight: behold, a 9 son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be

<sup>1</sup>Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness <sup>10</sup>unto Israel in his days: he shall build an house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne <sup>11</sup>of his kingdom over Israel for ever. Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he <sup>12</sup>hath spoken concerning thee. Only the LORD give thee discretion and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel; that so thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.
<sup>13</sup>Then shalt thou prosper, if thou observe to do the statutes and the judgements which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; fear not, neither <sup>14</sup>be dismayed. Now, behold, in my <sup>2</sup>affliction I have prepared for the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and <sup>15</sup>thou mayest add thereto. Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all men that <sup>16</sup>are cunning in any manner of work; of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number; arise and be doing, and the LORD <sup>17</sup>be with thee. David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying; <sup>18</sup>Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath delivered the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, <sup>19</sup>and before his people. Now set your heart and your soul to seek after the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the Now David was old and full of days ; and he 1 23 made Solomon his son king over Israel. And 2 he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. And the Le- 3 vites were numbered from thirty years old and upward : and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand. Of 4 these, twenty and four thousand were to oversee the work of the house of the LORD ; and six thousand were officers and judges : and four 5 thousand were doorkeepers ; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made, said David, to praise therewith. And 6 David divided them into <sup>1</sup>courses according to the 7 were the heads of the fathers' houses of Ladan.

 And the sons of Shimei ; Jahath, <sup>3</sup>Zina, and 10 Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei. And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah 11 the second : but Jeush and Beriah had not many sons ; therefore they became a fathers' house in one reckoning. The sons of Kohath ; Amram, 12 Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. The sons of 13 Amram ; Aaron and Moses : and Aaron was separated, <sup>4</sup>that he should sanctify the most holy Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and 20 Jekameam the fourth. The sons of Uzziel ; 21 Micah the chief, and Isshiah the second. The sons of Merari ; Mahli and Mushi. The sons 22 of Mahli ; Eleazar and Kish. And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters only : and their brethren the sons of Kish took them to 23 wife. The sons of Mushi ; Mahli, and Eder, 24 and Jeremoth, three. These were the sons of Levi after their fathers' houses, even the heads of the fathers' houses of those of them that were counted, in the number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from twenty years old and upward.

 25 For David said, The LORD, the God of Israel, hath given rest unto his people ; and he dwell-26 eth in Jerusalem for ever : and also the Levites shall no more have need to carry the tabernacle and all the vessels of it for the service thereof.
 27 For <sup>2</sup>by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and 28 upward. For <sup>3</sup>their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, even the 29 work of the service of the house of God ; for the shewbread also, and for the fine flour for a meal offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all manner of measure and size ; 30 and to stand every morning to thank and praise 31 the LORD, and likewise at even ; and to offer all burnt offerings unto the LORD, in the sabbaths, number according to the ordinance concerning them, continually before the LORD: and that they should keep the charge of the tent of meeting, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, for the service of the house of the LORD.

And the courses of the sons of Aaron were <sup>1</sup> 24 these. The sons of Aaron; Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. But Nadab and Abihu <sup>2</sup> died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office. <sup>1</sup>And David with Zadok of the <sup>3</sup> sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their ordering in their service. And there were more <sup>4</sup> chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided: of the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen, heads of fathers' houses; and of the sons of Ithamar, according to their fathers' houses, eight. Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with <sup>5</sup> another; for there were princes of the sanctuary, and princes of God, both of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. And <sup>6</sup> Shemaiah the son of Nethanel the scribe, who was of the Levites, wrote them in the presence of the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and of the Levites: one fathers' house being taken for Eleazar, and <sup>2</sup>one taken for Ithamar. Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the <sup>7</sup> second to Jedaiah; the third to Harim, the fourth <sup>8</sup> to Seorim; the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to <sup>9</sup> Mijamin; the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth <sup>10</sup> to Abijah; the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to <sup>11</sup> Shecaniah; the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth <sup>12</sup> and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth 19 the four and twentieth to Maaziah. This was the ordering of them in their service, to come into the house of the LORD according to the ordinance given unto them by the hand of Aaron their father, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

 23 And the sons <sup>3</sup>of Hebron ; Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jeka-25 of the sons of Micah, Shamir. The brother of Micah, Isshiah : of the sons of Isshiah, Zechar-28 and Ibri. Of Mahli ; Eleazar, who had no sons.

 29, 30 Of Kish ; the sons of Kish, Jerahmeel. And the sons of Mushi ; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites 31 after their fathers' houses. These likewise cast lots even as their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and of the Levites ; the fathers' houses of the chief even as those of his younger

And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. All <sup>6</sup>these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God; <sup>7</sup>Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman being under the order of the king. Now the first lot came <sup>9</sup>forth for Asaph to Joseph: the second to Gedaliah; he and his brethren and sons were twelve: the third to Zaccur, his sons and his brethren, <sup>10</sup>twelve: the fourth to Izri, his sons and his <sup>11</sup>brethren, twelve: the fifth to Nethaniah, his <sup>12</sup>sons and his brethren, twelve: the sixth to <sup>13</sup>

Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, 6 that ruled over the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour. The sons of 7 Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were valiant men, Elihu, and Semachiah. All these were of the 8 sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men in strength for the service; threescore and two of Obed-edom.
 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, valiant 9 men, eighteen. Also Hosah, of the children of 10 Merari, had sons; Shimri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him chief;) Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the 11 third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen. Of these 12 were the courses of the doorkeepers, even of the chief men, having <sup>1</sup>charges like as their brethren, to minister in the house of the LORD.
 And they cast lots, as well the small as the 13 great, according to their fathers' houses, for every gate. And the lot eastward fell to <sup>2</sup>She- 14 lemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a discreet counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. To Obed-edom southward; and 15 to his sons the storehouse. To Shuppim and 16 Hosah westward, by the gate of <sup>3</sup>Shallecheth, at the causeway that goeth up, ward against

Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges.
<sup>30</sup> Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, had the oversight of Israel beyond Jordan westward; for all the business of the LORD, heads of fathers' houses, whom king David made overseers over the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of the Manassites, for every matter pertaining to God, and for the affairs of the king.

Now the children of Israel after their number, to wit, the heads of fathers' houses and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers that served the king, in any matter of the courses which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand. Over the first course for the first month was <sup>2</sup> Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel : and in his course were twenty and four thousand. He was of the <sup>3</sup> children of Perez, the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month. 16 Furthermore over the tribes of Israel : of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri the ruler : of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of 17 Maacah : of Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemu-18 el : of Aaron, Zadok : of Judah, <sup>2</sup>Elihu, one of the brethren of David : of Issachar, Omri the 19 son of Michael : of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah : of Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of 20 Azriel : of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah : of the half tribe of Manasseh, 21 Joel the son of Pedaiah : of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah : 22 of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner : of Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the 23 captains of the tribes of Israel. But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under : because the LORD had said he would 24 increase Israel like to the stars of heaven. Joab the son of Zeruah began to number, but finished not ; and there came wrath for this upon Israel ; neither was the number put into the account in the chronicles of king David.

<sup>2</sup> In 1 Sam.
xvi. 6, Eliab.

And over the king's treasuries was Azmaveth <sup>25</sup> the son of Adiel : and over the treasuries in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jonathan the son of Uzziah : and over them that did the work of the field for <sup>26</sup> tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub : and over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramath- <sup>27</sup> ite : and over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite : and <sup>28</sup> over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowland was Baal-hanan the Gederite : and over the cellars of oil was Joash : and <sup>29</sup> over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite : and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai : and <sup>30</sup> over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite : and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite : and over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. All <sup>31</sup> these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

<sup>1</sup> Or, brother's son

Also Jonathan David's <sup>1</sup>uncle was a coun- <sup>32</sup> sellor, a man of understanding, and a scribe : and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons : and Ahithophel was the king's counsellor : <sup>33</sup> and Hushai the Archite was the king's friend : and after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of <sup>34</sup> Benaiah, and Abiathar : and the captain of the king's host was Joab.

And David assembled all the princes of Israel, <sup>1</sup> <sup>28</sup> the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that served the king by course, and the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and the rulers over all the substance and <sup>2</sup>possessions of the king and of his sons, with the <sup>3</sup>officers, and the mighty men, even all the mighty men of valour, unto Jerusalem. Then <sup>2</sup> David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, me, it was in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God; and I had made ready 3 for the building. But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou art a man of war, and hast shed blood.

4 Howbeit the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me out of all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be 1 prince; and in the house of Judah, the house of 5 Israel: and of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of 6 the LORD over Israel. And he said unto me; Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, 7 and I will be his father. And I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgements, as at this 8 day. Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you.
9 for ever. And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for 10 ever. Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch of the temple, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper rooms thereof, and of the inner chambers thereof, and of the <sup>1</sup>place of the mercy-seat : and the pattern of all that he had <sup>2</sup>by the 12 spirit, for the courts of the house of the LORD, and for all the chambers round about, for the treasuries of the house of God, and for the treasuries of the dedicated things : also for the 13 courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD : of gold by weight for the 14 vessels of gold, for all vessels of every kind of service ; of silver for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels of every kind of service : by weight also for the candlesticks of gold, and 15 for the lamps thereof, of gold, by weight for every candlestick and for the lamps thereof : and for the candlesticks of silver, silver by weight for every candlestick and for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick : and the gold by weight for the tables of 16 shewbread, for every table ; and silver for the tables of silver : and the fleshhooks, and the 17 basons, and the cups, of pure gold : and for the golden bowls by weight for every bowl ; and for the silver bowls by weight for every bowl : and 18 for the altar of incense refined gold by weight : and gold for the pattern of the chariot, even the cherubim, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

 All this, said David, <sup>3</sup>have I been made to under- 19 stand in writing from the hand of the LORD, even all the works of this pattern. And David said 20 to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it : fear not, nor be dismayed : for the LORD God, even my God, is with thee ;

he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD be finished. And, behold, there are the courses of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee in all manner of work every willing man that hath skill, for any manner of service: also the captains and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

29 <sup>1</sup> And David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for <sup>2</sup> the LORD God. Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, and the silver for the things of silver, and the brass for the things of brass, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood; <sup>1</sup>onyx stones, and stones to be set, stones for inlaid work, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble <sup>3</sup> stones in abundance. Moreover also, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, seeing that I have a treasure of mine own of gold and silver, I give it unto the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for <sup>4</sup> the holy house; even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of <sup>5</sup> the houses withal: of gold for the things of gold, and of silver for the things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. Who then offereth willingly <sup>2</sup> to consecrate himself this day unto the LORD? Then the princes of the fathers' houses, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the <sup>7</sup> king's work, offered willingly; and they gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand darics, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and of iron a hundred thousand talents. And they with whom precious stones 8 were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. Then the people rejoiced, for that 9 they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all 10 the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, O LORD, the God of Israel our father, for ever and ever. Thine, O LORD, is the great- 11 ness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honour come of thee, 12 and thou rulest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Now 13 therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. But who am I, and what is 14 my people, that we should <sup>1</sup>be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and <sup>2</sup>of thine own have we given thee. For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, 15 as all our fathers were: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no <sup>3</sup>abiding. O 16 LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own. I 17 know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are present here, to 13 offer willingly unto thee. O LORD, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and <sup>1</sup>prepare 19 their heart unto thee: and give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, 20 for the which I have made provision. And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the 21 LORD, and the king. And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, 22 and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel; and did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him unto the LORD to be <sup>2</sup>prince, and 23 Zadok to be priest. Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed 24 him. And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, <sup>3</sup>sub-25 mitted themselves unto Solomon the king. And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

26 Now David the son of Jesse reigned over all 27 Israel. <sup>4</sup>And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And he died in a good old <sup>28</sup> age, full of days, riches, and honour : and Solomon his son reigned in his stead. Now the <sup>29</sup> acts of David the king, first and last, behold, <sup>1</sup> Heb. words. they are written in the <sup>1</sup>history of Samuel the seer, and in the <sup>1</sup>history of Nathan the prophet, and in the <sup>1</sup>history of Gad the seer ; with all his <sup>30</sup> reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

THE SECOND BOOK

---

1 <sup>1</sup> AND Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

2 And Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince in all Israel,

3 the heads of the fathers' houses. So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tent of meeting of God, which Moses

4 the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness. But the ark of God had David brought up from Kiriath-jearim to the place that David had prepared for it: for he had

5 pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. Moreover the brasen altar, that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, <sup>1</sup>was there before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon

6 and the congregation sought unto it. And Solomon <sup>2</sup>went up thither to the brasen altar before the LORD, which was at the tent of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

7 <sup>3</sup>In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed <sup>1</sup> Or, as otherwise read, he had put

great kindness unto David my father, and hast made me king in his stead. Now, O LORD 9 God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I 10 may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great? And God said to Solomon, Because 11 this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of them that hate thee, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king: wisdom and 12 knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like. So Solomon <sup>1</sup>came from his 13 journey to the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the tent of meeting, unto Jerusalem; and he reigned over Israel.

<sup>2</sup>And Solomon gathered chariots and horse- 14 men: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. And the king made silver 15 and gold to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycomore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. And 16 the horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt; the king's merchants received them in droves, each drove at a price. And 17 they fetched up, and brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

- 2 1 Now Solomon purposed to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his 2 kingdom. And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand men that were hewers in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred 3 to oversee them. And Solomon sent to <sup>1</sup>Hu-ram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so 4 deal with me. Behold, I build an house for the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him incense of sweet spices, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts of the LORD our God. This is an 5 ordinance for ever to Israel. And the house which I build is great: for great is our God 6 above all gods. But who <sup>2</sup>is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn 7 incense before him? Now therefore send me a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill to grave all manner of gravings, to be with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David 8 my father did provide. Send me also cedar trees, <sup>3</sup>fir trees, and <sup>4</sup>algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, my serv-9 ants shall be with thy servants, even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be wonderful great.

And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the 10 hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand <sup>1</sup>measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand <sup>1</sup>measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.
 Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in 11 writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD loveth his people, he hath made thee king over them. Hiram said moreover, Blessed be 12 the LORD, the God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, endued with discretion and understanding, that should build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom. And 13 now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, <sup>2</sup>of Hiram my father's, <sup>3</sup>the son 14 of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to devise any device: that there may be a place appointed unto him with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father. Now therefore the wheat 15 and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants: and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as 16 much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to <sup>4</sup>Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem. And Solomon 17 numbered all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred. <sup>5</sup>And he set 18 threescore and ten thousand of them to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand that were hewers in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people awork.

- 3 <sup>1</sup> Then Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount Moriah, where the LORD appeared unto David his father, <sup>2</sup> which he made ready <sup>3</sup> in the place that David had appointed, in the threshing-floor of <sup>4</sup> Ornan the Jebusite. And he began to build in the second <sup>5</sup> day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign. Now <sup>6</sup> these are the foundations which Solomon laid for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth <sup>7</sup> twenty cubits. And the porch that was before the house, the length of it, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height an hundred and twenty: and he <sup>8</sup> overlaid it within with pure gold. And the greater house he cieled with <sup>9</sup> fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and wrought thereon <sup>10</sup> palm trees and chains. And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the <sup>11</sup> gold was gold of Parvaim. He overlaid also the house, the beams, the thresholds, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubim on the walls. And he made the most holy house; the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents. And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold. And in the most holy house he made two cherubim of image work; and they overlaid them with gold. And the wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: the wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub. And the wing of the other cherub was five <sup>12</sup> cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub. The wings of <sup>13</sup> these cherubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their <sup>14</sup> faces were <sup>1</sup>toward the house. And he made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and <sup>15</sup> fine linen, and wrought cherubim thereon. <sup>2</sup>Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. And he made chains in the oracle, and put them <sup>16</sup> on the tops of the pillars; and he made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. <sup>3</sup>And he set up the pillars before the <sup>17</sup> temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand <sup>4</sup>Jachin, and the name of that on the left <sup>5</sup>Boaz. Moreover he made an altar of brass, <sup>1</sup> <sup>4</sup> twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof. <sup>6</sup>Also he made the molten <sup>2</sup> sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and the height thereof was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits compassed it round about. And under it was the similitude of <sup>3</sup> <sup>7</sup>oxen, which did compass it round about, <sup>8</sup>for ten cubits, compassing the sea round about. The <sup>7</sup>oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast. It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking <sup>4</sup> toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set upon them above, and all their hinder parts were inward. And it was an handbreadth thick; <sup>5</sup> and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it received 6 and held three thousand baths. He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as belonged to the burnt offering they washed in them: but the sea was for the priests to wash 7 in. And he made the ten candlesticks of gold according to the ordinance concerning them; and he set them in the temple, five on the right 8 hand, and five on the left. He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he 9 made an hundred basons of gold. Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the 10 doors of them with brass. And he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward 11 the south. And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basons. So Hiram made an end of doing the work that he wrought for king 12 Solomon in the house of God: the two pillars, and the bowls, and the two chapiters which were on the top of the pillars; and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that 13 were on the top of the pillars; and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were 14 <sup>1</sup>upon the pillars. He made also the bases, and 15 the lavers made he upon the bases; one sea, 16 and the twelve oxen under it. The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all the vessels thereof, did <sup>2</sup>Hiram his father make for king Solomon for the house of the LORD of 17 bright brass. In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between 18 Succoth and Zeredah. <sup>3</sup>Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass <sup>1</sup>could not be found out. And <sup>19</sup> Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon was the shewbread; and the <sup>20</sup> candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn according to the ordinance before the oracle, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the <sup>21</sup> lamps, and the tongs, of gold, and that perfect gold; and the snuffers, and the basons, and the <sup>22</sup> spoons, and the firepans, of pure gold: and as for the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple, were of gold. Thus all the work that Solomon wrought for the <sup>1</sup> 5 house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

<sup>2</sup> Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, <sup>2</sup> and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' houses of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion. And all the men of Israel assembled <sup>3</sup> themselves unto the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month. And all the elders <sup>4</sup> of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark. And they brought up the ark, and the <sup>5</sup> tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; these did the priests the Levites bring up. And king Solomon and all <sup>6</sup> the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude. And the priests brought in the <sup>7</sup> ark of the covenant of the LORD unto its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim.

8 For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered 9 the ark and the staves thereof above. And 10 <sup>1</sup>the staves were so long that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without: and there it is,

11 unto this day. There was nothing in the ark

12 selves, and did not keep their courses; also the Levites which were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brethren, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred 13 and twenty priests sounding with trumpets :) it came even to pass, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments <sup>3</sup>of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud; even the house of 14 the LORD, so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

6 <sup>1</sup>Then spake Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. But I have built thee an house of habitation, and a 3 place for thee to dwell in for ever. And the king turned his face, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood. And he said, Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, which spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hands fulfilled it, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be <sup>1</sup>prince over my people Israel: but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel. Now it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. But the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart: nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name. And the LORD hath performed his word that he spake; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. And there have I set the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with the children of Israel.

And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands: (for Solomon had made a brasen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven :) and he said,

O LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in the heaven, or in the earth; who keepest covenant and mercy <sup>1</sup>with thy servants, that <sup>1</sup>Or, for 15 walk before thee with all their heart: who hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou didst promise him: yea, thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine 16 hand, as it is this day. Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, <sup>2</sup>There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; if only thy children take heed to their way, to walk in 17 my law as thou hast walked before me. Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou spakest unto thy 18 servant David. But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have builded!
 19 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer 20 which thy servant prayeth before thee: that thine eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant 21 shall pray toward this place. And hearken thou to the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: yea, hear thou from thy dwelling place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, 22 forgive. <sup>3</sup>If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and he come and swear before thine altar 23 in this house: then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, requiting the wicked, to bring his way upon his own head ; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness. And if thy people Israel be <sup>24</sup> smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee ; and shall turn again and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee in this house : then hear <sup>25</sup> thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers. When the heaven is shut up, and <sup>26</sup> there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee ; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin ; <sup>27</sup> when thou <sup>2</sup>dost afflict them : then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, <sup>1</sup>when thou teachest them the good way wherein they should walk ; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance. If there be <sup>28</sup> in the land famine, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting or mildew, locust or caterpillar ; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their <sup>3</sup>cities ; whatsoever plague or whatsoever sickness there be ; what prayer and supplic- <sup>29</sup> ation soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man his own plague and his own sorrow, and shall spread forth his hands toward this house : then <sup>30</sup> hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according to all his ways, whose heart thou knowest ; (for thou, even thou only, knowest the hearts of the children of men ; ) that they may fear thee, to <sup>31</sup> walk in thy ways, so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers. country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; when they shall come and pray toward this house: 33 then hear thou from heaven, even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all the peoples of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and that they may know that <sup>1</sup>this house which I have 34 built is called by thy name. If thy people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatsoever way thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name: 35 then hear thou from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their <sup>2</sup>cause. 36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that <sup>3</sup>they carry them away captive unto a land far off or 37 near; yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have 38 dealt wickedly; if they return unto thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captive, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house 39 which I have built for thy name: then hear thou from heaven, even from thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their <sup>2</sup>cause; and forgive thy people which have 40 sinned against thee. made in this place. <sup>1</sup>Now therefore arise, O <sup>41</sup> LORD God, into thy resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in <sup>2</sup>goodness. O LORD God, turn <sup>42</sup> not away the face of thine anointed: remember the <sup>3</sup>mercies of David thy servant.

Now when Solomon had made an end of <sup>1</sup> 7 praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.
And the priests could not enter into the house <sup>2</sup> of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD'S house. And all the children <sup>3</sup> of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD was upon the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and gave thanks unto the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.
<sup>4</sup>Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice <sup>4</sup> before the LORD. And king Solomon offered <sup>5</sup> a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. And the priests stood, according to <sup>6</sup> their offices; the Levites also with instruments <sup>5</sup>of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to give thanks unto the LORD, for his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry: and the priests sounded trumpets before them; and all Israel stood.
<sup>6</sup>Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of <sup>7</sup> the court that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because the brassen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offering, and the meal

8 offering, and the fat. So Solomon held the feast at that time seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the brook of Egypt.

9 And on the eighth day they held a <sup>1</sup>solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. <sup>1</sup> Or, closing festival

10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away unto their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 <sup>2</sup>Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously <sup>2</sup> See I Kings ix. 1, &c.

12 effected. And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself

13 for an house of sacrifice. If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence 14 among my people; if my people, <sup>3</sup>which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their <sup>3</sup> Heb. upon whom my name is called.

15 land. Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent, unto the prayer that is made in this

16 place. For now have I chosen and hallowed this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there 17 perpetually. And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgements;

18 then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel. But if ye turn away, and forsake 19 my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them: then will I pluck 20 them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. And this house, 21 which is so high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house? And they shall answer, Because they 22 forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

<sup>1</sup>And it came to pass at the end of twenty 1 8 years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house, that the cities 2 which Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and 3 prevailed against it. And he built Tadmor in 4 the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath. Also he built Beth-horon the 5 upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars; and Baalath, and 6 all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. As for 7 all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the

Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of 8 Israel; of their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, of them did Solomon raise a levy 9 of bondservants, unto this day. But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of 10 his horsemen. And these were the chief officers of king Solomon, even two hundred and fifty, 11 that bare rule over the people. And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because <sup>1</sup>the places are holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD <sup>are.</sup> hath come.

12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he 13 had built before the porch, even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, 14 and in the feast of tabernacles. And he appointed, according to the ordinance of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise, and to minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required: the doorkeepers also by their courses at every gate: for so had David 15 the man of God commanded. And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any 16 matter, or concerning the treasures. Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was perfected.

Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to 17 Eloth, on the sea shore in the land of Edom.
And Hiram sent him by the hands of his serv- 18 ants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they came with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and fetched from thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

<sup>1</sup> See 1 Kings
x. 1, &c.

<sup>1</sup>And when the queen of Sheba heard of the 1 9 fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great train, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. And 2 Solomon told her all her questions: and there was not any thing hid from Solomon which he told her not. And when the queen of Sheba 3 had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, and the meat of his 4 table, and the sitting of his servants, and the <sup>2</sup>attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.
And she said to the king, It was a true report 5 that I heard in mine own land of thine <sup>3</sup>acts, and of thy wisdom. Howbeit I believed not 6 their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: thou exceedest the fame that I heard. Happy are thy men, 7 and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.
Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted 8 in thee, to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgement 9 and justice. And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave 10 to king Solomon. And the servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought <sup>1</sup>algum trees 11 and precious stones. And the king made of the algum trees terraces for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, and harps and psalteries for the singers: and there were none 12 such seen before in the land of Judah. And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants.

13 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and three-14 score and six talents of gold; beside that which the chapmen and merchants brought: and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten 16 gold went to one target. And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover the king made a great throne of 18 ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and <sup>2</sup>stays on either side by the place of the seat, 19 and two lions standing beside the stays. And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom. And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: silver was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram: once every three years came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. And he ruled over all the kings from the River even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. And they brought horses for Solomon out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

- 10 <sup>1</sup> And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king. And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of king Solomon,) that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup> And they sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came, and they spake to Rehoboam, saying, Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee. <sup>3</sup> And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed. <sup>4</sup> And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people? And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever. <sup>5</sup> But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men that were grown up with him, that stood before him. And he said unto them, What counsel give ye, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that thy father did put upon us lighter? And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say unto the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. So Jeroboam and all the people <sup>12</sup> came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come to me again the third day. And the king answered them roughly; and king <sup>13</sup> Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, and spake to them after the counsel of the <sup>14</sup> young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. So the king hearkened not <sup>15</sup> unto the people; for it was brought about of God, that the LORD might establish his word, which he spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. And <sup>16</sup> when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So all Israel departed unto their tents. But as for <sup>17</sup> the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. Then <sup>18</sup> king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the levy; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. And king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. So Israel rebelled against the <sup>19</sup> house of David, unto this day.

xii. 21—24.

salem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. But the word of the LORD came <sup>2</sup> to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, Speak <sup>3</sup> unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Ben-

4 jamin, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren : return every man to his house ; for this thing is of me. So they hearkened unto the words of the LORD, and returned from going against 5 Jeroboam. And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusa-6 lem, and built cities for defence in Judah. He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, 7, 8 and Beth-zur, and Soco, and Adullam, and 9 Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph, and Adoraim, 10 and Lachish, and Azekah, and Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and 11 in Benjamin, fenced cities. And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, 12 and store of victual, and oil and wine. And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong. And Judah 13 and Benjamin belonged to him. And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel 14 resorted to him out of all their border. For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem : for Jeroboam and his sons cast them off, that they should not execute the priest's office unto 15 the LORD : and he appointed him priests for the high places, and for the <sup>1</sup>he-goats, and for 16 the calves which he had made. And after them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice unto 17 the LORD, the God of their fathers. So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years : for they walked three years in the way of 18 David and Solomon. And Rehoboam took him a wife, Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, <sup>2</sup>and of Abihail the daughter of 19 Eliab the son of Jesse ; and she bare him sons ; he took <sup>1</sup>Maacah the daughter of Absalom; and she bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith. And Rehoboam loved Maacah the <sup>21</sup> daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines, and begat twenty and eight sons and threescore daughters.) And <sup>22</sup> Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah to be chief, even the prince among his brethren: for he was minded to make him king. And he <sup>23</sup> dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them victual in abundance. And he <sup>2</sup>sought for them many wives.

<sup>3</sup> See 1 Kings
xiv. 25, &c.

And it came to pass, when the kingdom of <sup>1</sup> 12 Rehoboam was established, and he was strong, that he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him. <sup>2</sup>And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had trespassed against the LORD, with <sup>3</sup> twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians. And <sup>4</sup> he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came unto Jerusalem. Now She-<sup>5</sup> maiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak. Then the princes of Israel <sup>6</sup> and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous. And when the <sup>7</sup> LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; I will not destroy them: but I will grant them <sup>1</sup>some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out 8 upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the king-9 doms of the countries. So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all away: he took away also the shields of gold 10 which Solomon had made. And king Rehoboam made in their stead shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the <sup>2</sup>guard, that kept the door of the king's house.

 11 And it was so, that as oft as the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and bare them, and brought them back into the 12 guard chamber. And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: and moreover in Judah <sup>3</sup>there were good things found.
 13 <sup>4</sup>So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.
 14 And he did that which was evil, because he set 15 not his heart to seek the LORD. <sup>5</sup>Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the <sup>6</sup>histories of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, <sup>7</sup>after the manner of genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and 16 Jeroboam continually. And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city

<sup>1</sup>In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam 13 began Abijah to reign over Judah. Three years <sup>2</sup> reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was <sup>2</sup>Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.
<sup>3</sup>And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. And Abijah joined battle with an army of <sup>3</sup> valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: and Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valour.
 And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, <sup>4</sup> which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, Hear me, O Jeroboam and all Israel; ought ye <sup>5</sup> not to know that the LORD, the God of Israel, gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?
 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of <sup>6</sup> Solomon the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. And there were gathered unto <sup>7</sup> him vain men, sons of <sup>4</sup>Belial, which strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them. And <sup>8</sup> now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods. Have ye not driven out the priests of <sup>9</sup> the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the peoples of other lands? so that whosoever cometh to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods. But as for us, <sup>10</sup> the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and we have priests ministering unto the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites in 11 their work : and they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweet incense : the shewbread also set they in order upon the pure table ; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening : for we keep the charge of the LORD our God ; but ye have forsaken him.

12 And, behold, God is with us at our head, and his priests with the trumpets of alarm to sound an alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the LORD, the God of your 13 fathers ; for ye shall not prosper. But Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind them : so they were before Judah, and the 14 ambushment was behind them. And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind them : and they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.
15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout : and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before 16 Abijah and Judah. And the children of Israel fled before Judah : and God delivered them into 17 their hand. And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter : so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen 18 men. Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD, 19 the God of their fathers. And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and <sup>1</sup>Ephron with the towns 20 thereof. Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah : and the LORD 21 smote him, and he died. But Abijah waxed mighty, and took unto himself fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters. And the rest of the acts of Abijah, <sup>22</sup> and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

<sup>1</sup> So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they <sup>1</sup> 14 buried him in the city of David, and Asa his son reigned in his stead: in his days the land was quiet ten years. And Asa did that which <sup>2</sup> was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God: for he took away the strange altars, and <sup>3</sup> the high places, and brake down the <sup>2</sup>pillars, and hewed down the <sup>3</sup>Asherim; and commanded <sup>4</sup> Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. Also he took away out of all the cities <sup>5</sup> of Judah the high places and the sun-images: and the kingdom was quiet before him. And <sup>6</sup> he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest. For he <sup>7</sup> said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars; the land is yet before us, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side.
So they built and prospered. And Asa had an <sup>8</sup> army that bare bucklers and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour. And there came out against <sup>9</sup> them Zerah the Ethiopian with an army of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and he came unto Mareshah. Then Asa went <sup>10</sup> out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. And <sup>11</sup> Asa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, <sup>4</sup>there is none <sup>5</sup>beside thee to help, between the mighty and him that hath no strength: help us, O LORD our God; for we rely on thee, and in thy name are we come against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not 12 man prevail against thee. So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; 13 and the Ethiopians fled. And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto Gerar: and there fell of the Ethiopians <sup>1</sup>so many that they could not recover themselves; for they were <sup>2</sup>destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very 14 much booty. And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for <sup>3</sup>the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; 15 for there was much spoil in them. They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep in abundance and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Or, a terror from the LORD

15 1 And the spirit of God came upon Azariah 2 the son of Oded: and he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: the LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he 3 will forsake you. Now for <sup>4</sup>long seasons Israel hath been without the true God, and without 4 a teaching priest, and without law: but when in their distress they turned unto the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of 5 them. And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants 6 of the lands. And they were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city: for 7 God did vex them with all adversity. But be ye strong, and let not your hands be slack: 8 for your work shall be rewarded. And when

Asa heard these words, <sup>1</sup>and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill country of Ephraim; and he renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD. And he gathered <sup>9</sup> all Judah and Benjamin, and them that sojourned with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him. So they gathered <sup>10</sup> themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. And they sacrificed unto the LORD in <sup>11</sup> that day, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. And they entered into the covenant to seek the <sup>12</sup> LORD, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul; and that who- <sup>13</sup> soever would not seek the LORD, the God of Israel, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. And <sup>14</sup> they swore unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets. And all Judah rejoiced at the <sup>15</sup> oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave <sup>16</sup> them rest round about. <sup>2</sup>And also Maacah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being <sup>3</sup>queen, because she had made an abominable image <sup>4</sup>for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and made dust of it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron. But the high places were <sup>17</sup> not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. And he <sup>18</sup> brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

16 1 <sup>1</sup>In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at <sup>2</sup>Damascus, saying, <sup>3</sup>There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the <sup>4</sup>store cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease. Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah. And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and hast not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand. Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubim a huge host, with chariots and horsemen exceeding many? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand. For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly; for from henceforth thou shalt have wars. Then Asa was wroth <sup>10</sup> with the seer, and put him in the <sup>1</sup>prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time. <sup>2</sup>And, behold, the acts of Asa, <sup>11</sup> first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. And in the <sup>12</sup> thirty and ninth year of his reign Asa was diseased in his feet; his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians. And Asa slept <sup>13</sup> with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. And they buried him in his <sup>14</sup> own sepulchres, which he had hewn out for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him.

And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, <sup>1</sup> 17 and strengthened himself against Israel. And <sup>2</sup> he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, <sup>3</sup> because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto the Baalim; but <sup>4</sup> sought to the God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel. Therefore the LORD stablished the king- <sup>5</sup> dom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance. And his heart was lifted <sup>6</sup> up in the ways of the LORD: and furthermore he took away the high places and the Asherim

7 out of Judah. Also in the third year of his reign he sent his princes, even Ben-hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethanel, and 8 Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah; and with them the Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.
9 And they taught in Judah, having the book of the law of the LORD with them; and they went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and 10 taught among the people. And <sup>1</sup>the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they 11 made no war against Jehoshaphat. And some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver for tribute; the Arabians also brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred 12 he-goats. And Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah castles and 13 cities of store. And he had many works in the cities of Judah; and men of war, mighty men 14 of valour, in Jerusalem. And this was the numbering of them according to their fathers' houses: of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the captain, and with him mighty men 15 of valour three hundred thousand: and next to him Jehohanan the captain, and with him two 16 hundred and fourscore thousand: and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour: 17 and of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him two hundred thousand 18 armed with bow and shield: and next to him Jehozabad, and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand ready prepared for war. These <sup>19</sup> were they that waited on the king, beside those whom the king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah.

Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in <sup>1</sup> 18 abundance; and he joined affinity with Ahab.

<sup>1</sup> And after certain years he went down to Ahab <sup>2</sup> to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that were with him, and moved him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead. And Ahab king of <sup>3</sup> Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war. And Jehoshaphat said unto the <sup>4</sup> king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day. Then the king of Israel <sup>5</sup> gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God shall deliver it into the hand of the king. But Jehoshaphat <sup>6</sup> said, Is there not here besides a prophet of the LORD, that we might inquire of him? And the <sup>7</sup> king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesieth good concerning me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. Then the king <sup>8</sup> of Israel called an <sup>2</sup> officer, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla. Now the <sup>9</sup> king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they sat in <sup>3</sup> an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. And Zedek- <sup>10</sup> iah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until they be consumed. And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what 14 my God saith, that will I speak. And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, <sup>1</sup>Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper; and they shall be delivered 15 into your hand. And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou speak unto me nothing but the truth in the 16 name of the LORD? And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return every 17 man to his house in peace. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good concerning 18 me, but evil? And he said, Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall <sup>2</sup>entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that 20 manner. And there came forth <sup>3</sup>a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

And he said, I will go forth, and will be a <sup>21</sup> lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt entice him, and shalt prevail also: go forth, and do so. Now there- <sup>22</sup> fore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets; and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee. Then <sup>23</sup> Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee? And Micaiah said, Behold, <sup>24</sup> thou shalt see on that day, when thou shalt go <sup>1</sup>into an inner chamber to hide thyself. And <sup>25</sup> the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; and say, Thus <sup>26</sup> saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison; and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace. And <sup>27</sup> Micaiah said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, <sup>2</sup>Hear, ye peoples, all of you.

So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the <sup>28</sup> king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. And <sup>29</sup> the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into the battle. Now the king of Syria had commanded the capt- <sup>30</sup> ains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel. And it came to pass, when the captains of the <sup>31</sup> chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they turned about to fight against him: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him. And it came to pass, when <sup>32</sup> the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from 33 pursuing him. And a certain man drew his bow <sup>1</sup>at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between <sup>2</sup>the joints of the harness: wherefore he said to the driver of the chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am 34 sore wounded. And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the going down of the sun he died.

19 <sup>1</sup> And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned <sup>2</sup> to his house in peace to Jerusalem. And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the wicked, and love them that hate the LORD? for this thing wrath is upon thee 3 from before the LORD. Nevertheless there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast put away the Asheroth out of the land, and hast set thine heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD, the God of 5 their fathers. And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city 6 by city, and said to the judges, Consider what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD; and he is with you <sup>3</sup>in the judgement.
 7 Now therefore let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of 8 persons, nor taking of gifts. Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites and the priests, and of the heads of the fathers' houses of Israel, for the judgement of the LORD, and for controversies. And they returned to Jerusalem. And he charged them, saying, 9 Thus shall ye do in the fear of the LORD, faith- 10 fully, and with a perfect heart. And whenso-ever any controversy shall come to you from your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgements, ye shall warn them, that they be not guilty towards the LORD, and so wrath come upon you and upon your brethren : this do, and ye shall not be guilty.

 And, behold, Amariah the chief priest is over 11 you in all matters of the LORD ; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all the king's matters : also the Levites shall be officers before you. <sup>1</sup>Deal cour-ageously, and the LORD be with the good.

<sup>1</sup> Heb. Be strong and do.

And it came to pass after this, that the child- 1 20 ren of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them some of the <sup>2</sup>Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. Then there came some 2 that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea from Syria ; and, behold, they be in Haz-azon-tamar (the same is En-gedi). And Jeho- 3 shaphat feared, and set himself to seek unto the LORD ; and he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. And Judah gathered themselves to- 4 gether, to seek help of the LORD : even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.
 And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of 5 Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court ; and he said, O LORD, the 6 God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and art not thou ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations ? and in thine hand is power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee.
 Didst not thou, O our God, drive out the in- 7 habitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend 8 for ever? And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, say-9 ing, If evil come upon us, <sup>1</sup>the sword, judgement, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house, and before thee, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, 10 and thou wilt hear and save. And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned aside from them, and 11 destroyed them not; behold, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession, 12 which thou hast given us to inherit. O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but 13 our eyes are upon thee. And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their 14 wives, and their children. Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, came the spirit of the 15 LORD in the midst of the congregation; and he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat: thus saith the LORD unto you, Fear not ye, neither be dismayed by reason of this great multitude; 16 for the battle is not yours, but God's. Tomorrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the ascent of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilder-17 ness of Jeruel. Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed: tomorrow go out against them; for the LORD

<sup>1</sup> Or, the sword is with you. And Jehoshaphat bowed his head 18 with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshipping the LORD. And the 19 Levites, of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites, stood up to praise the LORD, the God of Israel, with an exceeding loud voice. And they rose early in 20 the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper. And when 21 he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed them that should sing unto the LORD, and praise <sup>1</sup>the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and say, Give thanks unto the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.

And when they began to sing and to praise, the 22 LORD set liers in wait against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.
For the children of Ammon and Moab stood 23 up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another. And when 24 Judah came to the watch-tower of the wilderness, they looked upon the multitude; and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none that escaped. And 25 when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches and <sup>2</sup>dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away:
and they were three days in taking of the spoil, 26 it was so much. And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of <sup>1</sup>Beracah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of that place was called The valley of 27 Beracah, unto this day. Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had made 28 them to rejoice over their enemies. And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD.

 29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that the LORD 30 fought against the enemies of Israel. So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his God gave him rest round about.

31 <sup>2</sup>And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes 32 of the LORD. Howbeit the high places were not taken away; neither as yet had the people set their hearts unto the God of their fathers.
 33 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the <sup>3</sup>history of Jehu the son of Hanani, <sup>4</sup>which is inserted in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 <sup>5</sup>And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel; the 36 same did very wickedly: and he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-geber. Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath <sup>1</sup>destroyed thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

 was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead. And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, <sup>2</sup> Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. And <sup>3</sup> their father gave them great gifts, of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn. Now when <sup>4</sup> Jehoram was risen up over the kingdom of his father, and had strengthened himself, he slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel. <sup>3</sup> Jehoram was thirty <sup>5</sup> and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he <sup>6</sup> walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. Howbeit the LORD <sup>7</sup> would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his children alway. In his days Edom <sup>8</sup> revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. Then Jehoram <sup>9</sup> passed over with his captains, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots. So Edom revolted from under the hand <sup>10</sup> of Judah, unto this day: then did Libnah revolt at the same time from under his hand: because he had forsaken the LORD, the God of

11 his fathers. Moreover he made high places in the <sup>1</sup>mountains of Judah, and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, and 12 <sup>2</sup>led Judah astray. And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa 13 king of Judah; but hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like as the house of Ahab <sup>3</sup>did; and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which 14 were better than thyself: behold, the LORD will smite with a great <sup>4</sup>plague thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy substance: 15 and thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by 16 reason of the sickness, <sup>5</sup>day by day. And the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians which are 17 beside the Ethiopians: and they came up against Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found <sup>6</sup>in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save <sup>7</sup>Jehoahaz, 18 the youngest of his sons. And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an in-19 curable disease. And it came to pass, in process of time, at the end of two years, that his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.
 20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years: and he departed without being desired; and they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

<sup>1</sup> And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made <sup>1</sup> 22
for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. <sup>3</sup> Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem : and his mother's name was Athaliah the <sup>4</sup> daughter of Omri. He also <sup>3</sup> walked in the ways of the house of Ahab : for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly. And he did that which was evil in the sight <sup>4</sup> of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab : for they were his counsellors after the death of his father, to his destruction. He walked also after <sup>5</sup> their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead : and the Syrians wounded Joram. And he returned to be healed <sup>6</sup> in Jezreel <sup>5</sup> of the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And <sup>6</sup> Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick. Now the <sup>7</sup> destruction of Ahaziah was of God, <sup>7</sup> in that he went unto Joram : for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. <sup>8</sup> And it came to <sup>8</sup> pass, when Jehu was executing judgement upon the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, ministering to Ahaziah, and slew them. <sup>9</sup> And <sup>9</sup> he sought Ahaziah, and they caught him, (now he was hiding in Samaria,) and they brought him to Jehu, and slew him; and they buried him, for they said, He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. <sup>10</sup> And the house of Ahaziah had no power to hold the kingdom.

10 <sup>1</sup>Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of 11 Judah. But <sup>2</sup>Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in the <sup>3</sup>bed-chamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him 12 from Athaliah, so that she slew him not. And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

23 <sup>1</sup>And in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with 2 him. And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of fathers' houses of Israel, 3 and they came to Jerusalem. And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath spoken concerning the sons of David.
4 This is the thing that ye shall do: <sup>5</sup>a third part of you, that come in on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of 5 the <sup>6</sup>doors; and a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in 6 the courts of the house of the LORD. But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall come in, for they are holy : but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD. And the Levites shall compass the king round <sup>7</sup> about, every man with his weapons in his hand ; and whosoever cometh into the house, let him be slain : and be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out. So the Levites <sup>8</sup> and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded : and they took every man his men, those that were to come in on the sabbath, with those that were to go out on the sabbath ; for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses. And Jehoiada the priest de- <sup>9</sup> livered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God. And <sup>10</sup> he set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right <sup>1</sup>side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, by the king round about. Then <sup>11</sup> they brought out the king's son, and <sup>2</sup>put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king : and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him ; and they said, <sup>3</sup>God save the king. And when Athaliah heard the noise <sup>4</sup>of <sup>12</sup> the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD : and she looked, and, behold, the king stood by <sup>13</sup> his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets by the king ; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets ; the singers also played on instruments of music, and led the singing of praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason, treason. And <sup>14</sup> Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth between the ranks ; and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword: for the priest said, Slay her not in 15 the house of the LORD. So they made way for her; and she went to the entry of the horse gate to the king's house: and they slew her there.

16 And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, and all the people, and the king, that they 17 should be the LORD'S people. And all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal 18 before the altars. And Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD under the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with 19 singing, <sup>1</sup>according to the order of David. And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any 20 thing should enter in. And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the upper gate unto the king's house, and set the king 21 upon the throne of the kingdom. So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword.

24 1 <sup>2</sup>Joash was seven years old when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-2 sheba. And Joash did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada 3 the priest. And Jehoiada took for him two 4 wives; and he begat sons and daughters. And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded 5 to restore the house of the LORD. And he

gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not. And the king <sup>6</sup> called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the tax of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation <sup>1</sup> of Israel, for the tent of the testimony? For the sons of Athaliah, that <sup>7</sup> wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon the Baalim. So the king commanded, and they <sup>8</sup> made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD. And they made a <sup>9</sup> proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness. And all the princes and all the people <sup>10</sup> rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. And it was so, <sup>11</sup> that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's <sup>2</sup> office <sup>3</sup> by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's <sup>4</sup> scribe and the chief priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such <sup>12</sup> as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to repair the house of the LORD. So the workmen wrought, <sup>13</sup> and <sup>5</sup> the work was perfected by them, and they set up the house of God <sup>1</sup>in its state, and strength-14 ened it. And when they had made an end, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and <sup>2</sup>to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of <sup>2</sup>Or, pestles gold and silver. And they offered burnt offer-15 ings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada. But Jehoiada waxed old and was full of days, and he died; an hundred 16 and thirty years old was he when he died. And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and 17 toward God and his house. Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the 18 king hearkened unto them. And they forsook the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this 19 their guiltiness. Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give 20 ear. And the spirit of God <sup>3</sup>came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath 21 also forsaken you. And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house 22 of the LORD. Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and re-23 quire it. And it came to pass at the <sup>4</sup>end of the year, that the army of the Syrians came up against him : and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus. For <sup>24</sup> the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men ; and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. So they executed <sup>1</sup> judgement upon Joash. And <sup>25</sup> when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the <sup>2</sup> sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died : and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings. And these are they that conspired against him ; <sup>3</sup> Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of <sup>4</sup> Shimrith the Moabitess. Now concerning his <sup>27</sup> sons, and the greatness of the burdens <sup>5</sup> laid upon him, and the <sup>6</sup> rebuilding of the house of God, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

<sup>7</sup> Amaziah was twenty and five years old when <sup>1</sup> 25 he began to reign ; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem : and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. And he <sup>2</sup> did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. Now it <sup>3</sup> came to pass, when the kingdom was established unto him, that he slew his servants which had killed the king his father. But he put not their <sup>4</sup> children to death, but did according to that which is written in the law in the book of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers ; but every man

5 shall die for his own sin. Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and ordered them according to their fathers' houses, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found them three hundred thousand chosen men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and 6 shield. He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an 7 hundred talents of silver. But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of 8 Ephraim. But <sup>1</sup>if thou wilt go, do valiantly, be <sup>1</sup>Or, go thou strong for the battle: God shall cast thee down before the enemy; for God hath power to help, 9 and to cast down. And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the 2army of Israel? And the man of God answered, <sup>2</sup>Heb. troop. The LORD is able to give thee much 10 more than this. Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the 2army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and 11 they returned home in fierce anger. And Amaziah took courage, and led forth his people, and went to <sup>3</sup>the Valley of Salt, and smote of <sup>3</sup>See 2 Kings 12 the children of Seir ten thousand. And other <sup>xiv. 7.</sup> ten thousand did the children of Judah carry away alive, and brought them unto the top of 4the rock, and cast them down from the top of 4the rock, that they all were broken 13 in pieces. But <sup>5</sup>the men of the army which <sup>5</sup>Heb. the sons of the troop. Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote of them three thousand, and took much spoil.

Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was <sup>14</sup> come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them. Wherefore the anger of the LORD was <sup>15</sup> kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which have not delivered their own people out of thine hand? And it came to pass, as he talked with <sup>16</sup> him, that the king said unto him, Have we made thee of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

<sup>3</sup> Or, provoke calamity one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which 22 belongeth to Judah. And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to 23 his tent. And Joash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim unto <sup>1</sup>the corner 24 gate, four hundred cubits. And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with <sup>2</sup>Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz 26 king of Israel fifteen years. Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of 27 Judah and Israel? Now from the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the LORD they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.
 28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in <sup>3</sup>the city of Judah.

26 <sup>1</sup> And all the people of Judah took <sup>4</sup>Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king 2 in the room of his father Amaziah. He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the 3 king slept with his fathers. <sup>5</sup>Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jechiliah of Jerusalem.
 4 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father 5 Amaziah had done. And he set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who <sup>6</sup>had under-against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Meunim. And 8 the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he waxed exceeding strong. More- 9 over Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. And 10 he built towers in the wilderness, and hewed out many cisterns, for he had much cattle; in the lowland also, and in the <sup>1</sup>plain: and he had husbandmen and vinedressers in the mountains and in <sup>2</sup>the fruitful fields; for he loved husbandry. Moreover Uzziah had an army of 11 fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. The whole number of the 12 heads of fathers' houses, even the mighty men of valour, was two thousand and six hundred.

 And under their hand was <sup>3</sup>a trained army, 13 three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. And Uzziah prepared for them, even for all the 14 host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, and stones for slinging.
 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented 15 by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the <sup>4</sup>battlements, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

16 But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up <sup>1</sup>so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against the LORD his God; for he went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the 17 altar of incense. And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of 18 the LORD, that were valiant men: and they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It pertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from 19 the LORD God. Then Uzziah was wroth; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy <sup>2</sup>brake forth in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the 20 altar of incense. And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from thence; yea, himself hasted also to go out, because the LORD had 21 smitten him. <sup>3</sup>And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a <sup>4</sup>several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the 22 land. Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write. So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and 23 they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

27 <sup>1</sup> Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. And he did <sup>2</sup> that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet corruptly. He <sup>3</sup> built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much. More- <sup>4</sup> over he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers. He fought also with the king of the children of <sup>5</sup> Ammon, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand <sup>1</sup> measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon render unto him, in the second year also, and in the third. So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered <sup>6</sup> his ways before the LORD his God. Now the <sup>7</sup> rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. He was five <sup>8</sup> and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And <sup>9</sup> Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

<sup>2</sup> Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to <sup>1</sup> 28 reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, like David his father: but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, <sup>2</sup> and made also molten images for the Baalim. Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the <sup>3</sup> son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the 4 children of Israel. And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and 5 under every green tree. Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away of his a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote 6 him with a great slaughter. For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD, the God 7 of their fathers. And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah 8 that was 'next to the king. And the children of <sup>1 Heb. second.</sup> Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and 9 brought the spoil to Samaria. But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out to meet the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage which 10 hath reached up unto heaven. And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not even with you <sup>2 Heb. guiltinesses.</sup> <sup>2</sup>trespasses 11 of your own against the LORD your God? Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, and said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither : for ye purpose that which will bring upon us <sup>1</sup>a trespass against the LORD, to add unto our sins and to our <sup>1</sup>trespass : for our <sup>1</sup>trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation. And the men which have been expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto their brethren : then they returned to Samaria.

<sup>2</sup> At that time did king Ahaz send unto the <sup>3</sup>kings of Assyria to help him. For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away <sup>4</sup>captives. The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Soco with the <sup>5</sup>towns thereof, and Timnah with the <sup>5</sup>towns thereof, Gimzo also and the <sup>5</sup>towns thereof : and they dwelt there. For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel ; for he had <sup>6</sup>dealt wantonly in Judah, and trespassed sore against the LORD. And Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came <sup>7</sup>unto him, and distressed him, but <sup>8</sup>strengthened him not. For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria : but it helped him not. And in the time <sup>9</sup>of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD, this same king Ahaz. For he sacrificed unto the gods of <sup>1</sup>Damascus, which smote him : and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were 24 the ruin of him, and of all Israel. And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD ; and he made him altars in every 25 corner of Jerusalem. And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the 26 LORD, the God of his fathers. Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of 27 Judah and Israel. And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem ; for they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel : and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

<sup>1</sup> Heb.
Darmesek.

29 <sup>1</sup> <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old ; and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem : and his mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.
 2 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father 3 had done. He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house 4 of the LORD, and repaired them. And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the broad place 5 on the east, and said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites ; now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy 6 place. For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs. Also they 7 have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel. Wherefore the wrath of the 8 LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to be <sup>1</sup>tossed to and fro, to be an astonishment, and an hissing, as ye see with your eyes. For, lo, our fathers have fallen 9 by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. Now it 10 is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn away from us. My sons, be not now 11 negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to minister unto him, and that ye should be his ministers, and burn incense.

xviii. 1—3.

Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of 12 Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel: and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah: and of 13 the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel: and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah: and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei: 14 and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. And they gathered their brethren, and 15 sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the king by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD. And the priests went in unto the inner part of 16 the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry

17 it out abroad to the brook Kidron. Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD; and they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days: and on the sixteenth day of the first month they 18 made an end. Then they went in to Hezekiah the king within the palace, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the table of shewbread, with all the vessels 19 thereof. Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away when he trespassed, have we prepared and sanctified; and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.
20 Then Hezekiah the king arose early, and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to 21 the house of the LORD. And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to 22 offer them on the altar of the LORD. So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: and they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled 23 the blood upon the altar. And they brought near the he-goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their 24 hands upon them: and the priests killed them, and they made a sin offering with their blood upon the altar, to make atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.
25 And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for the commandment was of the LORD by his prophets. And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also, and the trumpets, together with the instruments of David king of Israel. And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves and worshipped. Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings. And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify them-

35 selves than the priests. And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house 36 of the LORD was set in order. And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

30 <sup>1</sup> And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the 2 LORD, the God of Israel. For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in 3 the second month. For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves together 4 to Jerusalem. And the thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the congregation.
5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem: for they had not kept it <sup>1</sup>in great 6 numbers in such sort as it is written. So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may return to the remnant that are escaped of you out of the hand of the kings 7 of Assyria. And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD, the God of their fathers, so that he 8 gave them up <sup>2</sup>to desolation, as ye see. Now

be ye not stiffnecked, as your fathers were ; but <sup>1</sup>yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever, and serve the LORD your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you. For if ye <sup>9</sup> turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that led them captive, and shall come again into this land : for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him. So the posts <sup>10</sup> passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun : but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh <sup>11</sup> and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. Also in Judah was the hand of <sup>12</sup> God to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the princes by the word of the LORD. And there assembled <sup>13</sup> at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation. And they arose and took <sup>14</sup> away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the <sup>2</sup>altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron. Then they killed <sup>15</sup> the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month : and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into the house of the LORD. And they stood in their place after their order, <sup>16</sup> according to the law of Moses the man of God : the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites. For there <sup>17</sup> were many in the congregation that had not sanctified themselves : therefore the Levites had the charge of killing the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto

18 the LORD. For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying,

19 The good LORD pardon <sup>1</sup>every one that setteth his heart to seek God, the LORD, the God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according 20 to the purification of the sanctuary. And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the 21 people. And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instru-

22 ments unto the LORD. And Hezekiah spake comfortably unto all the Levites that were well skilled in the service of the LORD. So they did eat throughout the feast for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace offerings, and <sup>2</sup>making confession to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

23 And the whole congregation took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other

24 seven days with gladness. For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation for offerings a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified them-

25 selves. And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that

26 dwelt in Judah, rejoiced. So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not

27 the like in Jerusalem. Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy habitation, even unto heaven.

Now when all this was finished, all Israel 1 31 that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake in pieces the <sup>1</sup>pillars, and hewed down the Asherim, and brake down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities. And Hezekiah appointed 2 the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD. He appointed also the king's 3 portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD. More- 4 over he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might <sup>2</sup>give themselves to the law of the LORD. And as soon as the 5 commandment came abroad, the children of Israel gave in abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. And the children of Israel 6 and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps. In the third month they began 7 to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. And when Hez- 8 ekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and 10 the Levites concerning the heaps. And Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, Since the people began to bring the oblations into the house of the LORD, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that 11 which is left is this great store. Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house 12 of the LORD; and they prepared them. And they brought in the oblations and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his 13 brother was second. And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah 14 the ruler of the house of God. And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter at the east gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the 15 most holy things. And under him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their <sup>1</sup>set office, to give to their 16 brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small: beside them that were reckoned by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even every one that entered into the house of the LORD, <sup>2</sup>as the duty of every day required, for their service in their charges according to their courses; and them that were 17 reckoned by genealogy of the priests by their fathers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses; <sup>1</sup>and them that were reckoned by 18 genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their <sup>2</sup>set office they sanctified themselves in holiness: also for the 19 sons of Aaron the priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, there were men that were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogy among the Levites. And thus did 20 Hezekiah throughout all Judah; and he wrought that which was good and right and <sup>3</sup>faithful before the LORD his God. And in every work 21 that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

<sup>4</sup>After these things, and this faithfulness, 1 32 Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought <sup>5</sup>to win them for himself. And 2 when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that <sup>6</sup>he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem, he took counsel with his princes and his 3 mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city; and they helped him. So there was gathered much people 4 together, and they stopped all the fountains, and the brook that flowed through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water? And he took 5 courage, and built up all the wall that was broken down, and <sup>7</sup>raised it up to the towers, and <sup>8</sup>the other wall without, and strengthened Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. And he set captains 6 of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the broad place at the gate of the city, and spake comfortably to them, saying, 7 Be strong and of a good courage, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for <sup>1</sup>there is a 8 greater with us than with him: with him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the 9 people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (now he was before Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah 10 that were at Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, 11 that ye abide <sup>2</sup>the siege in Jerusalem? Doth not Hezekiah persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the 12 king of Assyria? Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and upon it shall 13 ye burn incense? Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands any ways able to deliver their land out 14 of mine hand? Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers <sup>3</sup>utterly 15 destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand? Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither believe ye him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the

<sup>1</sup> Or, gods <sup>1</sup> God deliver you out of mine hand? And his <sup>16</sup> servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah. He wrote <sup>17</sup> <sup>2</sup> Or, a letter also <sup>2</sup> letters, to rail on the LORD, the God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand. And they cried with a loud voice <sup>18</sup> in the Jews' language unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them ; that they might take the city. And they spake of the God of Jerusalem, <sup>19</sup> as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands. And Hezekiah <sup>20</sup> the king, and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven. And the LORD sent an angel, which <sup>21</sup> cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels <sup>3</sup> slew him there with the sword.
<sup>3</sup> Heb. caused him to fall. Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabit- <sup>22</sup> ants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side. And <sup>23</sup> many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah : so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

<sup>5</sup> Or, wonder <sup>4</sup> In those days Hezekiah was sick even unto <sup>24</sup> death : and he prayed unto the LORD ; and he spake unto him, and gave him a <sup>5</sup> sign. But <sup>25</sup> Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him ; for his heart was lifted up; therefore there was wrath upon him, and 26 upon Judah and Jerusalem. Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for <sup>1</sup>the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon 27 them in the days of Hezekiah. And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he provided him treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of goodly vessels; 28 storehouses also for the increase of corn and wine and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, 29 and flocks in folds. Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him very much 30 substance. This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in 31 all his works. Howbeit in the business of the <sup>2</sup>ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he 32 might know all that was in his heart. Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the book of the 33 kings of Judah and Israel. And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

before the children of Israel. For he built <sup>3</sup> again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down ; and he reared up altars for the Baalim, and made Asheroth, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. And <sup>4</sup> he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever. And he built altars for all the host <sup>5</sup> of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. He also made his children to pass <sup>6</sup> through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom : and he practised augury, and used enchantments, and practised sorcery, and dealt with them that had familiar spirits, and with wizards : he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. And he <sup>7</sup> set the graven image of the idol, which he had made, in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever : neither will I any more remove the foot <sup>8</sup> of Israel from off the land which I have appointed for your fathers ; if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses. And Manasseh <sup>9</sup> made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, so that they did evil more than did the nations, whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel. And the LORD spake to <sup>10</sup> Manasseh, and to his people : but they gave no heed. Wherefore the LORD brought upon them <sup>11</sup> the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh <sup>1</sup>in chains, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. And <sup>12</sup> when he was in distress, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the

- 13 God of his fathers. And he prayed unto him ; and he was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he was God.
- 14 Now after this he built an outer wall to the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate ; and he compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height: and he put <sup>1</sup>valiant captains <sup>1</sup> Or, captains of the army

His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up the Asherim and the graven images, before he humbled himself: behold, they are written in the history of <sup>3</sup>Hozai. <sup>3</sup> Or, the seers father : and Amon sacrificed unto all the graven images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. And he humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself ; but this same Amon <sup>1</sup>trespassed more and more. And his servants conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house. But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon ; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

<sup>2</sup>Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign ; and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left. For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father : and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the graven images, and the molten images. And they brake down the altars of the Baalim in his presence ; and the sun-images, that were on high above them, he hewed down ; and the Asherim, and the graven images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them. And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem. And so did he in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, <sup>3</sup>in their ruins round about. And he brake down the altars, and beat the Asherim and the graven images into powder, and hewed down all the sun-images throughout all the land of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem.

- 8 <sup>1</sup>Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the <sup>2</sup>recorder, to repair the house of the
- 9 LORD his God. And they came to Hilkiah the high priest, and delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the <sup>3</sup>door, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, <sup>4</sup>and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 10 And they delivered it into the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and <sup>5</sup>the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD gave it to amend and repair
- 11 the house; even to the carpenters and to the builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.
- 12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, <sup>6</sup>to set it forward: and other of the Levites, all
- 13 that could skill of instruments of music. Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and set forward all that did the work in every manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes,
- 14 and officers, and porters. And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD <sup>7</sup>given by
- 15 Moses. And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah
- 16 delivered the book to Shaphan. And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and moreover brought the king word again, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they do it. And <sup>17</sup> they have <sup>1</sup>emptied out the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen. And Shaphan <sup>18</sup> the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read therein before the king. And it came to <sup>19</sup> pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes. And the king <sup>20</sup> commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and <sup>2</sup>Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, Go ye, inquire of the LORD for me, <sup>21</sup> and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found : for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according unto all that is written in this book. So Hilkiah, and <sup>22</sup> they whom the king had commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of <sup>3</sup>Tokhath, the son of <sup>4</sup>Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe ; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the <sup>5</sup>second quarter ;) and they spake to her to that effect. And she said unto them, Thus saith <sup>23</sup> the LORD, the God of Israel : Tell ye the man that sent you unto me, Thus saith the LORD, <sup>24</sup> Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah : because they <sup>25</sup> have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands ; therefore is my wrath poured out upon this place, and it shall not be quenched. Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: As touching the words which 27 thou hast heard, because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and hast humbled thyself before me, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith 28 the LORD. Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof. And they brought the king word again.

29 <sup>1</sup>Then the king sent and gathered together 30 all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. And the king went up to the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, both great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the 31 LORD. And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this 32 book. And he caused all that were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.
33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were found in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. All his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

And Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD <sup>1</sup> 35 in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. And he <sup>2</sup> set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD.
 And he said unto the Levites that taught all Is- <sup>3</sup> rael, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; there shall no more be a burden upon your shoulders: now serve the LORD your God, and his people Israel. And <sup>4</sup> prepare yourselves after your fathers' houses by your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. And stand in the holy place <sup>5</sup> according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brethren the children of the people, <sup>1</sup>and let there be for each a portion of a fathers' house of the Levites. And kill the passover, <sup>6</sup> and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brethren, to do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. And Josiah <sup>2</sup>gave <sup>7</sup> to the children of the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all of them for the passover offerings, unto all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance. And his <sup>8</sup> princes gave <sup>3</sup>for a freewill offering unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, the rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen. Conaniah <sup>9</sup> also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for the passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and 10 five hundred oxen. So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their courses, according to the 11 king's commandment. And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of their hand, and the Levites flayed them. And they removed the burnt 12 offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so 13 did they with the oxen. And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: and the holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly 14 to all the children of the people. And afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests; because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters were at every gate: they needed not to depart from their service, for their 16 brethren the Levites prepared for them. So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.
17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of 18 unleavened bread seven days. And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did any of the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. In the eighteenth 19 year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

<sup>1</sup>After all this, when Josiah had prepared the 20 temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. But he sent ambassadors 21 to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war; and God <sup>2</sup>hath commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not. Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face 22 from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Neco, from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. And 23 the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded. So his servants took him out 24 of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: 25 and all the singing men and singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations, unto this day; and they made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations. Now the rest of the acts 26 of Josiah, and his good deeds, according to that which is written in the law of the LORD, and his acts, first and last, behold, they are 27 written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

- 36 <sup>1</sup>Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem. Joahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.
- <sup>3</sup>And the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and amerced the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Neco took Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.
- <sup>5</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God. Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his <sup>3</sup>temple at Babylon. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found <sup>4</sup>in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and <sup>5</sup>Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.
- <sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin was <sup>7</sup>eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. And <sup>8</sup>at the return of the year king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and <sup>1</sup>hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD, the God of Israel. Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the heathen; and they polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem. And the LORD, the God of their fathers, sent to them by his messengers, rising up early and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: but they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no <sup>2</sup>remedy. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldeans, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man or ancient: he gave them all into his hand. And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon. And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof. <sup>1</sup> Heb. Coresh.

Now in the first year of <sup>1</sup>Cyrus king of Persia, 1 1 that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremias might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, Thus saith <sup>2</sup> Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD, the God of heaven, given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whosoever there is among you of all his people, his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>2</sup>(he is God,) which is in Jerusalem. And whosoever is left, in any 4 place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of God which is in Jerusalem. Then rose up the heads of fathers' <sup>5</sup> houses of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, even all whose spirit God had stirred to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem. And all they that were 6 round about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered. Also Cyrus the king 7 brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house 8 of his gods; even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, 9 the prince of Judah. And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand 10 chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives; thirty bowls of gold, silver bowls of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

 11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up, when they of the captivity were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

children of Barzillai, which took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name. These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore <sup>1</sup>were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood. And the <sup>2</sup>Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim. The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, beside their menservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred singing men and singing women. Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five; their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty. And some of the heads of fathers' houses, when they came to the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for the house of God to set it up in its place: they gave after their ability into the treasury of the work threescore and one thousand darics of gold, and five thousand <sup>3</sup>pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments. So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

<sup>4</sup>And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law

And <sup>11</sup> they sang one to another in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. But <sup>12</sup> many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' houses, the old men that had seen <sup>1</sup> the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy: so that <sup>13</sup> the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

Now when the adversaries of Judah and <sup>1</sup> Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded a temple unto the LORD, the God of Israel; then they drew near to Zerubbabel, and <sup>2</sup> to the heads of fathers' houses, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; <sup>2</sup> and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assyria, which brought us up hither. But Zerubbabel, <sup>3</sup> and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' houses of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD, the God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us. Then <sup>4</sup> the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and <sup>3</sup> troubled them in building, and hired counsellors against them, <sup>5</sup> to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius

We certify the king that, if this city be builded, 16 and the walls finished, by this means thou shalt have no portion beyond the river. Then sent 17 the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and <sup>1</sup>in the rest of the country beyond the river, Peace, and so forth. The letter which ye sent 18 unto us hath been <sup>2</sup>plainly read before me. And I decreed, and search hath been made, 19 and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein. There have been mighty kings also over Jeru- 20 salem, which have ruled over all the country beyond the river; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid unto them. Make ye now a decree to 21 cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until a decree shall be made by me. And take heed that ye be not slack herein: 22 why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings? Then when the copy of king Ar- 23 taxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power. Then 24 ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and 1 5 Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem; in the name of the God of Israel <sup>3</sup>prophesied they unto them. Then rose up Zerubbabel the 2 son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, 8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth on with who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. But in the first year of 13 Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God. And the 14 gold and silver vessels also of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; and he said unto him, Take these vessels, go, 15 put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in its place. Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and 16 laid the foundations of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not completed. Now therefore, if it seem good to 17 the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

Then Darius the king made a decree, and 1 6 search was made in the house of the <sup>1</sup>archives, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. And there was found at <sup>2</sup>Achmetha, in the 2 palace that is in the province of Media, a roll, and therein was thus written for a record. In 3 the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree; Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, let the house be builded, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits; with three rows of 4 great stones, and <sup>1</sup>a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house: and also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to its place, and thou shalt put them in the house of God. Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-bozenai, and <sup>2</sup>your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence: let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place. Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to these elders of the Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, expenses be given with all diligence unto these men, that they be not hindered. And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail: that they may offer sacrifices of sweet savour unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this: and the God that hath caused his name to dwell there overthrow all kings and peoples, that shall put forth their hand to alter the same, to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. made a decree; let it be done with all diligence.

Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the river, Shethar-bozenai, and their companions, <sup>1</sup>because that Darius the king had sent, did accordingly with all diligence. And the elders of the Jews builded and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. And the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. And they offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses.

And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves <sup>2</sup>together; all of them were pure: and they killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. And the children of Israel, which were come again out of the captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD, the God

7 1 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, 2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son 3 of Ahitub, the son of Amariah, the son of 4 Azariah, the son of Meraioth, the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, 5 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief 6 priest: this Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God 7 upon him. And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh 8 year of Artaxerxes the king. And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the 9 seventh year of the king. For upon the first day of the first month <sup>1</sup>began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good 10 hand of his God upon him. For Ezra had set his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

And of the sons of Adonikam, that were the last; and these are their names, Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males. And of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and <sup>1</sup>Zabbud; and with them seventy males.

And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there we encamped three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, <sup>2</sup>which were teachers. And I sent them forth unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia; and I told them what they should say unto <sup>4</sup>Iddo, and his brethren the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto 18 us ministers for the house of our God. And according to the good hand of our God upon us they brought us <sup>1</sup>a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his 19 brethren, eighteen; and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren 20 and their sons, twenty; and of the Nethinim, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim: all of them were expressed 21 by name. Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a straight way, for us, and for our little ones, and for all our 22 substance. For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them that seek him, for good; but his power and his wrath is against 23 all them that forsake him. So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated 24 of us. Then I separated twelve of the chiefs of the <sup>2</sup>priests, <sup>3</sup>even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and 25 ten of their brethren with them, and weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his princes, and all Israel there present, had 26 offered: I even weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents; of gold an hundred 27 talents; and twenty bowls of gold, of a thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright brass, 28 precious as gold. And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a free-will offering unto the LORD, the God of your fathers. Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the princes of the fathers' houses of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD. So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the liar in wait by the way. And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days. And on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God <sup>1</sup>into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levites; the whole by number and by weight: and all the weight was written at that time. The children of the captivity, which were come out of exile, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD. And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's satraps, and to the governors beyond the river: and they furthered the people and the house of God.

Now when these things were done, the princes drew near unto me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the 2 Egyptians, and the Amorites. For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons; so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the peoples of the lands: yea, the hand of the princes and <sup>1</sup>rulers <sup>1</sup> Or, deputies 3 hath been <sup>2</sup>chief in this trespass. And when I <sup>2</sup> Or, first heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head 4 and of my beard, and sat down astonished. Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the trespass of them of the captivity; and I 5 sat astonished until the evening oblation. And at the evening oblation I arose up from my <sup>3</sup>humiliation, even with my garment and my <sup>3</sup> Or, fasting mantle rent; and I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God; 6 and I said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our 7 guiltiness is grown up unto the heavens. Since the days of our fathers we have been <sup>4</sup>exceeding <sup>4</sup> Heb. in guilty unto this day; and for our iniquities have <sup>great</sup> we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered <sup>guiltiness.</sup> into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to spoiling, and to con-8 fusion of face, as it is this day. And now for a little moment grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a <sup>5</sup>nail in his holy place, that <sup>5</sup> See Is. xxii. our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a <sup>23.</sup> 9 little reviving in our bondage. For we are bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to <sup>1</sup> Or, waste places<sup>2</sup> Or, fence repair the <sup>1</sup>ruins thereof, and to give us a <sup>2</sup>wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. And now, O our <sup>10</sup> God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, which thou hast <sup>11</sup> commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness. Now therefore <sup>12</sup> give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. And after all that is come upon us for <sup>13</sup> our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such a remnant, shall we again break thy command- <sup>14</sup> ments, and join in affinity with the peoples that do these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant, nor any to escape? O LORD, the God of Israel, thou art <sup>15</sup> righteous; for we are left a remnant that is escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our guiltiness; for none can stand before thee because of this.

Now while Ezra prayed, and made con- <sup>1</sup> <sup>10</sup> fession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there was gathered together unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore. And Shecaniah the son of <sup>2</sup> Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have married strange women of the

- peoples of the land: yet now there is hope for 3 Israel concerning this thing. Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of <sup>1</sup>my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; 4 and let it be done according to the law. Arise; for the matter belongeth unto thee, and we are with thee: be of good courage, and do it.
 5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. So 6 they sware. Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib: <sup>2</sup>and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the trespass 7 of them of the captivity. And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jeru-8 salem; and that whosoever came not within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be <sup>3</sup>forfeited, and himself separated from the 9 congregation of the captivity. Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for <sup>4</sup>the great rain.
 10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have trespassed, and have married strange women, to increase the guilt of Israel.
 11 Now therefore <sup>5</sup>make confession unto the LORD, the God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the strange women. Then all <sup>12</sup> the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, <sup>1</sup>As thou hast said concerning us, so must we do. But the people are many, and it is a <sup>13</sup> time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. Let now our princes <sup>2</sup>be appointed for <sup>14</sup> all the congregation, and let all them that are in our cities which have married strange women come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God be turned from us, <sup>3</sup>until this matter be despatched. Only Jona- <sup>15</sup> than the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah <sup>4</sup>stood up against this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. And the children of the captivity did <sup>16</sup> so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of fathers' houses, after their fathers' houses, and all of them by their names, were separated; and they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. And they made an <sup>17</sup> end with all the men that had married strange women by the first day of the first month.

 And among the sons of the priests there were <sup>18</sup> found that had married strange women: namely, of the sons of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brethren, Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. And they gave their hand <sup>19</sup> that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt. And of the sons of Immer; <sup>20</sup> Hanani and Zebadiah. And of the sons of <sup>21</sup> Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and <sup>1</sup> Or, history THE<sup>1</sup> words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. 1 1

Now it came to pass in the month Chisleu, <sup>2</sup> See ch. ii. 1. <sup>2</sup>in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the <sup>3</sup> Or, castle <sup>3</sup>palace, that Hanani, one of my brethren, came, <sup>2</sup> he and certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. And they said unto me, The <sup>3</sup> remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire. And it <sup>4</sup> came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven, and said, I beseech thee, O LORD, the <sup>5</sup> God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments: let thine <sup>6</sup> ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee at this time, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, while I confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: yea, I and my father's house have sinned. We have dealt very corruptly against <sup>7</sup> thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgements, which thou 8 commandedst thy servant Moses. Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye trespass, I will 9 scatter you abroad among the peoples : but if ye return unto me, and keep my commandments and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to cause my name to 10 dwell there. Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy 11 great power, and by thy strong hand. O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who delight to fear thy name : and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man.

(Now I was cupbearer to the king.)

2 1 And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when wine was before him, that I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not 2 been beforetime sad in his presence. And the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very 3 sore afraid. And I said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates 4 thereof are consumed with fire? Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request?
5 So I prayed to the God of heaven. And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build 6 it. And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. Moreover I said unto the king, If it please 7 the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may let me pass through till I come unto Judah; and a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the 8 king's <sup>1</sup>forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the castle which appertaineth to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me. Then I came to the governors beyond the 9 river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen. And when Sanballat 10 the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, for that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. So 11 I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. And I arose in the night, I and some few men 12 with me; neither told I any man what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon. And I went out by night 13 by the valley gate, even toward the dragon's well, and to the dung gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire. Then 14 I went on to the fountain gate and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass. Then went I up in the 15 night by the brook, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned. And the <sup>2</sup>rulers knew not 16

whither I went, or what I did ; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the <sup>1</sup>rulers, nor to the rest <sup>1</sup> Or, deputies 17 that did the work. Then said I unto them, Ye see the evil case that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire : come and let us build up the wall of 18 Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach. And I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me ; as also of the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened 19 their hands for the good work. But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do ? will ye 20 rebel against the king ? Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us ; therefore we his servants will arise and build : but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

3 1 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate ; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it ; even unto the tower of <sup>2</sup>Hammeah <sup>2</sup> Or, The hundred they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananel.
 2 And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to <sup>3</sup>them builded Zaccur the son of <sup>3</sup> Heb. him.
 3 Imri. And the fish gate did the sons of Has-senaah build ; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the bolts thereof, and 4 the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana.
 5 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired ; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their <sup>1</sup>lord. And <sup>2</sup>the old gate repaired Joiada <sup>6</sup> the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the bolts thereof, and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired <sup>7</sup> Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Mero-nothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, which appertained to the throne of the governor beyond the river. Next unto him repaired Uzziel the <sup>8</sup> son of Harhaiah, goldsmiths. And next unto him repaired Hananiah one of the <sup>3</sup>apothecaries, and they <sup>4</sup>fortified Jerusalem even unto the broad wall. And next unto them repaired Rephaiah <sup>9</sup> the son of Hur, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem. And next unto them repaired Je- <sup>10</sup> daiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabneiah. Malchijah the <sup>11</sup> son of Harim, and Hasshub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired another portion, and the tower of the furnaces. And next unto him repaired <sup>12</sup> Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

 The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabit- <sup>13</sup> ants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the bolts thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits of the wall unto the dung gate. And the dung gate repaired <sup>14</sup> Malchijah the son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beth-haccherem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the bolts thereof, and the bars thereof. And the fountain gate repaired Shal- <sup>15</sup> lun the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the bolts thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of <sup>5</sup>Shelah

But it came to pass that, when Sanballat 1 4 heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. And he spake before his brethren and 2 the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? <sup>3</sup> will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, seeing they are burned? Now 3 Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a <sup>4</sup>fox go up, he shall break down their stone wall. Hear, O 4 our God; for we are despised: and turn back their reproach upon their own head, and give them up to spoiling in a land of captivity: and cover 5 not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders. So 6 we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto half the height thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

- 7 But it came to pass that, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that <sup>1</sup>the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went forward, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were 8 very wroth; and they conspired all of them together to come and fight against Jerusalem, 9 and to cause confusion therein. But we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.
- 10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; 11 so that we are not able to build the wall. And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come into the midst of them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.
- 12 And it came to pass that, when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times <sup>2</sup>from all places, Ye must return unto us.
- 13 Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places, I even set the people after their families with their 14 swords, their spears, and their bows. And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the <sup>3</sup>rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons and your daughters, your 15 wives and your houses. And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every 16 one unto his work. And it came to pass from that time forth, that half of my servants wrought in the work, and half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind 17 <sup>4</sup>all the house of Judah. They that builded the wall and they that bare burdens laded themselves, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other held his weapon; and the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. 13

 And he that sounded the trumpet was by me. 13 <sup>1</sup> Or, deputies And I said unto the nobles, and to the <sup>1</sup> rulers 19 and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another: in what place soever 20 ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us; our God shall fight for us. 20 So we wrought in the work: and half of them 21 held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared. Likewise at the same 22 time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labour in the day. So neither I, nor my brethren, 23 nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, <sup>2</sup> every one went with his weapon to the water. 23

Then there arose a great cry of the people 1 5 and of their wives against their brethren the Jews. For there were that said, We, our sons 2 and our daughters, are many: let us get corn, that we may eat and live. Some also there 3 were that said, We are mortgaging our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses: let us get 3 corn, because of the dearth. There were also 4 that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute upon our fields and our vineyards. 4 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, 5 our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be 5 servants, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage already: neither is it in our power 5 to help it; for other men have our fields and 6 our vineyards. And I was very angry when 7 I heard their cry and these words. Then I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the <sup>1</sup>rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I 8 held a great assembly against them. And I said unto them, We after our ability have <sup>2</sup>redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and would ye even sell your brethren, and should they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found never a word.

9 Also I said, The thing that ye do is not good: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the heathen our 10 enemies? And I likewise, my brethren and my servants, do lend them money and corn on usury. I pray you, let us leave off this usury.
11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, 12 that ye exact of them. Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do, even as thou sayest.
Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this 13 promise. Also I shook out my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise; even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did 14 according to this promise. Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor. But <sup>15</sup> the former governors that were before me <sup>1</sup>were chargeable unto the people, and took of them bread and wine, <sup>2</sup>beside forty shekels of silver ; yea, even their servants <sup>3</sup>bare rule over the people : but so did not I, because of the fear of God. Yea, also I <sup>4</sup>continued in the work of <sup>16</sup> this wall, neither bought we any land : and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work. Moreover there were at my table of the <sup>17</sup> Jews and the <sup>5</sup>rulers an hundred and fifty men, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that were round about us. Now <sup>18</sup> that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep ; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine : yet for all this I demanded not the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. Re- <sup>19</sup> member unto me, O my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

Now it came to pass, when it was reported <sup>1</sup> 6 to Sanballat and Tobiah, and to Geshem the Arabian, and unto the rest of our enemies, that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein ; (though even unto that time I had not set up the doors in the gates ;) that Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, say- <sup>2</sup> ing, Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. And I sent messengers <sup>3</sup> unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down : why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you ? And they sent unto me four times after <sup>4</sup> this sort ; and I answered them after the same manner. Then sent Sanballat his servant unto <sup>5</sup> me in like manner the fifth time with an open

- 6 letter in his hand; wherein was written, It is reported among the nations, and <sup>1</sup>Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel; for which cause thou buildest the wall: and thou wouldest be their king, according to these words.
- 7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore,
- 8 and let us take counsel together. Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of
- 9 thine own heart. For they all would have made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. But now, <sup>2</sup>O God, strengthen thou my hands.
- 10 And I went unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to
- 11 slay thee. And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being such as I, <sup>3</sup>would go into the temple to save his life? I
- 12 will not go in. And I discerned, and, lo, God had not sent him: but he pronounced this prophecy against me: and Tobiah and Sanballat
- 13 had hired him. For this cause was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil
- 14 report, that they might reproach me. Remember, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.
- 15 So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

<sup>3</sup> Or, could go into the temple and live

And it came to pass, when all our enemies <sup>16</sup> heard thereof, that all the heathen that were about us <sup>1</sup>feared, and were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God. More- <sup>17</sup> over in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them. For there were <sup>18</sup> many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shecaniah the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah to wife. Also they spake of his good deeds <sup>19</sup> before me, and reported my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, <sup>1</sup> 7 and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed, that I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah <sup>2</sup> the governor of the castle, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. And I said unto them, Let <sup>3</sup> not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand on guard, let them shut the doors, and bar ye them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house. Now the city was wide <sup>4</sup> and large: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded. And my God <sup>5</sup> put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the <sup>3</sup>rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy of them which came up <sup>6</sup> at the first, and I found written therein: <sup>3</sup>These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of which went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, 64 and was called after their name. These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore 1 were they deemed polluted and put from the 65 priesthood. And the 2 Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and 66 Thummim. The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and

And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments. So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities.

<sup>2</sup> And when the seventh month was come, the children of Israel were in their cities. And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the broad place that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation, both men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. And he read therein before the broad place that was before the water gate <sup>3</sup>from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a <sup>4</sup>pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he

6 it, all the people stood up: and Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with the lifting up of their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the 7 ground. Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.
8 And they read in the book, in the law of God, <sup>1</sup>distinctly; and they gave the sense, <sup>2</sup>so that 9 they understood the reading. And Nehemiah, which was the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they 10 heard the words of the law. Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto him for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye grieved; for 11 the joy of the LORD is your <sup>3</sup>strength. So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.
12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.
- 13 And on the second day were gathered together the heads of fathers' houses of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to give attention to the words of the law.
- 14 And they found written in the law, how that the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: and that they 15 should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and branches of wild olive, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. So the people went 16 forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the broad place of the water gate, and in the broad place of the gate of Ephraim. And all the congregation of them 17 that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and dwelt in the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness. Also day by 18 day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a <sup>1</sup>solemn assembly, according unto the ordinance.

<sup>1</sup> Or, closing festival

Now in the twenty and fourth day of this 1 9 month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth, and earth upon them. And the seed of Israel separated them- 2 selves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. And they stood up in their place, and 3 read in the book of the law of the LORD their God a fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God. Then stood up upon the 4 stairs of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadand Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting: and <sup>1</sup>blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and <sup>1</sup>Or, let them bless 6 praise. Thou art the LORD, even thou alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all things that are thereon, the seas and all that is in them, and thou preservest them all; and the host of 7 heaven worshippeth thee. Thou art <sup>2</sup>the LORD <sup>2</sup>Or, O LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and 8 gavest him the name of Abraham; and foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, even to give it unto his seed, and hast performed thy words; 9 for thou art righteous. And thou sawest the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest 10 their cry by the Red Sea; and shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them; and didst get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their pursuers thou didst cast into the depths, as a stone into the mighty 12 waters. Moreover thou leddest them in a pillar of cloud by day; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way wherein they 13 should go. Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgements and true laws, 14 good statutes and commandments: and madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and com-mandedst them commandments, and statutes; and a law, by the hand of Moses thy servant: and gavest them bread from heaven for their 15 hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and commandedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst lifted up thine hand to give them. But they and our fathers dealt 16 proudly, and hardened their neck, and hearkened not to thy commandments, and refused to obey, 17 neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their neck, <sup>1</sup>and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art <sup>2</sup>a God ready to pardon, gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, and forsookest them not. Yea, when they had 18 made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; yet thou in 19 thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud departed not from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go. Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct 20 them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in 21 the wilderness, and they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not. Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms 22 and peoples, <sup>3</sup>which thou didst allot after their portions: so they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. Their children 23 also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning <sup>3</sup> Or, and didst distribute them into every corner which thou didst say to their fathers, that they 24 should go in to possess it. So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou sub-duedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they 25 would. And they took fenced cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns hewn out, vineyards, and olive-yards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their back, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them again unto thee, and they 27 wrought great provocations. Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours who saved them out of the hand of their 28 adversaries. But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver 29 them according to thy mercies; and testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgements, (which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and <sup>1</sup>withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would 30 not hear. Yet many years didst thou bear with

a stubborn

them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit through thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. Nevertheless <sup>31</sup> in thy manifold mercies thou didst not make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God. Now therefore, <sup>32</sup> our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the travail seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day. How- <sup>33</sup>beit thou art just in all that is come upon us; for thou hast dealt truly, but we have done wickedly: neither have our kings, our princes, <sup>34</sup> our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. For they have not served thee in their <sup>35</sup> kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works. Behold, we <sup>36</sup> are servants this day, and as for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it. And it yieldeth much increase <sup>37</sup> unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have power over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress. And <sup>38</sup> yet for all this we make a <sup>2</sup>sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, and our priests, <sup>3</sup>seal unto it.

to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our meal offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

And we cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and 34 the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law: and to bring 35 the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all manner of trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD: also the firstborn 36 of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God: and that we should bring the first- 37 fruits of our <sup>1</sup>dough, and our heave offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, <sup>2</sup>the wine and the oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites; for they, the Levites, take the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.
And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with 38 the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house. For the children of 39 Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the

- 11 <sup>1</sup> And the princes of the people dwelt in Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts in the other cities.
- <sup>2</sup> And the people blessed all the men that willingly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem.
- <sup>3</sup> <sup>1</sup> Now these are the chiefs of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's

- <sup>8</sup> of Jeshaiiah. And after him Gabbai, Sallai, <sup>9</sup> nine hundred twenty and eight. And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer: and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second over the city.
- <sup>10</sup> Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin, <sup>11</sup> Seraiah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God, <sup>12</sup> and their brethren that did the work of the house, eight hundred twenty and two: and

 And of the Levites : Shemaiah the son of Has- 15 chief to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren ; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four. Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, 19 and their brethren, that kept watch at the gates, were an hundred seventy and two. And the 20 residue of Israel, of the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheri-Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim. The 22 overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the business of the house of God. For there was a commandment 23 provision for the singers, as every day required.

 And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the 24 children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

 Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded heads of fathers' houses: also the priests, <sup>2</sup>in the reign of Darius the Persian. The sons of Levi, <sup>23</sup> heads of fathers' houses, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. And the chiefs of the <sup>24</sup> Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward against ward. Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, <sup>25</sup> Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the storehouses of the gates. These were in the days of Joiakim <sup>26</sup> the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest the scribe.

<sup>3</sup> Or, Circuit

And at the dedication of the wall of Jeru- <sup>27</sup> salem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps. And the sons of the <sup>28</sup> singers gathered themselves together, both out of the <sup>3</sup>plain round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathites; also from <sup>29</sup> Beth-gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them

- 30 villages round about Jerusalem. And the priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.
- 31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies that gave thanks and went in procession; whereof one went on the right hand upon the
- 32 wall toward the dung gate: and after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah,
- 33, 34 and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, Judah, and
- 35 Benjamin; and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets: Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the
- 36 son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph; and his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God;
- 37 and Ezra the scribe was before them: and by the fountain gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward.
- 38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, with the half of the people, upon the wall, above the tower of the furnaces, even unto the broad wall;
- 39 and above the gate of Ephraim, and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, and the tower of Hananel, and the tower of <sup>1</sup>Hammeah, even chijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. And they offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

And on that day were men appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the heave offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, according to the fields of the cities, the portions <sup>1</sup>appointed by the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that <sup>2</sup>waited. And they kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, and so did the singers and the porters, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. For in the days of David and Asaph of old <sup>3</sup>there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, as every day required: and they sanctified for the Levites; and the Levites sanctified for the sons of Aaron.

On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God for ever; because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. And it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who 5 was appointed over the <sup>1</sup>chambers of the house prepared for him a great chamber, where afore-time they laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the heave offerings 6 for the priests. But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went unto the king, and after certain days asked I leave of the 7 king: and I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of 8 the house of God. And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff 9 of Tobiah out of the chamber. Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meal offerings and the frank-10 incense. And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, that did the 11 work, were fled every one to his field. Then contended I with the <sup>2</sup>rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. <sup>2</sup> Or, deputies 12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the wine and the oil unto the treasuries.

 13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their business 14 was to distribute unto their brethren. Rememthe house of my God, and for the observances thereof.

In those days saw I in Judah some treading <sup>15</sup> winepresses on the sabbath, and bringing in <sup>16</sup> winepresses on the sabbath, and bringing in <sup>17</sup> sheaves, and lading asses therewith; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals. There <sup>18</sup> dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought in fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. Then I contended with the nobles <sup>19</sup> of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day? Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God <sup>20</sup> bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath. And it came to pass that, <sup>21</sup> when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I over the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. So the merchants and sellers of all kind of <sup>22</sup> ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. Then I testified against them, and said unto <sup>23</sup> them, Why lodge ye <sup>24</sup> about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath. And I commanded the Levites that they should <sup>25</sup> purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember unto me, O my God, this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

In those days also saw I the Jews that <sup>26</sup> had <sup>27</sup> married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of 24 Moab: and their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language 25 of each people. And I contended with them, and <sup>1</sup>cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves.

 26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, and he was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: never-27 theless even him did strange women cause to sin. Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in 28 marrying strange women? And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horon-29 ite: therefore I chased him from me. Remember them, O my God, <sup>2</sup>because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the 30 priesthood, and of the Levites. Thus cleansed I them from <sup>3</sup>all strangers, and appointed wards for the priests and for the Levites, every one in 31 his work; and for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

Now it came to pass in the days of 1 1 <sup>1</sup> Or, Xerxes Heb.
Ahashverosh. <sup>1</sup> Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces :) that in those days, when the king Ahasuerus <sup>2</sup> sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in <sup>2</sup> Or, castle Shushan the <sup>2</sup> palace, in the third year of his <sup>3</sup> reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him : when he shewed the riches <sup>4</sup> of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days. And when these days <sup>5</sup> were fulfilled, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace; there <sup>6</sup> <sup>3</sup> Or, fine cloth, white and blue were hangings of <sup>3</sup> white cloth, of <sup>4</sup> green, and of <sup>4</sup> Or, cotton blue, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the couches <sup>5</sup> Or, of por- phyry, and white marble,
and alabaster,
and stone of blue colour were of gold and silver, upon a pavement <sup>5</sup> of red, and white, and yellow, and black marble.
And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, <sup>7</sup> (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the <sup>6</sup> Heb. hand. <sup>6</sup> bounty of the king. And the drinking was <sup>8</sup> according to the law; none could compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to 9 every man's pleasure. Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house 10 which belonged to king Ahasuerus. On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven <sup>1</sup>chamberlains that ministered in the presence of Ahasuerus the 11 king, to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the peoples and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to 12 look on. But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by the chamberlains: therefore was the king very 13 wroth, and his anger burned in him. Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all 14 that knew law and judgement; and the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and sat first in the kingdom:) 15 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not done the bidding of the king Ahasuerus by the chamber-16 lains? And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the peoples that are in all 17 the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, to make their husbands contemptible in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

 18 And this day shall the princesses of Persia and Media which have heard of the deed of the

<sup>2</sup> Or, enough So shall there arise <sup>2</sup>much contempt and wrath.
 If it please the king, let there go forth a royal <sup>19</sup> commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, <sup>3</sup> Heb. that it <sup>3</sup>that it be not altered, that Vashti come no <sup>pass not away.</sup> more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king <sup>4</sup> Heb. unto give her royal estate <sup>4</sup>unto another that is better <sup>her companion.</sup> than she. And when the king's decree which <sup>20</sup> he shall make shall be published throughout all his kingdom, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small. And the saying pleased the <sup>21</sup> king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan: for he sent <sup>22</sup> letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and should publish it according to the language of his people.

After these things, when the wrath of king <sup>1</sup> 2 Ahasuerus was pacified, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. Then said the king's servants <sup>2</sup> that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king: and let the <sup>3</sup> king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of <sup>5</sup> Heb. Hegai. <sup>5</sup>Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them: and let the maiden which pleaseth <sup>4</sup> the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

There was a certain Jew in Shushan the <sup>5</sup> palace, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a 6 Benjamite; who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives which had been carried away with <sup>1</sup>Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had 7 carried away. And he <sup>2</sup>brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for 8 his own daughter. So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken into the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, 9 keeper of the women. And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with her portions, and the seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he removed her and her maidens to the best place of the house of the women.

 10 Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that 11 she should not shew it. And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what 12 should become of her. Now when the turn of every maiden was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that it had been done to her according to the law for the women, twelve months, (for so were the days of their puri-fications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with the things for the purifying of the 13 women,) then in this wise came the maiden unto the king, whatsoever she desired was xxiv. 6,

given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house. In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name. Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her. So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a<sup>1</sup> release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the<sup>2</sup> bounty of the king. And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate. Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him. In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the<sup>3</sup> door, were wroth, and sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus. And the thing was known to

Mordecai, who shewed it unto Esther the queen; and Esther told the king thereof in Mordecai's name. And when inquisition was made of the matter, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

- 3 1 After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.
- 2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed down, and did reverence to Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not
- 3 down, nor did him reverence. Then the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's
- 4 commandment? Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's <sup>1</sup>matters would stand: for
- 5 he had told them that he was a Jew. And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not down, nor did him reverence, then was Haman
- 6 full of wrath. But he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the
- 7 people of Mordecai. In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month; to the twelfth month, which is the month
- 8 Adar. And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and <sup>2</sup>dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from those of every people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not <sup>1</sup>for the king's profit to suffer them. If it please the king, let it be written that they be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those that have the charge of the king's business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee. Then were the king's <sup>2</sup>scribes called in the first month, on the thirteenth day thereof, and there was written according to all that Haman commanded unto the king's satraps, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the princes of every people; to every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and it was sealed with the king's ring. And letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey. A copy of the writing, <sup>3</sup>that the decree should be given out in every province, was published unto all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day. The posts went forth in haste by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in Shushan the palace: and the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

Now when Mordecai knew all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth

with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry : 2 and he came even before the king's gate: for none might enter within the king's gate clothed 3 with sackcloth. And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; 4 and <sup>1</sup>many lay in sackcloth and ashes. And Esther's maidens and her chamberlains came and told it her; and the queen was exceedingly grieved: and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take his sackcloth from off him: but 5 he received it not. Then called Esther for Hathach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and charged him to go to Mordecai, to know what 6 this was, and why it was. So Hathach went forth to Mordecai unto the broad place of the 7 city, which was before the king's gate. And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's 8 treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her; and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him, for her people.
9 And Hathach came and told Esther the words 10 of Mordecai. Then Esther spake unto Hathach, and gave him a message unto Mordecai, saying: 11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law for him, that he be put to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days. And they told to Mordecai <sup>12</sup> Esther's words. Then Mordecai bade them <sup>13</sup> return answer unto Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews. For if thou <sup>14</sup> altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall relief and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place, but thou and thy father's house shall perish: and who knoweth whether thou art not come to the kingdom for such a time as this? Then Esther bade <sup>15</sup> them return answer unto Mordecai, Go, gather <sup>16</sup> together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast in like manner; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish. So <sup>17</sup> Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

Now it came to pass on the third day, that <sup>1</sup> 5 Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the entrance of the house. And it was so, when <sup>2</sup> the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. Then said <sup>3</sup> the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be given thee even to the half of the kingdom. And Esther said, If it seem good unto the <sup>4</sup> king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that it may be done as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet

6 that Esther had prepared. And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the 7 kingdom it shall be performed. Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request

8 is; if I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-

9 morrow as the king hath said. Then went Haman forth that day joyful and glad of heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up nor <sup>1</sup>moved for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless Haman refrained himself, and went home; and he sent and fetched his friends

11 and Zeresh his wife. And Haman recounted unto them the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and 12 servants of the king. Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to-morrow also am 13 I invited by her together with the king. Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a <sup>2</sup>gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

On that night <sup>1</sup>could not the king sleep; and 1 6 he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles, and they were read before the king. And it was found written, that Mordecai <sup>2</sup> had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, of those that kept the <sup>2</sup>door, who had sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus. And the king said, What honour <sup>3</sup> and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him. And the king said, Who is in the <sup>4</sup> court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. And the king's servants <sup>5</sup> said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. So Haman came in. And the king said unto <sup>6</sup> him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman said in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself? And Haman said unto the king, For the man <sup>7</sup> whom the king delighteth to honour, let royal <sup>8</sup> apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, <sup>3</sup>and on the head of which a crown royal is set: and let the apparel and the horse be delivered <sup>9</sup> to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and cause him to ride on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall

<sup>3</sup> Or, and the crown royal which is set upon his head it be done to the man whom the king delighteth 10 to honour. Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let 11 nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken. Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and caused him to ride through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man 12 whom the king delighteth to honour. And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hasted to his house, mourning and 13 having his head covered. And Haman recounted unto Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai, before whom thou hast begun to fall, be of the seed of the Jews, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before 14 him. While they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

7 1 So the king and Haman came <sup>1</sup>to banquet 2 with Esther the queen. And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom 3 it shall be performed. Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my 4 people at my request: for we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my peace, <sup>2</sup>although the adversary could not have compensated for the king's damage. Then spake the king 5 Ahasuerus and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so? And Esther said, An 6 adversary and an enemy, even this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. And the king arose in his 7 wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. Then the king 8 returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the couch whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he even force the queen before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. Then said Harbonah, one of 9 the chamberlains that were before the king, Behold also, the <sup>1</sup>gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman hath made for Mordecai, who spake good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. And the king said, Hang him thereon. So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he 10 had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the 1 8 house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her. And the king took off his ring, which 2 he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. And Esther spake yet 3 again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device 4 that he had devised against the Jews. Then the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre.

So Esther arose, and stood before the king.
5 And she said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's 6 provinces: for how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my 7 kindred? Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the 8 Jews. Write ye also <sup>1</sup>to the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, 9 may no man reverse. Then were the king's scribes called at that time, in the third month, which is the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and princes of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to 10 their language. And he wrote in the name of king Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, riding <sup>1</sup> Or,

on <sup>1</sup>swift steeds that were used in the king's service, bred of the stud: wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, their little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey, upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. A copy of the writing, <sup>2</sup>that the decree should be given out in every province, was published unto all the peoples, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. So the posts that rode upon swift steeds that were used in the king's service went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment; and the decree was given out in Shushan the palace. And Mordecai went forth from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan shouted and was glad. The Jews had light and gladness, and joy and honour. And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had gladness and joy, a feast and a good day. And many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews was fallen upon them.

Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have rule over them; whereas it was turned to the contrary, <sup>2</sup> Or, to be given out for a decree that the Jews had rule over them that hated 2 them; the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them was fallen 3 upon all the peoples. And all the princes of the provinces, and the satraps, and the governors, and they that did the king's business, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai was 4 fallen upon them. For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went forth throughout all the provinces: for the man 5 Mordecai waxed greater and greater. And the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they would unto them 6 that hated them. And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, 8, 9 and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vaizatha, 10 the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews' enemy, slew they; but on the spoil 11 they laid not their hand. On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the 12 palace was brought before the king. And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy 13 request further? and it shall be done. Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows. And the king commanded it 14 so to be done: and a decree was given out in Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

And the Jews that were in Shushan gathered 15 themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men in Shushan; but on the spoil they laid not their hand. And the other Jews that were 16 in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of them that hated them seventy and five thousand; but on the spoil they laid not their hand. This was done 17 on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. But the Jews that were in Shushan 18 assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. Therefore 19 do the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent 20 letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far, to enjoin them that they should keep the 21 fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, as the days 22 wherein the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them; 24 because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to 25 destroy them; but when the matter came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head; and that he and his sons should be hanged on 26 the gallows. Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that 27 which had come unto them, the Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to the writing thereof, and according to the appointed time thereof, 28 every year; and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them <sup>1</sup>perish from their seed. Then 29 Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all <sup>2</sup>authority 30 to confirm this second letter of Purim. And he sent letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, 31 to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had ordained for themselves and for their seed, <sup>3</sup>in the matter of the fastings and their cry. And the commandment of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book. 32

And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea. And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren; seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed. 10
